Call of Oregon country beckons

Just as a ball player was well aware of 21 to be a good ball player, or just a doctor liking his son to be a doctor, too, I think I would like to have Chris Fraser, son of the late Jack Fraser, continue his career in the Naval Academy. Toward that end, I've been nursing along in my mind for his second birthday, and I'd like to have a job for him, and I'd like to have him in the Navy. After a year and a half I think him in the point where he'd like to go off and do something, and I'd like to have him in the service when he's ready.

Last year the family had its first long vacation and really had a very, very delightful two weeks of travel at the state of the Royal Safari in the Hool Hound Hotel, Ore. Chris had his 21st birthday, and it was a lot of fun he had, nor has Patti at that.

CL. Toward that end, I've been thinking of a tuna clipper captained by a local kid, the new captain by the name of Masaaki Taira, who was one of the kids that I've been thinking of a lot of.

After a year and a half of the ship being wrecked at sea, we expected to arrive today. The ship was first sighted at 9:00 a.m., and 10:40 a.m. was the time given that the ship was arriving at the harbor. The ship was named the Tuna Clipper.

The Coast Guard said the fishing boat Anthony M. was sliced to pieces in the rocks in typhoon-like weather with winds over 80 mph. Several survivors of the bodies of three fishermen drowned at sea were expected to arrive today. The ship was named the Tuna Clipper and was built by the Masaaki Taira Company in Mexico.

Whither Nisei problem?

Denver

It occurred to me just the other day that I didn’t read or hear anything about the Nisei problem. Those of us who grew up on the West coast and reached adulthood in the thirties were not exposed to the same kind of constant Pomona-San Bernardino debate that is sustaining the Nisei problem. Thickers and chron- ing wills have also disappeared, and there are no more “What will the Nisei do?” parties. The current inane political problems are too serious for parties. The Nisei problem has disappeared. Silence and respect are the new Nisei terms.

“Whither the Nisei?” You couldn’t go into a Nisei cultural content with the question, as you could in the twenties. So there was no dialogue on the subject. The Nisei of other communities and the ethnic groups were reacting to the Nisei today. The Nisei of other communities and the ethnic groups were reacting to the Nisei today. The Nisei today are being kept so busy at their jobs and businesses that there isn’t much time to worry about the old problems. Taking part in service clubs and various Nisei activities, gives them an opportunity to plug away. They also get a chance to keep abreast of the world’s progress and by doing so, they are sure to derive great satisfaction.

In the process of keeping abreast, people are sure to derive great satisfaction. People are sure to derive great satisfaction.

Japanese ceramics topic of Downtown L.A. luncheon meet

George Aratani, prominent Nisei businessman, will speak on the Japanese ceramics industry at the Downtown Los Angeles JACL luncheon meeting next Thursday, May 14, at San Kei Room, Los Angeles. He will be introduced by Kei Utsumi, chapter president.

A pewever resident of Guadalajara, where his family was engaged in letteering, Aratani is recognized as the outstanding Nisei importer-exporter in Los Angeles.

He is president of American Commercial Inc., with offices in New York and Los Angeles, and foreign offices in Nippon and Tokyo.

The subject of Aratani’s presentation will be on the ceramics industry of Japan, which he is qualified to discuss because of his family’s being primarily engaged in the importation of fine porcelain china dinnerware sets manufactured in Nagoya and of his frequent visits to Japan in connection with his business.

The active JACL supporter, who presented several pieces of attractive china as door prizes, was reported by Utsumi, who added: “If our members should have a chance to see some of these delicacies personally, we’d like to invite him to attend. Fund for Republican to survey Nisei housing needs

HERKELL—Harry Kitano, working in conjunction with the Committee on Race and Housing supported by the Fund for the Republican, will make a survey to determine the extent of discrimination against Nisei and in housing in San Francisco.

Kitano is working as research assistant under Dr. George Arata, UC professor who is in charge of the entire housing survey covering 11 minorities.

Kitano’s survey will get under way July 1 with a corps of about eight paid interviewers. Results, he said, will be associated with the International Institute of San Francisco. He has left the position to work on the housing survey.

After completion of the survey in San Francisco, Kitano will conduct a similar survey in Los Angeles beginning Sept. 1.

In this survey, Nisei and Issei some owners will be asked to give their experience in buying homes they did not own, or they were subjected to discrimination and whether they paid a reasonable or higher than market price.

• Double-decker super “Strato Clippers” have more power than any other airliners flying the Pacific.

• Leave any day you want from the West Coast... Pan American has more flights than any other airline.

• Only Pan Am offers direct service from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland.

• Japanese-speaking representatives, who understand Japanese customs, are on hand to assist you at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Honolulu (stop over, if you wish), and Tokyo.

• You can use the original Pan Am “Pay-Later” plan. Pay 10% down, balance monthly.

the moola being the principal reasons, but anyhow which bears its name. This week, Seattle’s Stickpaper weekly, Washington makes a generous contribution to the Trade Fair rarities.

For number one of all sea foods. Perhaps I should explain. The goeduck is a clam, the largest, a clump, about the size of a goose egg. Compared with old times, clams are scarce, and a limit is the legal catch for the Pacific Coast inroads of civilization and water contamination, they're now on only at minus tide; that is, a tide below the mean level for the gooduck’s neck, and thus impaled, he was easy to capture. So don’t let anyone say s.

It may be that we are not in a resolu­tion mood about these so-called housing lawsuits. The latest report on the study of discrimination faced by Japanese-American homeowners suggests that our efforts to solve this problem have been insufficient. Apparently, the forthcoming findings through different results—although we hope we could be wrong.

The forthcoming findings through the Committee on Race and Housing. As many as 500 Oriental families of their choice find the experience rather bitter. And the more facts face such difficulties, the more easily discouraged we become.

But our comment doesn’t lie in the measure of pain suffered in order to purchase a home of their liking. While the pattern prevailing in housing discrimination leaves much for improvement, administered at a housing council, two hundred or even five hundred do not necessarily bring out different attitudes—although we hope we could be wrong.

Hawaii Demos pick Nisei to high post

HONOLULU 12.- Dr. Ernest J. Moriwaki, a dentist who took active part in the 80th Congress, was elected Democratic national committee chairman to serve until the Democratic national convention in 1956. He is the first Nisei to be elected to a major Democratic national committee post.

Nisei for Kansei Society

"Nisei for Kansei Society" would indicate Japanese Americans who are sympathetic to the Government's efforts to control the loyalty of their fellow Americans who are of Japanese ancestry. If the "Nisei for Kansei Society" was effective in its objectives, the Japanese American community would have a better opportunity to play a more active role in the government.

Hollywood plans meeting to show voting to Issels

WASHINGTON 10.- The meeting which has been scheduled as to whether the existence and only the current status of the "Nisei for Kansei Society" is to be investigated and studied by the House and Senate Committees. The Washington Office of the "Nisei for Kansei Society" has been reported this week.

Since there are 21 major Japan­ese organizations, new, old, and former, listed on the subcommittee list, the JACL is followed to determine the relative results of this investigation.

The JACL has for the past ten years been trying to persuade the attorney general either to eliminate the Japanese organizations or to take any action which will be of utmost importance by the President in 1955.

Thus, "Nisei for Kansei Society" would indicate Japanese Americans who are sympathetic to the Government's efforts to control the loyalty of their fellow Americans who are of Japanese ancestry. If the "Nisei for Kansei Society" was effective in its objectives, the Japanese American community would have a better opportunity to play a more active role in the government.
