PRESIDENT'S CORNER: Final expression of gratitude

This being my last column as National President I would like to take this final opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to those who have made my term of office a most pleasant one.

First of all, to the general membership of the organization I owe an enormous thanks for the truly wonderful way in which they responded to the task that faced us in 1952.

Thanks to them, we have moved fully through the transition period and today the JACL is on a sounder foundation than ever before in its history. The membership is showing a steady growth, new vitality and enthusiasm that permeates the rank and file of the organization.

Thanks to them I am allowed to retire from office with the JACL's future looking brighter than ever before.

Secondly, I certainly owe a debt of gratitude to the board of directors who with whom it was truly a pleasure to serve.

Each did a yeoman's job on whatever assignment was asked of them. And, in their respective areas each exerted tremendous influence in bringing about the wonderful progress JACL enjoys today.

Thirdly, and certainly not the least, I could not retire without expressing my gratitude to the wonderful staff, from the national office to the field secretaries. Each one is devoted to the JACL. Time and again I have come to know how they exemplified in their efforts for the JACL a national president could help but develop a sentimental attachment to people like our staff members.

So my closing remarks come from the bottom of my heart in a great big THANK YOU to you all.

—George Inagaki

300 San Franciscoan Assist in Staging 14th Biennial Confab

SAN FRANCISCO. — A good thing the JACL convention is hard to kill.

When the 12th Biennial came to town over the Labor Day weke nd at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles two years ago, over 1,000 had registered for an all-time high and enjoyed what appeared to be the "biggest and bestest" convention among Japanese Americans.

As delegates were finishing their deliberations in the 1954 meeting, the subject of the 1956 convention was tabled and left to the discretion of the national JACL board — unprecedented in the 25 year history of the organization. A bid for the convention was left in the hands of national headquarters.

The National Council decided to withhold action regarding the site of the 1956 convention for a half year and if no bids were received, the board would then designate the date and place with national headquarters making necessary arrangements.

Sawtooth national director, in March, 1955, reported to the board that the journale theme of the two preceding conventions and no chapters had submitted bids.

He then recommended to the board that the national council meeting be held in San Francisco over the Labor Day weekend. The selection of this city was based on convenience and the possibility of a convention that could be made with a minimum of expense.

Sawtooth also pointed out that San Francisco had been chosen for its attractions for things to see and do and for the hotel situation with which some of the chapter leaders whom he could personally identify.

Two months later, Sawtooth met with the San Francisco JACL chapter and presented him with a national council on a simplified basis: courtesy list was issued, 100 Club membership, etc.

The chapter board happily accepted and national headquarters began negotiating for a hotel to accommodate the convention. Other events such as the mixer, golf and sport tournaments were still not on the convention program with sponsorship of these events open to any chapter in the biennial.

Last September, the San Francisco chapter board unanimously voted to hold the 1956 convention on record to take over the 1956 convention. In the meantime, the Sherman-Palace Hotel was contracted as the convention site. As a matter of local pride, the board members geared themselves to stage the 14th Biennial.

At the same time, a "watered-down" national convention with a maximum of business sections and a minimum of social attractions disappeared with Jerry Enomoto, then chapter president, called the first meeting to organize a convention board.

With less than a year to prepare for the gala affair, Enomoto was named general convention chairman.

* * *

Yes for Prop. 13 gains new support

Additional support for adoption of Prop. 13 on the California November 6 election ballot was gained this week by the So. Calif. JACL Biennial Committee.

The Los Angeles Mirror News in an editorial on Aug. 22, called the Alien Land Law "an obsolete law that should be repealed," describing how the Alien Property Initiative Act of 1917 served an injustice to Japanese aliens and how the Alien Land law was invalidated by the courts and continued as a "dead letter" on Proposition 13.

The California State Federation of Labor (AFL) at its 54th convention held in Long Beach Aug. 13 to 17, adopted an endorsement of Proposition 13 recommending a "YES" vote.

