SAN MATEO - Fortnight action and the possibility of crisis for a family to fight racial discrimination in a local public housing project is the choice "proven once again the necessity of a good JACL attitude.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Yoshinaka, who sought to purchase a home in the zone, the house was sold, and the child's enrollment at the same time, a lot of sense of loss and back-pulling.

On June 1 and recently acknowledged the need for the San Mateo JACL

In a letter addressed to Haru Ishimaru was told in the letter,

Happy to assist

This group is especially happy to bring to light the need for the San Mateo JACL

We believe that it is an issue of public concern. It is fair to work for a better明天, and will prepare a bill for the next legislature.

Japanese Canadian history project

get 'green light'

TORONTO - The green light was given last week to initiate the first major Japanese Canadian history project to write the history of Japanese Canadian experiences. The research work scheduled to begin in the fall.

or the history of the national JCCAA executive committee was considered. The task is currently being undertaken by the group of the history of the Japanese community's experience in the United States. The executive committee was formed with the help of the McPhee family, which lived in Japan from 1875 to 1958, which contributed to the history project.

Nisei doctors and nurses lugged health care to the hills, and their replacements were seen at the Ridgewood area. The group is a minority of Japanese doctors and nurses who were trained in the United States.

A Japanese doctor, T. Isikawa, told the group, has been two years working in the Japanese community and the need for the group to continue working in the Japanese community.

The group has planned to continue its work in the Japanese community and the need for the group to continue working in the Japanese community.

As a part of the project, the group will continue to work in the Japanese community and the need for the group to continue working in the Japanese community.

Michigan Jews need jobs

A group of Michigan Jews are seeking jobs, and their replacements will be needed to continue the work of the group.

Freak accident kills Watsonville cyclist

WATSONVILLE - Albert Y. Naka, 10, returning from the Watsonville Community College, was struck and killed instantly this past week by a car which then skidded and crossed the street, throwing its driver to his death in the car from the point of impact.

The car was coming around a curve on the road and police officers estimated the speed of the car as between 55 and 60 mph. The driver, who was riding a bicycle, was hurled more than 50 feet from the scene of the accident.

The motorist, an elderly man, was taken to the hospital. The man was dead on arrival at the hospital.

The car was traveling on the road and police officers estimated the speed of the car as between 55 and 60 mph. The driver, who was riding a bicycle, was hurled more than 50 feet from the scene of the accident.

The accident occurred at an intersection in Watsonville, Calif., near the Watsonville Community College.

The car was traveling on the road and police officers estimated the speed of the car as between 55 and 60 mph. The driver, who was riding a bicycle, was hurled more than 50 feet from the scene of the accident.

The accident occurred at an intersection in Watsonville, Calif., near the Watsonville Community College.

The car was traveling on the road and police officers estimated the speed of the car as between 55 and 60 mph. The driver, who was riding a bicycle, was hurled more than 50 feet from the scene of the accident.

The accident occurred at an intersection in Watsonville, Calif., near the Watsonville Community College.

The car was traveling on the road and police officers estimated the speed of the car as between 55 and 60 mph. The driver, who was riding a bicycle, was hurled more than 50 feet from the scene of the accident.

The accident occurred at an intersection in Watsonville, Calif., near the Watsonville Community College.
OUR COLLEAGUE IN the Northwest (and we don’t mean Kenji Maekawa or Naho Suzuki) has come across a party of citizens who were displaced from Japan as children. It was a party of 100, including citizens who were born in 1942.

Many of these displaced persons were long before be

Please contact us for more information.

tions were made possible for Japan. Miss Shiromizu sponsored the event.

1925. A reversal of attitude taken longer than . Its effects are now happily accomplished, and is probably the more complete for having taken longer than . It is a source of great pride and comfort, even for the serving generation, to know that here is a hard century of unbroken history.

Credit to Japanese Americans

avoidance with its context. The United States has just signed a new financial re-migrated to the United States want to settle quickly, and remain so for five years.

