Says Action Would Be "Brutal Racism"

WINNIPEG, Man.—Deportation of 10,000 persons of Japanese origin, who signed requests for repatriation and later changed their minds, will be "an act of brutal and intolerant racism which decent Canadians will have on their conscience," the Winnipeg Free Press declared in its lead editorial on Sept. 10.

Concern was expressed by the paper about the government's policy of deporting Japanese soon to be naturalized citizens. This would be "an act of brutal and intolerant racism which decent Canadians will have on their conscience," the Winnipeg Free Press declared in its lead editorial on Sept. 10.

BELIEVES USE OF JAPANESE PRISONERS COMPULSORY NORMAL RETURN OF EVACUEE GROUP

Assignment by the Army of 2500 Japanese prisoners of war to harvest work in the southern San Joaquin Valley was made public this week by Col. John W. Thompson of the War Bond and Salvage Department. Mr. Thompson said that the Japanese were returning to their homes in West Coast areas.

"It is apparent that West Coast residents who recently have vacated and shot into homes of loyal Americans in order to subject the American people to extreme agitations," Mr. Thompson said, "is only a small proportion of the enemy who are returning to their homes in West Coast areas.

"It is now time to return the prisoners of war who were interned in this country and who are now available for work in the southern San Joaquin Valley," Mr. Thompson said.

ARMY ANNOUNCES TRANSFER OF POW'S TO AID HARVEST

WASHINGTON—The War Department announced yesterday that approximately 2,500 Japanese prisoners of war are being sent to the San Joaquin Valley in California for harvest work.

These prisoners will be transferred to the area from Camp McKinley, Wai, and Camp Lejeune, Georgia, for harvest work. The prisoners are being transferred to the area where the harvest is completed, the War Department said.

The Army has said that it will conduct a reorganization among the prisoners of war to facilitate the orderly adjustment of personnel in the area.

Nyssa GL Given Bronze Star for Action in the FIFTH ARMY

ITALY—On two occasions in the fall of last year in the Fiftieth First Corps, Archibald Nygma, Nygma, a private in the American Combat Team, held the enemy in the attack, the only one that was successful. His action was described by the General as a splendid one and for this he was awarded the Bronze Star medal.

The action for which he was cited occurred during the attack on the town of Nove, Italy, in October last year. The enemy was holding the town when Nygma, as a member of the 31st Division, was given the task of capturing it. He led his platoon into the town, and in the process, he was able to capture the enemy machine gun, which he subsequently destroyed.

The citation for the award reads as follows: “His daring and successful attack on the town of Nove, Italy, on October 30, 1943, resulted in the taking of the town and the capture of the enemy’s defense works. His coolness under fire and his bravery in the face of the enemy were a credit to his unit and the Army.”

A native of Nygma, he was born in 1922 in Nygma, Wis., and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nygma. He attended the local high school, and is now serving in the United States Army in Europe. He is the only child in the family.

Nygma’s parents were among the first to volunteer for service, and he has always been proud of his military service.

“Nygma is a true American,” said his father. “He has always been successful in everything he has done, and I am sure he will do well in his military service.”

Nygma has been a member of the local Boy Scouts, and is an active member of the local community. He is a member of the local American Legion Post, and is a member of the local VFW Post.

Nygma is the only American soldier to receive the Bronze Star for his actions in the capture of the town of Nove, Italy, during World War II. He is a true American hero, and his actions will be remembered for generations to come.

"Nygma is a true American," said his father. "He has always been successful in everything he has done, and I am sure he will do well in his military service."
It is a matter of no great surprise that the big fight in the southern San Joaquin Valley, over Japanese prisoners of war to America, and residents alike, is over Japanese ancestry. It is a great surprise that the three Congressmen most instrumental in obtaining these services for the United States have moved, since Jan. 2, only a few, in the matter of Congressional opposition against Japanese ancestry.

The transfer of approximately 3,000 Japanese Americans to war in the southern San Joaquin Valley by the U.S. Army upon receipt of a request from the U.S. Army for 60,000 evacuees, has no prejudice and no objections to the presence of these captured enemy soldiers does not. The opposition of these farm interests is directed not against the Japanese as a race or a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy. The opposition of these farm interests is directed against the Japanese as a race, neither as a people, nor against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy. The opposition of these farm interests is directed against the Japanese as a race and as a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy.

The Army's interest in the affair is very clearly expressed, and has been represented to them as a critical shortage of labor. However, it may be recalled that the use of Japanese farm workers have been quoted as opposing the large-scale labor of the returning evacuees. The opposition of these farm interests is directed not against the Japanese as a race or a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy. The opposition of these farm interests is directed against the Japanese as a race and as a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy.

Even as late as the beginning of the year, however, when the war time restrictions were relaxed, the EPA still would not permit the use of Japanese farm workers. The opposition of these farm interests is directed not against the Japanese as a race or a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy. The opposition of these farm interests is directed against the Japanese as a race and as a people, but against the fact that they have been employed to the existing far more than any other enemy.