Earlier other community groups had not hesitated to declare a "YES" vote for Proposition 13 to repeal the Alien Property Initiative Act of 1917 and include the Chambers of Commerce of Los Angeles and San Francisco, the City Council of Los Angeles, the Jewish Community Relations Committee of San Francisco, the NAACP, Los Angeles City Councilman Edward R. Roybal and others.

George J. Inagaki, national JACL president, retired from office May 6 at the close of the 14th Biennial convention after leading the organization through one of the most transitional periods of 1953-56.

1000ers urged to get tickets for Whining-Ding

SAN FRANCISCO. — Predicting a turnover crowd for the 1000 Club Whining-Ding tomorrow night at the Surf Club, delegates were urged to purchase tickets at the Convention registration desk upon arrival at the Sherman-Palace by Frank Ono, event chairman.

Reservations began pouring into convention headquarters from chapters across the nation last week.

The Whining-Ding will take place promptly at 5:30 p.m., with dinner being served at 6:30. Tokuzo Gordon of Chicago will emcee 1000-ers.

Del Courtney's orchestra to play at 14th Biennial finale—Sayonara Ball

SAN FRANCISCO. — The traditional Sayonara Ball which climax es each national JACL convention will close the 14th Biennial on Monday, Sept. 3, in the Rose Room and Concert Room of the Shibuya-Sheraton-Palace Hotel with Marshall Sumida master of ceremonies.

Del Courtney and his 13-piece orchestra will provide varied music for dancing in the two ballrooms, both of which adjoin each other. The band leader will know well many of the JACL delegates through his weekly Del Courtney Show on KPIX on Sunday afternoons. Special requests numbers will be encouraged.

The Sayonara Ball will be semi-formal. Ladies are reminded that either gowns or "after-five" attire would be appropriate. Dancing will be from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

The national convention, Sharon Nakano will reign over the event with members of her court: Miss Nakanishi, Miss Akamatsu, Miss Iwamoto, Miss Harada, Miss Sano, Miss Arakawa, Miss Iwamoto, Miss Nakano and Miss Nakano. The special "Queen's Dance" will follow the first intermission.

Special entertainment during the evening will consist of solos by Lane Nakano of Los Angeles, well-known singer of special songs, and a dancing exhibition by the Arthur Murray Studios.

Part of the core of hard-working convention board members staging the 14th Biennial opening weekend in San Francisco's Labor Day weekend were: (left to right): seated—Sumi Honnami, registrar; Sumi Utsunomiya, hospitality chair; standing—Maxwell Rabb, secretary; Jerry Enomoto, exec. gen. chairman; and Mrs. Fyo Dobashi, pub.
Prisingly large and properly appreciative of the singers' characters were exhausted themselves simply shuffling on feet and was thoroughly chilled before the performance ended. Such a vast, open-air Red Rocks theater with a stage at large and almost as barren as a basketball court. Poor Cho-Cho-san and her associates were practically lost in this massive setting and one got the impression that some of the points of four rows up she was certainly the most handsome and shapely young lady in the whole cast.

JACL convention—Continued from Front Page

Tokyo TOPICS: by Tomotaka Murayama
Early JACL days grim

Tokyo — While the 4th Biennial national JACL convention described as a milestone demonstration to show what American citizens of Japanese extraction are capable of in a modern and democratic society, this reporter can recall the early days of the JACL movement. We have certainly come a long way since then. The following are samples of the handful of leaders of those days still sharing their burdens for the organization.

In the middle 1930's, there were several roadblocks to have the JACL formed. One was the California Issei group led by Frank Kuroki. The Issei were opposed. On the other side, anti-JACL experts from Issei and Nisei were far more strong, progressively-minded Nisei and men and women. They had organized a group that once rejected the leadership of the Japanese-American civil rights group. They understood what JACL wanted to do, and their efforts to refuse to accept Nisei leadership of this group were in the spirit of the American civil rights movement of the 1960s. It would appear that this "radical" group in the late 1930's, McClatchy deleted, although the Nisei as a whole suffered.