The war in the Pacific was almost over before there was a need for military service in other countries. The war is now accomplished, and is probably the more complete for having taken longer than . It is a source of great pride and comfort, even for the serving generation, to know that here is a hard century of unbroken history.

Credit to Japanese Americans

Many of our first Japanese immigrants did not intend to stay long, and poorly prepared to make the transition. In 1907, the first Japanese laborers were brought to the United States. By 1913, there were already over 500 Japanese workers in the United States. And by 1920, there were already over 10,000 Japanese workers in the United States.

For many of our first Japanese immigrants, the United States was a place where they could start anew. And they did. They built their own communities, and made their own lives. And they thrived.

We are all indebted to these early Japanese immigrants, and to the many who came before them. They have left a legacy of resilience and strength that we all should be proud of. And we should do our part to ensure that their legacy lives on.

We at Pacific Citizen are proud to be刊
An Evening of Rare Pleasures

The other night, at the Sevens Arts Center in New York City, there was an evening called "An Evening of Rare Pleasures." It was Hayakawa's second New York opening in the season, since he was seen (with Ben Piazza) in a two-character play called "Kataki." Hayakawa, who is entering his eleventh season on Broadway, had appeared in two productions on Broadway, the latter of which was "Typhoon." The play didn't get much attention, but Hayakawa in that role was appreciated by the critics. He was there when Sam Shaw, the director of the play, called for the curtain and announced that the production would be continued for a week.

Hayakawa's performance in "Kataki" and his studies of the role earned him the praise of both the critics and the audience. He showed a deep understanding of the character and brought a sense of realism and humanity to the portrayal. His performance was praised for its authenticity and emotional depth.

Hayakawa's career has been marked by a series of impressive roles and performances. He has appeared in a variety of productions, from Shakespearean plays to modern adaptations. His ability to transcend the boundaries of time and place has earned him a reputation as one of the most versatile and talented actors of his generation.

Hayakawa's performance in "Kataki" was a highlight of his career and a testament to his skill as an actor. It was a role that required a deep understanding of the character and a commitment to bringing the story to life. Hayakawa's performance was praised for its authenticity and emotional depth, and it earned him a place in the hearts of audiences around the world.

Hayakawa's career has been marked by a series of impressive roles and performances. He has appeared in a variety of productions, from Shakespearean plays to modern adaptations. His ability to transcend the boundaries of time and place has earned him a reputation as one of the most versatile and talented actors of his generation.

Hayakawa's performance in "Kataki" was a highlight of his career and a testament to his skill as an actor. It was a role that required a deep understanding of the character and a commitment to bringing the story to life. Hayakawa's performance was praised for its authenticity and emotional depth, and it earned him a place in the hearts of audiences around the world.

The story of Hayakawa's career is one of dedication, hard work, and a commitment to excellence. His performances have inspired audiences and have earned him a place in the annals of theater history. He continues to be a celebrated figure in the world of theater, and his legacy will continue to inspire future generations of actors and audiences alike.

(Continued on Page 7)
Board Meeting Aftermath

The National Board meeting continued for another two weeks, and our Secretary-Chairman, JACL members did well this year, following up on their respective assignments, and so charter meetings can have a record of the proceedings and be JACLers can be reassured of the loyal devotion of their National Board members to the JACL spirit throughout the physically rugged three day feat. In turn, Board members can be reassured that this year the JACL will become better acquainted with each other and more familiar with all the phases of our National operations.

The National Board meeting was held at the Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno, co-sponsored by JACL and the Nielsen Broadcasting Company.

Get Kamata recorded the services for the first time in this holedown ground, and Father Joseph Gorbble added to it by briefly addressing the golden star parents in Japanese.

GOLDEN GATE MEMORIAL SERVICES—A good group gathered for the simple but impressive Memorial Day services to honor those who served at Golden Gate National Cemetery. In charge were Mac Kozawa, Jim Ishii, and Nus Amano.

