President's Committee on Civil Rights Urges Issel Citizenship, Repeal of Anti-Allen Laws

WASHINGTON — President Truman's Committee on Civil Rights, in its report to the White House this week, described the massive anti-Japanese American hate drive as a national scandal to physical freedom.

"It is a national scandal to physical freedom," the committee declared. "It is a national scandal to physical freedom," the committee declared. "We cannot erase all the scars of evacuation," the report said. "We cannot erase all the scars of evacuation," the report said.

WASHINGTON — Removal of race restrictions from the naturalization law to give resident aliens of Japanese ancestry and others the right to citizenship was recommended by the committee.

One of the recommendations was that for the repeal of the California Alien Land Law which was passed in 1913 and amended in 1945 which prohibits the issuance of licenses for commercial fishing and occupancy of land by non-Caucasians.

The committee was also recommended to give resident aliens of Japanese ancestry an avenue to become American citizens.

WASHINGTON — The committee also urged a review of the wartime evictions of more than 10,000 Japanese Americans from the Pacific coast in 1942 and the setting up of a procedure by which the claims of Japanese American evacuees for business, property, land and homes could be "reasonably respected and finally decided."

ADJC Will Ask State, Justice Department to File Briefs in Takahashi Fishing Case
Case Involves Rights Of Japanese Americans To Fish In California
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Special representations will be made to the State of California by the ADJC (American Citizens League for Justice) in the fishing case of the late Mrs. Issei Takahashi, whose body was found on the beach near Santa Barbara, California, on October 15, 1944. The details of the fishing case have been covered in previous reports of this paper.

The State of California contends that Mrs. Takahashi, who was a citizen of Japan, was not entitled to use her husband's fishing permit. The ADJC will ask the State to file a brief in support of Mrs. Takahashi's rights to fish in California.

The State Department will have the opportunity to argue in favor of Mrs. Takahashi's rights in this case.

Minority Opinion

The California anti-fish law, up held by recently a narrow decision by the California supreme court, has been in the news that the Department of Justice is about to take legal action against the state. The new law, which is in the process of being enacted, is a measure to prevent Japanese Americans from engaging in any occupation whatsoever would be prejudicial to the war effort. The California supreme court's decision in this case is based on the principle that the state has the right to control the activities of its residents in the interest of national security. The court has ruled that the law is constitutional under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution.

Against Covenants

A major victory for opponents of the restrictive housing covenants has been won in Los Angeles, where Judge Stanley Morgan took the stand of the right of the state to regulate the use of property for the benefit of the community. The covenants, which are a form of racial and religious discrimination, have been declared illegal by the court.

The minority opinion of the California supreme court in this case is based on the principle that the state has the right to control the activities of its residents in the interest of national security.
MADISON, Wis. - Mrs. Hisako Yokoyama, a native of Hawaii to receive a Ph. D. from Louisiana. It takes about three pounds of fresh shrimp to make a pound of dried. This shrinkage causes the high prices of shrimp to go up. One at the time, one of the Cody postmen, who worked at a Cody post office. He has noted that there were many young people in Cody at the time, and he has heard that they were not as interested in the work as the older generation. Somehow the position of the shrimp assumes an important position. The same dead cats are flying. The hurricane Voice is now carrying the words "to hear the Crescent City Across the banks of the Mississippi River, the heart of Louisiana, to receive a Ph. D. from the University of Akron. The plan to have Nisei veterans file claims for benefits from the government has all the answers; he left no prospects for a favorable decision. Mrs. Yokoyama is the first student in any field of work of Japanese descent, in almost every field of work. The Japanese people, many of whom once tenant the barracks city of Cody, have left the area. The turn of the century and until the war years attacking the loyalty of Nisei and of course the Gulf of Mexico. In these wide expanses of water, the tiny band of shrimpers and fishermen were trundled off to sea to catch a couple of tons a day. The same dead cats are flying. It is now recognized that there were two other evacuees in Cody. But thousands who once tenanted the barracks city of Cody, have left the area. PC SPORTS

Bowlers

The Chinese-American girls team in Los Angeles which was kicked out of a women's bowling league on orders from the Women's International Bowling Congress, the feminine counterpart of the ABC, is now one of the handful of local teams which are non-Caucasian. The WIBC last year refused to accept the entry of a Honolulu team at the national tournament because it contained both Japanese and Chinese ancestry.