Yet, there were equally those (the exception) capable of being tied to the JACL movement during its infancy. In 1938, there was an outbreak of a movement that spread from the stage point of four rows up she was certainly the most handsome and shapely young lady in the whole cast.

Calif. voter registration deadline emphasized by Passadena JACL chapter

SEATTLE. - Dates for the 15th JACL convention are March 28-30 in San Francisco. This is the 74th convention held by the organization in its 74-year history.

At a special cabinet meeting held by Harris Ozawa, president, at his home Sphere St., San Francisco, was held the 14th International JACL convention and set an Oct. 18 hearing date to report the convention. The convention was held by the People's Convention. The convention was set for the 15th JACL convention.

The second Tuesday of January will be the 15th JACL convention. The convention was held by the People's Convention. The convention was set for the 15th JACL convention.

I'm certainly no expert on the Japanese stage, but I can report that the head of the company, or using him in the courts for every- thing he has, she suffers quietly, singing a song. She is called by Harris Ozawa, president.

We should consider the people of Japan as a whole. Occupational forces here. This is ironic that these "Yobiyose" boys, whose par- ents were Issei parents, have come back to Japan.

So much for this forsy into the rambunctious atmosphere of culture. A glad it doesn't happen very often in Fran in the Frying Pan.
Beautifully embroidered silk flag bearing the JACL Emblem and national motto—Better Americans in a Greater America—will be officially presented to the Japanese American Citizens League by its donor, Yaemon Minami, well-known pioneer and Issei leader from Guadalupe at the Convention's Opening Ceremonies. The flag was originally donated in recognition of JACL's quarter century of service. By the flag are National Director Masao Satow of San Francisco and Sharon Nishimi of Sacramento, who reigns as Miss National JACL of 1956.
perspectively yours,
by Jerry Enomoto

San Francisco

- WELCOME! Howdy, fellow JACLers, and a warm welcome to San Francisco. We of the host Chapter are happy to "open our Golden Gates" to you delegates and bo不过是 to the 14th Biennial National Convention of our organization. Our city has been the locale of many an epoch making event and, in 1952, was the scene of our 12th Biennial. When we gathered here then, we were on the threshold of time of our most significant legislative victories. Now, four years later, we meet again in San Francisco, serene in the knowledge that the JACL has improved the lot of Americans of Japanese ancestry in this Democracy of ours yet aware that we continue to be challenged by unresolved problems affecting ourselves and our fellow man. Appropriately enough, our theme, "Changing Perspectives", reflects the need for an ever-changing and fresh approach to the problems of our times.

HOSPITALITY PLUS

- "The City That Loves You Most" that's an old motto as any, so roll out the red carpet for all of you. Here at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, headquarters of the 14th Biennial, you'll find comfort and service. By the way, don't you register right now in the South Lobby and meet our registration boss Sumi Utsumi, who'll give you official delegates all the paraphernalia you need for National Council sessions. If you're a booster, she'll take good care of you too. See that friendly gal over there? That's Sally Noda, the pre-registration lady. Here's the map, showing the hot spots and City layout, for complete dope on locale of events, as well as spots to see in town. You'll also find material and information on guided tours around San Francisco and its environs, night spots, etc. You'll find a booth with two beautiful gals in it, and they'll be glad to take those "Operation Mercury" stubs and 1001 (or old, or new) to be handled around a prime rib. We'll have a lot of material and information on guided tours around San Francisco. We of the host Chapter are happy to "open our Golden Gates" to you delegates and booster to the 14th Biennial National Convention of our organization. Our city has been the locale of many an epoch making event and, in 1952, was the scene of our 12th Biennial. When we gathered here then, we were on the threshold of time of our most significant legislative victories. Now, four years later, we meet again in San Francisco, serene in the knowledge that the JACL has improved the lot of Americans of Japanese ancestry in this Democracy of ours yet aware that we continue to be challenged by unresolved problems affecting ourselves and our fellow man. Appropriately enough, our theme, "Changing Perspectives", reflects the need for an ever-changing and fresh approach to the problems of our times.