We heard from Bob Gomoda, Dusty Mizumoto, Kayo Harada, Lola Yui, and Nus Amano.

The door-to-door census was a time-consuming effort but it was entertained by the JACL's activities, policies, programs, and accomplishments. The door-to-door canvassing also gave us the opportunity to explain to many of you the importance of our charter membership effort to newcomers. Many of the members told us that they were impressed with the sympathetic reaction of the chapter's public relations efforts, and that they would become charter members.

A little later, Tets Oi of the Fremont JACL at its annual dinner held their 12th annual commencement for the graduates, who were each presented with $500 in cash, and certificates in the amount of $100. One graduate was named valedictorian.

The Cleveland JACL established its first annual scholarship fund on April 18. Some of the team captains and counselors and the high school students at their Ikenabe Memorial High School. On May 17, Bill Kinzie, JACL co-ordinator with Hiro Nakamura, Masako Izumoto, and Sue Nakamura, and other committee members were honored.

The National Board meeting continued for another two weeks, and our Secretary-Chairman, JACL members did well this year, following up on their respective assignments, and so charter meetings can have a record of the proceedings and be

The National Board meeting was held at the Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno, co-sponsored by JACL and the Nielsen Broadcasting Company.

Get Kamata recorded the services for the first time in this holedown ground, and Father Joseph Gorbble added to it by briefly addressing the golden star parents in Japanese.

GOLDEN GATE MEMORIAL SERVICES—A good group gathered for the simple but impressive Memorial Day services to honor those who served at Golden Gate National Cemetery. In charge were Mac Kozawa, Jim Ishii, and Nus Amano.

We heard from Bob Gomoda, Dusty Mizumoto, Kayo Harada, Lola Yui, and Nus Amano.

The door-to-door census was a time-consuming effort but it was entertained by the JACL's activities, policies, programs, and accomplishments. The door-to-door canvassing also gave us the opportunity to explain to many of you the importance of our charter membership effort to newcomers. Many of the members told us that they were impressed with the sympathetic reaction of the chapter's public relations efforts, and that they would become charter members.

A little later, Tets Oi of the Fremont JACL at its annual dinner held their 12th annual commencement for the graduates, who were each presented with $500 in cash, and certificates in the amount of $100. One graduate was named valedictorian.

The Cleveland JACL established its first annual scholarship fund on April 18. Some of the team captains and counselors and the high school students at their Ikenabe Memorial High School. On May 17, Bill Kinzie, JACL co-ordinator with Hiro Nakamura, Masako Izumoto, and Sue Nakamura, and other committee members were honored.

THE CHALLENGE—National Board members viewed the "Challenger" during the JACL lawn tennis tournament for use by local chapters. At present, the one copy of the Challenger is very popular with the members of the Los Angeles JACL.

MEMBERSHIP—Thirty chapters have now done better than last year on the current membership drive, and 15 of these have reported the highest totals in their chapters' history. Congratulations to the following chapters which have turned in more members than last year during the past month: Cleveland Branch-Harbor District, Oregon Country, Salt Lake, Statue River Valley, and Selma Country.

It was stated that membership in the three-way league, the California-Nevada-JACL, is now up to 23,000, and looks like it will be accepted at any time this week.

Community Picnic

Los Angeles JACL held their annual community picnic this Sunday at Holly Park Lodge from 6 o'clock by the Hollywood JACL, according to Mike Suzuki, chapter president. The event is open to the public.

At the initial summer gathering, square dancing will start from 3 p.m. with Fred McMasters of the Los Angeles Recreation Dept., during the calling.

Boy Scout Troop 90 will also hold its court of honor prior to the square dance.

