Satevoph editors show 'colossal ignorance of Nisei', says O.C. Cler

- The Editors of the Saturday Evening Post showed their ignorance of Japanese American life and culture in an article written by George Kanno, Orange County JACL president, in his capacity as cultural editor of the Post.

Referring to the Saturday Evening Post article, Kanno said, "I am deeply saddened by the ignorance expressed in the Post, which has not only been an American institution, but has been a source of pride for Japanese Americans."

According to Kanno, the Post's editors failed to recognize the contributions of Japanese Americans to American society, particularly in the areas of business, politics, and culture.

"The Post's editors have shown a lack of understanding of the culture and traditions of Japanese Americans," Kanno said. "This is unacceptable, and I believe it is a form of racism.

Kanno called for a more informed and accurate portrayal of Japanese Americans in the media, particularly in the Post, which he said has a responsibility to promote understanding and respect for all Americans.

In a letter to the Post, Kanno emphasized the need for a more inclusive and accurate representation of Japanese Americans in the media.

"I urge the Post to take responsibility for its actions and to work towards a more accurate and respectful portrayal of Japanese Americans," Kanno said. "I believe that the Post has a role to play in promoting understanding and respect for all Americans, and I hope it will take a step in the right direction.

Kanno concluded his letter with a call to action for all Americans to work towards a more inclusive and respectful representation of all cultures in the media.

"We must not let this kind of ignorance continue," Kanno said. "We must work towards a more inclusive and respectful representation of all cultures, and I believe that the Post has a role to play in this."

Among the pictures which will be on the JACL list is the aforementioned “Across the Pacific” and Warner’s production, “Air Force,” Fox’s “Little Tokyo, U.S.A.,” RKO’s “Betrayal from the East,” and Sam Katzman’s “Black Dragon.”

San Francisco American Affairs

- Although the meeting of members of Nisei War Memorial Community Center from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the morning of the day after New Year's served as the 4th Annual District Council meeting in San Francisco for the surprise of his life, still there was the gathering of a number of members. Many thanks to our members, especially Sec-ond National VP Jack Noda, 1000 Club Chairman Kenji Tanisho, and NC-WNDC Chairman Akiji Yoshimura for making Jack Noda, Jr. a visiting member. Therefore, the meeting took less than 60 minutes. Mike. Our most important topic was JACL's relation to Japanese Americans. As a result, the joint committee outside of JACL should be organized by those interested to avoid future difficulties. The decision made in the matters would be a wide divergence of views within our mem- bership. We decided that JACL could give limited cooperation upon specific non-controversial programs upon which we can agree.

George Inagaki deserves the deep gratitude of our entire organization and all persons of Japanese ancestry for American affairs. We decided that further studies would be made and report on how education, youth held as answers to world problems, Togasaki tells N.Y. JACLers in America.

DISTRICT COUNCIL MEETING

- Sacramento is enthusiastically preparing to host the NC-WNDC meeting on Feb. 3. Featured will be a Junior JACL Workshop under the chairmanship of the newly organized Junior JACL, Sacramento.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHOLARSHIP

- A supplemental scholarship of $200 has been awarded to Mike Masaoka's appearance on "This is Your Life". It was certainly a great lead off with the suc- cessful completion of the program. We would like to thank Professor Jacobus tenBroek who collaborated with Mike. Our most important topic was the Japanese American National Council decision on eliminating such distinctions.

SACRAMENTO.

- Registration will be held at the War Memorial Community Center from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in charge of the Women's Auxiliary assisted by Junior JACL members. Registration for official delegates will be $5 and $4 for booklets.

- The business sessions under the chairmanship of GC Director Akaji-Tomii will last from 1:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

- Cocktail hour from 5:30 p.m. dinner promptly at 6:30 with in- stallation of officers. The orchestra dancing and Bowling Tournament Queen coronation is slated from 9 p.m.

- The Richmond-Ells Cirrata Chap- ter is also actively participating, although they are having their own installation ceremonies.

- Members and friends are asked to contact their local chapter of­ ficers for dinner reservations as early as possible. Orchestra and keynote speaker will be announced later.

which would not only furnish a better port and shorter route to Manila, but would yield untold stores of precious metals.