If you're an old timer, you'll probably be frantically reviewing acquaintances with conventioners from all over the country. If you're a Convention "first timer" and are part of the "new blood" rapidly swelling our ranks, come on over and meet our hospitality chairman Sumi Utsumi, (don't tell her I said so, but she's actually the uncrowned queen of San Francisco). Anyway, she's got a host of gals itching to give you the "run down" on how to get around. She'll have your hands. You have to keep them tapped, you're OK, but if you don't, go and check at the desk. Maybe a room might still be available at the 25% discount rate.

- Let's hop the elevator and go up to the second floor for a look at the National Council session locale. Here's the master map, showing the hot spots and City layout, for complete dope on locale of events, as well as spots to see in town. You'll also find material and information on guided tours around San Francisco and its environs, night spots, etc. You'll find a booth with two beautiful gals in it, and they'll be glad to take those "Operation Mercury" stubs and 1001 (or old, or new) to be handled around a prime rib. We'll have a lot of material and information on guided tours around San Francisco. We of the host Chapter are happy to "open our Golden Gates" to you delegates and booster to the 14th Biennial National Convention of our organization. Our city has been the locale of many an epoch making event and, in 1952, was the scene of our 12th Biennial. When we gathered here then, we were on the threshold of time of our most significant legislative victories. Now, four years later, we meet again in San Francisco, serene in the knowledge that the JACL has improved the lot of Americans of Japanese ancestry in this Democracy of ours yet aware that we continue to be challenged by unresolved problems affecting ourselves and our fellow man. Appropriately enough, our theme, "Changing Perspectives", reflects the need for an ever-changing and fresh approach to the problems of our times.

HOSPITALITY PLUS

- "The City That Loves You Most" that's an old motto as any, so roll out the red carpet for all of you. Here at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, headquarters of the 14th Biennial, you'll find comfort and service. By the way, don't you register right now in the South Lobby and meet our registration boss Sumi Utsumi, who'll give you official delegates all the paraphernalia you need for National Council sessions. If you're a booster, she'll take good care of you too. See that friendly gal over there? That's Sally Noda, the pre-registration lady. Here's the master map, showing the hot spots and City layout, for complete dope on locale of events, as well as spots to see in town. You'll also find material and information on guided tours around San Francisco and its environs, night spots, etc. You'll find a booth with two beautiful gals in it, and they'll be glad to take those "Operation Mercury" stubs and 1001 (or old, or new) to be handled around a prime rib. We'll have a lot of material and information on guided tours around San Francisco. We of the host Chapter are happy to "open our Golden Gates" to you delegates and booster to the 14th Biennial National Convention of our organization. Our city has been the locale of many an epoch making event and, in 1952, was the scene of our 12th Biennial. When we gathered here then, we were on the threshold of time of our most significant legislative victories. Now, four years later, we meet again in San Francisco, serene in the knowledge that the JACL has improved the lot of Americans of Japanese ancestry in this Democracy of ours yet aware that we continue to be challenged by unresolved problems affecting ourselves and our fellow man. Appropriately enough, our theme, "Changing Perspectives", reflects the need for an ever-changing and fresh approach to the problems of our times.

If you're an old timer, you'll probably be frantically reviewing acquaintances with conventioners from all over the country. If you're a Convention "first timer" and are part of the "new blood" rapidly swelling our ranks, come on over and meet our hospitality chairman Sumi Utsumi, (don't tell her I said so, but she's actually the uncrowned queen of San Francisco). Anyway, she's got a host of gals itching to give you the "run down" on how to get around. She'll have your hands. You have to keep them tapped, you're OK, but if you don't, go and check at the desk. Maybe a room might still be available at the 25% discount rate.