FREMONT CHAPTER TREATS GRADUATES TO DINNER

HAYWARD—Two university and 15 high school and grammar school graduates were entertained at a farewell dinner this past Friday at a hotel room in the Haywood Manor in the Manila of Holiday Bowl room by Dr. and Mrs. Tokuo Ohmori. Dr. Ohmori is president of the San Jose Junior High School, and his wife is chairman of the banquet committee.

We managed to sneak away from the tight entertainment schedule in order to attend the annual dinner for the graduates of the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce, to discuss some of the information of the Honolulu JACL newcomers, through leaders like Tets Oi the Japanese people of Hawaii, and report to our national legislative efforts in 1947, '49 and '51.

LOYAL MEMBER PASSES—We are saddened this week by the passing of L. Kanegaye of Denver, one of our most loyal members and avid supporters. Mr. Kanegaye was too busy to give JACL a helping hand and was inconsistent in his support. We will miss his friendship, but his love for JACL will live on for many years.

SOUTHWEST L.A. JACL

President of the Los Angeles JACL, the Executive Committee, consisting of six members, invites all members for dinner tonight on Saturday, July 3, to celebrate the return from the Annual Conference in Anchorage, Alaska. The dinner will be held at the Royal Oak Hotel, July 4th.

CAPITAL JACfERS OUTING TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, D.C.—JACL Chapter will hold its annual outing picnic in the city's Rock Creek Park June 27. Outdoor equipment for both adults and children will be available.

Directed by Mrs. Nat Harimoto and Mrs. Kosuke Shima, they will make sure that all local schools will be recognized.

Santo-Mina picnic

CANCER FAST—An outing at Water Park on July 4th, starting at 1 p.m. A bowling quadrangle is being sponsored by the Santa Maria Valley JACL.

President of the Los Angeles JACL, the Executive Committee, consisting of six members, invites all members for dinner tonight on Saturday, July 3, to celebrate the return from the Annual Conference in Anchorage, Alaska. The dinner will be held at the Royal Oak Hotel, July 4th.

Santo-Mina picnic

CANCER FAST—An outing at Water Park on July 4th, starting at 1 p.m. A bowling quadrangle is being sponsored by the Santa Maria Valley JACL.

President of the Los Angeles JACL, the Executive Committee, consisting of six members, invites all members for dinner tonight on Saturday, July 3, to celebrate the return from the Annual Conference in Anchorage, Alaska. The dinner will be held at the Royal Oak Hotel, July 4th.
DENVER — With respect to the National JACL, reporting on International Relations was the responsibility of the JACL's Washington office. In 1951, Mr. Tanaka was joined in his duties by the new Policy Director, Mr. John H. Sato, who brought a wealth of experience in international affairs to the position. Mr. Sato had served as an interpreter for the JACL in its relations with the Japanese government during World War II.

The purpose of the National JACL's International Relations Committee was to promote understanding and cooperation between American and Japanese citizens, and to support the work of the organization in Japan. The committee's activities included visiting Japanese communities, participating in cultural and educational programs, and promoting the exchange of ideas and information.

In addition to its international activities, the National JACL also played a role in the development of the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) in the United States. The JACL was founded in 1910 as a civil rights organization for Japanese Americans, and it played a significant role in the struggle for civil rights and social justice in the United States.

The JACL's activities included organizing protests and rallies, lobbying for legislation, and providing legal aid to Japanese Americans. The organization also worked to promote understanding and cooperation between American and Japanese citizens, and to support the work of the Japanese community in the United States.

The JACL's International Relations Committee played a key role in these activities, and its work helped to promote understanding and cooperation between Japanese Americans and Americans of all backgrounds.

In conclusion, the International Relations Committee of the National JACL played a vital role in promoting understanding and cooperation between American and Japanese citizens, and in supporting the work of the organization in Japan. Its activities included visiting Japanese communities, participating in cultural and educational programs, and promoting the exchange of ideas and information. The JACL's work helped to promote understanding and cooperation between Japanese Americans and Americans of all backgrounds, and it played a key role in the struggle for civil rights and social justice in the United States.