We saw a copy of the "Directorio General de los Japoneses Residentes en la Republica Mexicana y sus Descendientes," which was published in 1905—a neat 442-page directory printed in Japan for Sr. Oscar Tocito of Mexico, D.F. From what we can gather, there are some 2,000 Mexicans of Japanese ancestry today. By flipping through the pages and noting the various advertisements, we see that business is being done among the Japanese community.

A few of the Japanese families, like their counterpart in America, are turning to the study of the English language. If something a student in one of the social sciences might consider a thesis.

VIAJOU COFFEE

Our thanks to W.K. "Wu" Festus of San Benito County JACL for the shipment of California Cornice pears, which came last week. Seeing pears this time of the year is a treat.

Nisei in Mexico

Some of the Japanese families, like their counterpart in Canada and the United States, were evacuated and had to leave their homes last week. A message in the directory by the Japanese Ambassador to Mexico takes note of this and compliments those who have not left Mexico.

At the request of the Nisei, we refrained from discussing this interesting phase of the Nisei life in the Americas—but it's a story we'd like to expand one of these days.

There is a bilingue newspaper—"The Whistle"—being published in a city. But we are not an avid reader of Spanish, what the Nisei is doing is important and should be known. If something a student in one of the social sciences might consider a thesis.

His acceptance of positions of responsibility in JACL af­ activated, Toru along with Shigeko Uno and Ken Nogaki shared joined in 1945 when the chapter was being reorganized; the Puyallup Valley near Tacoma. Both were popular ball

On a Nicec council

The time to have a Nicec candidate for the City Council may not yet be here but it wouldn't surprise anyone to eventually have one representative in office.

Edward R. Royball's filing for re-election to the 14th district seat was a formal step in his campaign for the November election. After one unsuccessful try, Royball becomes the first person to make a campaign bid from the New Democratic Club of Los Angeles in 1949.

"A new area should be created here and another in the Santa Monica area of the southeast part of the city," Royball explained. He added that the creation of a southeast district "would give the Negro community an opportunity to have a representative on the Council."

"No other major city in the United States with such a large Negro population without a Negro councilman," Royball concluded.

Royball's district encompasses a large area where many persons of Japanese ancestry reside—including the incorporated cities of Los Angeles and Inglewood.

ROYBALL, a Democrat, continues to receive good support of his constituents and the government workers in his district in January 6 were prominently mentioned by the Japanese American Democratic Club of Los Angeles as its favorite candidate.

FLOWER SHOW COMMITTEEMEN

Members of the cut flower growers committee for the 1957 California International Flower Show at Hollywood Park, May 16 to 24, will be the first time persons of Japanese ancestry are represented, according to their office release.

Headling the display and growing group will be chairman Kenneth L. Folsom of Whittier and Tom Him of San Fernando. Members of the group are: instant, Folsom, Bill Kiyono, Sunland; Tom Him, Gardena; Min Ikado, Van Nuys; S. M. Tani, Torrance; Peter S. Iwamoto, Whittier; Bill Yoshida, Rosemead; and Bert Johnson, Don Forsythe, E. P. H. Warfield, and W. H. Asato.

The flower show is sponsored annually by the Calif. Horticultural Institute, Inc., and the Calif. Floral Association.

WASHINGTON

When the 85th Congress convened last Jan. 3, the Washington Of­

10th anniversary

When the 85th Congress convened last Jan. 3, the Washington Office of the American Japanese Citizens League (JACL) was in the nation's capital. It marked its 10th anniversary of operation in Washington.

On Jan. 28, 1947, the first meeting of the Washington Office was held. The occasion was attended by the executive board of the JACL, a representative of the Directors General, and the new secretary-treasurer. The meeting was presided over by President Carl L. Hayden, then a senator from Arizona.

The Washington Office was the first office established in the nation's capital to deal with the problems of Japanese Americans. Its establishment was a result of the efforts of the directors general and the JACL directors.

Since its establishment, the Washington Office has played a vital role in the JACL's activities. It has served as a link between the JACL and the federal government. It has also been a source of information and support for the JACL's members.

The Washington Office has been involved in many important issues. It has been active in the fight for equal rights for Japanese Americans. It has also been active in the fight for fair treatment of Japanese Americans in the military.

The Washington Office has been led by many dedicated leaders. Among them have been President Carl L. Hayden, President Joseph A. Sabin, and President Lawrence W. McFadden.

The Washington Office has been a source of support and guidance for the JACL. It has played a vital role in the JACL's success. It is an important part of the JACL's history and legacy.