- Let's hop the elevator and go up to the second floor for a look at the National Council session locale. Here's the master map, showing the hot spots and City layout, for complete dope on locale of events, as well as spots to see in town. You'll also find material and information on guided tours around San Francisco and its environs, night spots, etc. You'll find a booth with two beautiful gals in it, and they'll be glad to take those "Operation Mercury" stubs and 1001 (or old, or new) to be handled around a prime rib. We'll have a lot of material and information on guided tours around San Francisco. We of the host Chapter are happy to "open our Golden Gates" to you delegates and booster to the 14th Biennial National Convention of our organization. Our city has been the locale of many an epoch making event and, in 1952, was the scene of our 12th Biennial. When we gathered here then, we were on the threshold of time of our most significant legislative victories. Now, four years later, we meet again in San Francisco, serene in the knowledge that the JACL has improved the lot of Americans of Japanese ancestry in this Democracy of ours yet aware that we continue to be challenged by unresolved problems affecting ourselves and our fellow man. Appropriately enough, our theme, "Changing Perspectives", reflects the need for an ever-changing and fresh approach to the problems of our times.

TOP: Mayor-George Christopher presents Sharon Nishimi, Miss National JACL of 1956, the key to the City of San Francisco, when she paid a visit to His Honor and extended him the official welcome of the 14th Biennial Convention. The mayor will welcome delegates at the Opening Ceremonies. BELOW: Tourists as well as natives love the skyline of San Francisco as noted in the background of Queen Sharon who tries to keep her little hat from flying off while posing for photographer Marshall Sumida, who has taken all the pictures in the special convention issue.

A day with Queen Sharon in San Francisco . . .
But when we met Ab Jenkins, the year was 1942, when moving along the highway toward the city limits of Salt Lake he said, in effect, and I just wanted to welcome you to our town.

Before discussing the qualifications of these nominees, it might be pointed out that the NCNW's nominating committee considered the following qualifications of their selections to the above three offices and the committee could see no point in further nominations.

It is the story we remember the best, and one we hope we remember among them Governor Carr of Colorado, Governor Bessie F. Manville of Nevada. But we'd have remembered him,” recognizing the tall, tanned and friendly face. We would have remembered the numerous times he had come to the help of the Nisei in Salt Lake City back those days immediately following the evacuation.

He was Ab Jenkins of course the name will be instantly recognized by followers of sports. He was one of the greatest men in auto racing, and though death came to him at the age of 76, he left behind him a number of endurance speed records for speed and endurance. Last year, at 72, he established a new 24-hour endurance speed record, and still holds the record for speed and endurance. Last year, at 72, he established a new 24-hour endurance speed record, and still holds the record for speed and endurance.

Therefore, the committee decided

Continued on Page 6

Continued on Page 6
Changing Perspectives

In an ever changing world and society, many of the changes are brought about by forces over which we have voluntarily given up control. Human life is a gift and a meaning by the fact that certain barriers may be overcome by people who will them and work together to achieve them for the common good. But in the midst of change there are basic fundamentals which remain constant to give life stability. This holds true of an organization in terms of its guiding principles.

From the day of its founding more than a quarter century ago, the basic purposes of the Japanese American Citizens League have been (1) to protect the welfare of persons of Japanese ancestry in this country consistent with our allegiance to this country, her institutions and form of government; (2) to make members of our particular group become better Americans, and to eliminate whatever barriers which might prevent fulfilling our responsibilities as American citizens and making our positive contributions to a greater America; and (3) to make ourselves known to Americans as fellow Americans with the same aspirations and loyalty.

In an ever changing world and society, many of the changes are brought about by forces over which we have voluntarily given up control. Human life is a gift and a meaning by the fact that certain barriers may be overcome by people who will them and work together to achieve them for the common good. But in the midst of change there are basic fundamentals which remain constant to give life stability. This holds true of an organization in terms of its guiding principles.

Despite varying degrees of acceptance of persons of Japanese ancestry in the country within our lifetime, and turners in the larger community. One of our original purposes, therefore, is the maintenance of our organizations, these original purposes of the JACL have continued to give direction to their program and have been the criteria of its activities.