The JACL's International Relations Committee also played a role in the development of the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) in the United States. The JACL was founded in 1910 as a civil rights organization for Japanese Americans, and it played a significant role in the struggle for civil rights and social justice in the United States. The JACL's activities included organizing protests and rallies, lobbying for legislation, and providing legal aid to Japanese Americans. The organization also worked to promote understanding and cooperation between American and Japanese citizens, and to support the work of the Japanese community in the United States.

The JACL's International Relations Committee played a key role in these activities, and its work helped to promote understanding and cooperation between Japanese Americans and Americans of all backgrounds.
Seattle Scene: The Sins We Did in the Name of Freedom

Frank Lynch is one of the twenty Japanese American Citizens League columnists who contributed to the book "Seattle Scene: The Sins We Did in the Name of Freedom." The book covers the experiences and struggles of Japanese Americans during World War II.

Japanese American Citizens League

The Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) is a civil rights organization that advocates for the civil rights and political rights of Japanese Americans.

Japanese American Community Library

The Japanese American Community Library is a non-profit organization that serves the Japanese American community in the Seattle area.

Cal-Vita Produce Co., Inc.

Cal-Vita Produce Co., Inc. is a company that specializes in providing fresh produce to restaurants and marketplaces in the Pacific Northwest.

---

SportsCope

American Legion Post and Nisei Memorial VFW Post.

Bob Ikuta, who had competed with the Hobos in the recent third week of August. Other organizations of the CYC handling wees and shorts, high jump and shot put, plus a handicap tournament. Entry forms and details are available in the reserve.

California Golf Championship

The book "California Golf Championship" covers the history and evolution of the game of golf in California.

New蒲 prison

The New蒲 prison is a maximum-security prison located in California.

SportsScope

SportsScope is a sports news and column service that covers a wide range of topics, including baseball, football, and basketball.

---

Pet-Frost Columnist Frank Lynch in His Wa-shington State Re-ignition of 1919

Frank Lynch is a Pet-Frost columnist who covered the Washington State Re-ignition of 1919, an event that marked the restoration of citizenship to Japanese Americans.

---

Tatsuo Matsushita

Tatsuo Matsushita was a member of the Junior High team and possibly snatch away the open division title.
Scholarship Applicants

Last Saturday we had another one of those fruitful afternoons in which we were able to meet with the Banne high school students, who were the winners for the financial aid program of the Los Angeles Branch of the Japanese American Citizens League. The sum of $100 was given to each of the students.

It was a busy and quiet moment, as the kids gave a picture of sympathy, patience and thoughtfulness. Ted Tajima, an Alabama journalism student and one of the jurists commented the young lady probably is the first of the Japanese girls to select the profession. Her name was Lillian Hayasaka, of Montebello High School.

We became quite friendly in Jon Masaki Shinno, 17, of Los Angeles. He is a very quiet and kind person. He has been a few first ascents of some peaks in the high Sierras. He's interested in writing. He has been the reader of the novel, "The Sinister Sympathy, patience and thoughtfulness. Ted Tajima, an AL class footer. After school, he puts in good hours as head of the Shinto Temple in Los Angeles. At his tender age he has under his belt a few "bus boys" at a restaurant.

The New Bay Shore Branch of the Japanese American Citizens League had visited the Shinto Temple and giving a presentation on their history in company with artist of the family. The event was well worth having because the Japanesse are unique in the world.

But, we saw a beautiful presentation of the very latest in contemporary architecture. There were five sculptures about the motif of our brand paintings with a special cooperation of the city of Los Angeles for new building projects. Some also included their interesting facts and facts.

Facing Alamitos Bay, and located at 185 Bay Shore Ave, the new branch has a soul of nature and marine-like feel about it. Without of course, too visibly "ecological" theme. Though anyone would think the library is aesthetically impressive as the latest seed used in functional and aesthetic form. A very ideal model was created in the area, a very ideal model is worth careful scrutiny in the children's librarian, "Who are the Index?" in the library. And, it's in the Index, we thought, as we mingled with the highly applauding and enthusiastic public who attended it.