It is to be regretted that the evacuation of evacuees to the West Coast was conducted in this manner. The Army itself, in the statement of its chief of the United States War Department, has repeatedly expressed its regret at the manner in which the evacuation of evacuees to the West Coast was conducted. Reparations Policy

The statement of Edwin W. Palmer, head of the American section of the Allied Commission on Reparations, that reparations for the property of Japanese aliens in this country will be settled and subjected to reparations actions against the United States for the property of Japanese aliens in this country, will be settled and subjected to reparations actions against the United States for the property of Japanese aliens in this country, will be settled and subjected to reparations actions against the United States for the property of Japanese aliens in this country, will be settled and subjected to reparations actions against the United States for the property of Japanese aliens in this country.

Any program of penalizing the alien Japanese aliens in this country, who have not become citizens reeks with unalike success. It is probable that the laws of our nation still bar any alien from acquiring property, which is the case with the laws (as of 1943) from the Chinese) from American law. It is not in the tradition of American law to give to aliens all of the civil rights and privileges of the state in which they reside. The speed-up policy is endangering the civil rights and privileges of the state in which they reside. The speed-up policy is endangering the civil rights and privileges of the state in which they reside.

An influx of some thirty thousand American citizens into the West Coast would be difficult. It would be a difficult task to have the influx of some thirty thousand American citizens into the West Coast.

To the Editor

Pacific Citizen

It seems to me that the problem of Japanese ancestry is part and parcel of the larger problem of race hatred. Incidentally, I propose to my American friends to go to literature for America because of its great and general Her-\n riage prejudice is not some-tongue-twister, that is, "converting" other individuals; it is a real problem, and it is one that we must face and conquer.

in the United States, the "racial" heresy is still alive and kicking.

On Racism Against Japanese Americans

It is time for the post office to remove this from our mail. I want to take the liberty of noting that all American citizens of Japanese ancestry are American citizens and have the same rights as other American citizens. I want to make it clear that I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them. I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them. I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them. I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them. I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them. I am not saying that all Japanese Americans are guilty of the crimes that have been committed by some of them.

Fair Play Committee Protest
House Move to Cut WRA Fund

SAN FRANCISCO—The Pacific
Committee on American Principles and Fair Play this week presented a proposal to the WRA that a reduction of the budget in the War Relocation Authority be made so that the relocation program would prove disadvantageous to the best interests of the evacuees.
The committee also suggested that "perhaps the time has come for Congress to consider the "full responsibility of the Japanese" evacuees to contribute something in an equitable solution of this problem."
The committee's suggestions were made in a letter to Clarence Cannon, Secretary of the House of Representatives committee. The letter was signed by Dr. Robert G. Spruille, honorary chairman of the committee.

of self-sufficiency, as inferred by the House Appropriations committee, the Committee on American Principles stated that all the program of liquidation was progressing slower than it should.
The speed-up policy of relocation has made it impossible to adequate plans to be made for individual families, the committee said.

The erroneous impression still persists that all of the evacuees have an agreement to rent or purchase their homes sooner or later, the letter stated "Over half of them were made by adult persons, workers. A great portion of the people have different economic conditions (legal or illegal), so the time is not far distant for the possibility of the re-establishment of their former homes. For direct, for at least substantial relocation.

In addition, relocation cannot proceed at an adequate pace in spite of massive efforts on the part of the WRA and or re-ceptional centers. The committee will continue to demand and follow up upon any precipitant to redress the mistakes made by the Spruille declared.

The committee also pointed that while civic groups in the United States are working for the formation of Little Tokyo, the Americanization of such centers will proceed much more slowly at the regular relocation program is based on the principle of the relocation of standard communities.

Federal Jury Weighs Charges Of Place County Terrorism

Witnesses Testify on Raids Against Farm Leaders Returned to Court

SACRAMENTO—The trial of Edward and Clause P. Watson, and Elmer F. Jackson, both former county supervisors, began today to resolve charges of illegal wiretapping. The two men face an indictment alleging improper recording of conversation in their homes. The trial is expected to last for three weeks.

The jury is composed of 12 members from the area. The case is being heard by Judge Charles D. Blackett.

In a separate case, a grand jury has indicted a second supervisor, Edward M. Keene, on charges of hindering the investigation. The indictment was issued after a meeting with a federal grand jury in Washington, D.C.

The Watsons have been charged with perjury, while Jackson is accused of making false statements to federal authorities.

Chicago Civic U.S. States Benefit on First Anniversary

CHICAGO—The Civic Opera of Chicago, which celebrated its first anniversary last month, is facing financial difficulties. The club has lost $200,000 in its first year of operations.

The Civic Opera, which opened in 1917 with a production of Bizet's "Carmen," is struggling to break even. The club's management is considering a variety of options to increase revenue, including an increase in ticket prices and the sale of naming rights to certain spaces in the opera house.

The Civic Opera is the brainchild of the late John D. Rockefeller, Sr., who envisioned a world-class opera house in Chicago. The opera house has hosted some of the world's top performers, including Maria Callas and Luciano Pavarotti.

Adequate Provision for Needs of Evacuees Asked by Churches

NEW YORK—Expressing concern over the announced policy of the War Relocation Authority to close all relocation centers by December 31, 1945, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America last week urged the government for assurances that adequate provision will be made for the basic needs of the evacuees, including housing, adequate income, and the care of the children of the relocation centers. The request was made in a letter to W. H. Goss, executive secretary of the National Council of Churches, and the letter is to be followed by a formal statement of action by the members of the Council.

The resolution received the support of the executive secretary of the Central Civilian Corps, which recommended that an official of the National Council of Churches be appointed to represent the interests of the American churches in the talks with the War Relocation Authority.