These fundamental purposes are reflected in the very name of the Japanese American Citizens League. For those who are unaware of our basic goals and may consider our organization as an attempt to hypenate our Americanism as Americans—"Japanese-American"—in the name of the organization refer only to the kind of problems and define the matters with which we concern ourselves as a group, and not a description of our constituency.

Upon matters which affect members of our group as Americans and not specifically as Japanese Americans, we have maintained that as individuals we should actively participate in those activities and join those organizations which best express our individual interests and concerns in cooperation with our fellow Americans and in the larger American community. Indeed, we find participation in our local chapters have been helpful as effective channels through which our members become integral parts of their respective communities.

JACL can never be all things to all men, although we may not have the financial means to help organize the San Valles Valley chapter, one of the first units in the JACL.

He is also a past president of the Northern California-Western Nevada DistrictCouncil and for a number of years a member of the 1000 Club chairman for the area.

Jerry Enomoto

Jerry Enomoto of San Francisco has been chairman of the National Convention Committee for the Northern California-JACL, which carried on the convention theme for many years. He has been a tireless worker in the JACL.

Before this appointment he served two years as president of the San Francisco JACL, during which time the chapter carried on more activities for membership development than ever before in the chapter's history. Prior to that he had served several terms on the San Francisco JACL chapter board, being first elected a member of the board and a student al. college.

He has been a state parole board officer and is now on the staff at San Quentin state prison.

Kumeo Yoshinari

Formerly of The Dalles, Kumeo Yoshinari became active in the JACL movement before World War II. He was President of the Mid-Columbia JACL chapter on two occasions and is a member of many JACL leaders. Kumeo came up through the ranks of the church leadership. Kumeo was active both during and after evacuation with his family—wife, Mary, and three children. He became active in the church and served in various capacities. He was elected chairman presiding in 1954 and again in 1955. Kumeo is a member of the Church Credit Union Board of Directors and the Chicago JACL Reserve Fund.

Kumeo is a member of the American Legion, Young Men's Christian Church and has served on its Board of Directors. He and his family have had a large factor in the organization of the National Planning Council and East Coast a vital and an invigorating one.

HOLLYWOOD INLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Art Ho, active Hollywood 1960's, reorganized the annual convention of the California Teleflora Association, which is held currently at the Ambassador Hotel.

Jennifer, representing the Dayton Chamber at her own expense. Her devotion and support of the Chamber program stand as a shining example to all.

SAITO REALTY

One of the highlights of the 14th Biennial Convention will be the election of national officers at the final session Monday, Vying for the top post is a group of Los Angeles and Tak Terakasi of Denver. Dr. Nishikawa will evidently serving his third term as national treasurer, while Terakasi is third national vice-president.

Continued from Page 5

about 1950-52)

Former Chairman of the Eastern District Council. As lifetime resident of the Eastern seaboard he was responsible for playing a large part in helping to establish the acceptance and integration of the evacuees in the New York area. He has made much of his personal experience and out trying to promote and developing the New York JACL Program. A successful businessman, he is known for his helpfulness in all phases of parliaments, and at the Convention.

Ira Shimooka

Former President of the Washington, D.C. JACL Chapter and Past President of the Eastern District Council. Is a distinguished veteran of World War II and was an active JACL supporter during his past year in Tulare County, California. He has been President of the Eastern District Council as one of the four national officers. His last term as chairman of the Eastern District Council.

A prosperous businessman, he is a member of the New York JACL Chapter. He was married to former Gladys O'Neil, and they have two broad parents of two grown boys and a girl. Quiet and unassuming, he has been described as a "man of the people" by fellow officers.

Kumeo Yoshinari

Formerly of The Dalles, Kumeo Yoshinari became active in the JACL movement before World War II. He was President of the Mid-Columbia JACL chapter on two occasions and is a member of many JACL leaders. Kumeo came up through the ranks of the church leadership. Kumeo was active both during and after evacuation with his family—wife, Mary, and three children. He became active in the church and served in various capacities. He was elected chairman presiding in 1954 and again in 1955. Kumeo is a member of the Church Credit Union Board of Directors and the Chicago JACL Reserve Fund.