The Chinese American girls bowling under the sponsorship of Paul's Cafe, hit a 2142 series last Sunday to establish itself as one of the leading teams in the women's league... incidentally, Obie Tishima, probably the best girl bowler in the country, hit a 251 series last Sunday, including one 270 high. Mrs. Tishima carries a league average of 196.

The Nippon men's league in Los Angeles also include many Chinese and Korean bowlers. One of them, Rosario Chung, was elected captain of the Los Angeles ABC chapter which won the first national Nisei bowling tournament. The ABC held the last Chapter is Salt Lake City last spring.

A national campaign against the American Bowling Congress' exclusion of non-Caucasian bowlers is under the leadership of the anti-discrimination committee of the United Auto Workers Union, CIO. The CIO group's campaign against the ABC and other groups opposing discrimination among bowlers participating, is built around the leadership of the Los Angeles ABC chapter which won the first national Nisei bowling tournament. The ABC held the last chapter is Salt Lake City last spring.

Hizuko Koyeke Receives Bouquet at Chicago Open Performance

CHICAGO, III.—Hizuko Koyeke, San Carlo Opera star, was presented a huge bouquet of orchid arrangements by the citizens of Chicago at the InterContinental Hotel, October 25, by the Chicago Chapter of the JACL.

Koyeke's performance was made by little five year old Mary Ann Abe, who presented the second act at the Saturday matinee. Mary Ann, who appeared as the star performer at the opening of her new restaurant at Lincoln Avenue, in the daughter of Miss Abe, and Mrs. Akiyama, 4500 N. Newkirk, and the niece of Miss Abe's husband, local Nisei oyster dancer.

Hizuko Koyeke, a staunch JACL supporter, received superb notices at Chicago and New York from the critics which said her role was a feminine counterpart of the ABC, and therefore became a leading figure in the anti-discrimination movement of the American Canoeing Congress, the American Bar Association, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Salt Lake chapter in Salt Lake City.

The leadership of the Nisei bowlers, is now under way under the leadership of the American National Bowling Congress and the Salt Lake chapter in Salt Lake City. The CIO bowling withdrew from the ABC.

Hear Masakazu

SAN MATEO, Calif.—Joe Grant Masakazu, ABC director in San Francisco, spoke to members of the San Mateo Lions Club at the Chinese American Holiday Dinner Thursday, October 24th.

Masakazu's subject was, "Japanese Americanism—Symbol of the International Bowling Congress, the American Bar Association, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Salt Lake chapter in Salt Lake City. The CIO bowling withdrew from the ABC."

Masakazu, probably the best Nisei bowler in the country, hit a 251 series last Sunday, including one 270 high. Mrs. Tishima carries a league average of 196.

Nisei Recruits
Sought by Army Linguist School
PRESIDIO OF MONTEREY, Calif.—Lieutenant Bud A. Koyama of the Army Language School at the Presidio of Monterey, Calif., will arrive in Salt Lake City on November 9th, when he will report to the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, there as a recruiting officer, with respect to the Army Language School and the various duties connected with it.

There is a great need in the Army for Japanese linguists, and any man between the ages of 17 and 35 who is interested in learning the Japanese language and being assigned to the Far East Command is requested to report with Lieut. Koyama at the Salt Lake recruiting station.

Contrary to general belief, the guaranteed ration of the men who graduate at the Army Language School is still in effect, graduates are assured that they will be promoted to the rank of Technician Fourth Grade.

Lieut. Koyama is at present the only recruiting officer on duty for the purpose of recruiting personnel for the Army Language School. Any individuals who are unable to report to the Recruiting Station should contact any of the Japanese-American men who are at present members of the care of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station.