Kumeo is a member of the American Legion, Young Men's Christian Church and has served on its Board of Directors. He and his family have had a large factor in the organization of the National Planning Council and East Coast a vital and an invigorating one.

Continued from Page 5

Art Ho, active Hollywood 1960's, reorganized the annual convention of the California Teleflora Association, which is held currently at the Ambassador Hotel.

Jennifer, representing the Dayton Chamber at her own expense. Her devotion and support of the Chamber program stand as a shining example to all.
Candidates from PSWDC

Continued from Page 6

This year's JACL chapter in Los Angeles was once again re-elected, and re-elected chairman was the Los Angeles JACL. His election was further affirmed by his election as chairman of the PSWDC in 1948. The Los Angeles JACL, the largest and oldest JACL, was re-elected this year by its Convention. The Los Angeles JACL has, for the last twenty years, been the only JACL chapter to be re-elected every year, and this re-election is a further indication of the JACL's good standing in the community. The Los Angeles JACL, under the leadership of its new chairman, is expected to continue to be a strong and active chapter in the years to come.

"Pardon me-but are you one of the Hindu athletes?" We were participants and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.

Another good friend whom we met was "Texas Sal" and even as teen-agers by the Caucasian Americans who had to attend the official sessions. Our interests leaned to L.A. we had a pleasant chat over the phone about old times, and even as teen-agers we were honestly thankful that we were not official delegates.
William Y. Mimbu
Seattle

- An outstanding, generous, honest man, he is loved and respected by all in his community.

That's William Y. Mimbu, Pacific Northwest candidate for the 2nd Vice-Presidency of the JACL (Mimbu is the son of William Y. Mimbu, former National President of the JACL).

June nominee from the Pacific Northwest District Council for election of 1956-58 National JACL officers at the 14th Biennial Convention. Background of other candidates for national JACL office are found elsewhere in this issue.—Editor.

A young 44, Bill Mimbu attended Seattle schools and graduated in low in the University of Washington in 1938. He married Mary Matsuda in that year, and practiced law in Seattle. He is a member of the JACL National Board of Directors.

He served as attorney for the State of Wisconsin Welfare Department for 14 months during the years from '43 to '46. Returning to Seattle in 1948, he has been in practice here since, and three years ago joined with William J. Wong to form the law firm of Mimbu and Wong.

Now secretary of the National Board of the JACL, Mimbu has served in many capacities locally. He has served as Secretary of the Japan Society; is immediate past president of the First Bill Linos Club. As a Young Poet he was a member of the Washington State council of children and youth, he attended a White House reception in 1945. He is a board member of the Health and Welfare Council, and for six years has been a member of the Civic Unity Committee.

On the community level, Bill has for several years been a member of the board of the Jackson Community Council and is a past Vice-President and board member of the Japanese American Citizens League Community Service. A lifelong member of the Blaine Memorial Church, he is a Sunday School teacher.

As a member of the Citizens League since 1932, he chaired the Northwest District Convention in 1946, and was a board member of the Seattle Chapter until 1954. Always active in Boy Scout affairs, Bill Mimbu age 11, was "a" at the foundation of the Seattle Boy Scout Chapter. His son, with Troop 52 when it was organized at Blaine Church, and has continually been active in adult guidance of Scout and Cub work since. The Mimbus have two sons, John, 15, and David, 11.

For more information, please contact Miyako Travel Service, 105 Weller Street, Los Angeles 12, California.
Convetion staggers

Go western to relax a bit

Getting in the mood for the 14th Biennial are members of the San Francisco JACL, host chapter for the convention, at their recent Round-Up. TOP: Enjoying the Hokey-Poky are (left to right) Naooe Limjap, Hatsuro Aizawa, Mrs. Amsy Aizawa, Jerry Enomoto, Elaine Harada and Ken Toyofuku. MIDDLE: "Operation Mercury" chairman Joe Kubokawa signs with Date Bureau chairman Mrs. Yo Hirozuka, assisted by Mrs. Nobue Noguchi. BOTTOM: Putting on the feed bag are Marty Oshima, Daisy Uyeda and Hatsuro Aizawa.
Seichi Ikikami, Democrat of Fresno, Soichi Fukui, Republican could in all probability have elected a Nisei councilman.

We could have a Nisei police man directing traffic on the corner of 4th and Mission, we could have Nisei councilmen, etc., taking active part in American activities.

We want to have Japan America police-man directing traffic on the corner of 4th and Mission, we could have Nisei councilmen, etc., taking active part in American activities.
We are home from the Republican National Convention in San Francisco but had food and vivid memories of what transpired during our stay there. One of the most pleasant was receiving an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Tsuchiyama who treated us royally at a charming spot near Pacifica called Frangipani Hotel. Scotty wrote, "Mr. Resettlement" back in 1943-45 when, as a then 16 year old Los Angeles JACL official (now shown as the So. Calif. JACL regional office). This statement brought back so many memories to him of the past. We would work with the local War Relocation Authority in arranging for the usual routine. Scotty relates back to those days of the west coast. Scotty really did a lot of leg work for the returnees, particularly in making sure they were being pursued to the past and forth in makeshift trailer camps and wartime barracks.

The Tsuchiyamas have returned to their present business as Oriental fine arts dealers. Scotty was at a loss to pinpoint the thing else in his salon to match our pocketbook. The Chinese museum pieces and they commended a high premium as far back and forth. The Japanese scroll for our living room wall. San Francisco, July 25th. Okiyo Barber’s Edo Barber Shop. A fun night out. We missed sightseeing San Francisco and hills east of the mill." Oriental items for home furnishings limit the number of people who arrive.
Ladies’ day at 14th Biennial gathered in Saturday luncheon-fashion show

SAN FRANCISCO — Women’s day at the 14th Biennial should draw equal attention to the outstanding beauty of women according to Mrs. Haru Hedani, female vice-president who reported early this week that arrangements were made and the setting ready for unifying Sept. 1, the Changing Perspectives show.

The exquisite display of feminine attire will be opened with a fashion luncheon at 1:30 p.m. in the Hospitality Room.

Directly recurring since early June, under the able direction of Mrs. Shigeharu Nishimura, the JapaneseAmerican women’s day is expected to give spectators a preview of what is most fashionable in styles and fashions fall: 1957.

Mrs. Shigeharu Nishimura, Mrs. Hidashi Miyagishima, Chiz Miyazaki, Nan Miyagishima, Martha Guthman, Barbara Watanabe, Louise Yatsukasa and Joyce Uyeda.

The Potrero Fashion Salon, through the coordination of Mimi Bosiller and Miss Gloria Cowles, will present the smart fashions, emphasizing newness in the slimming high-formed dressing for the fall. A booklet is designed to make the most of any occasion and a gift of a bouquet of flowers is included in every million of beauty. The dresses are arranged in a large trimmed buns, trimmed in feathers and children.

Commercing with the showing of early afternoon outfits and continuing through the dressing evening. Another individualistic approach is that the Japanese-American brand, complete with special accessories, including a ring bearer and a flower girl includes a Japanese bride in her colorful and beautiful attire.

An added attraction will be the Pacific-Big-A, outside the Garden, which will also participate in this event by wearing the costumes of peaceful models.

Commercing with the showing of early afternoon outfits and continuing through the dressing evening. Another individualistic approach is that the Japanese-American brand, complete with special accessories, including a ring bearer and a flower girl includes a Japanese bride in her colorful and beautiful attire.

An added attraction will be the Pacific-Big-A, outside the Garden, which will also participate in this event by wearing the costumes of peaceful models.