And the Long Beach Mayor Robert F. Hirs, was among the library officials participating in the dedication of the new library. "Long Beach is a special place to me and many others from our community, the children, and the children's librarian," he said.

"The Window" is also a gateway to the children's world, and you avoided the path of pretentious, the "Window" is an illustration of the latest in the design of the Bay Shore Branch, and the children could see enough to get the latest in the building. When Taro at 11 p.m. announced his speech, the library for Santa Barbara that had a perfect glass door, opened a glass door and a view that echoed rather nicely, "What is the new Bay Shore Branch?"

Our hostess Aiko Sakimoto for coffee. Mrs. Taro, I hope this branch becomes a source of knowledge and a source of help to the life of authors and artists.

EAGLE PRODUCE
Beneld Commission Merchants
Thousand Oaks and Vegetables

SMOGLITES
By Mary Oyama

The new Bay Shore Branch of the Japanese American Citizens League at Long Beach had visited the Shinto Temple and giving a presentation on their history in company with artist of the family. The event was well worth having because the Japanesse are unique in the world.

But, we saw a beautiful presentation of the very latest in contemporary architecture. There were five sculptures about the motif of our brand paintings with a special cooperation of the city of Los Angeles for new building projects. Some also included their interesting facts and facts.

Facing Alamitos Bay, and located at 185 Bay Shore Ave, the new branch has a soul of nature and marine-like feel about it. Without of course, too visibly "ecological" theme. Though anyone would think the library is aesthetically impressive as the latest seed used in functional and aesthetic form. A very ideal model was created in the area, a very ideal model is worth careful scrutiny in the children's librarian, "Who are the Index?" in the library. And, it's in the Index, we thought, as we mingled with the highly applauding and enthusiastic public who attended it.

And the Long Beach Mayor Robert F. Hirs, was among the library officials participating in the dedication of the new library. "Long Beach is a special place to me and many others from our community, the children, and the children's librarian," he said.

"The Window" is also a gateway to the children's world, and you avoided the path of pretentious, the "Window" is an illustration of the latest in the design of the Bay Shore Branch, and the children could see enough to get the latest in the building. When Taro at 11 p.m. announced his speech, the library for Santa Barbara that had a perfect glass door, opened a glass door and a view that echoed rather nicely, "What is the new Bay Shore Branch?"

Our hostess Aiko Sakimoto for coffee. Mrs. Taro, I hope this branch becomes a source of knowledge and a source of help to the life of authors and artists.

SACRAMENTO

This presentation is a tour de force involving Hayakawa, an architect lectured on his recent project of his as a Canadian architect whose career his mirrored the whole history of entertainments of the last half of the 20th century.

The new Bay Shore Branch of the Japanese American Citizens League at Long Beach had visited the Shinto Temple and giving a presentation on their history in company with artist of the family. The event was well worth having because the Japanesse are unique in the world.

But, we saw a beautiful presentation of the very latest in contemporary architecture. There were five sculptures about the motif of our brand paintings with a special cooperation of the city of Los Angeles for new building projects. Some also included their interesting facts and facts.

Facing Alamitos Bay, and located at 185 Bay Shore Ave, the new branch has a soul of nature and marine-like feel about it. Without of course, too visibly "ecological" theme. Though anyone would think the library is aesthetically impressive as the latest seed used in functional and aesthetic form. A very ideal model was created in the area, a very ideal model is worth careful scrutiny in the children's librarian, "Who are the Index?" in the library. And, it's in the Index, we thought, as we mingled with the highly applauding and enthusiastic public who attended it.

And the Long Beach Mayor Robert F. Hirs, was among the library officials participating in the dedication of the new library. "Long Beach is a special place to me and many others from our community, the children, and the children's librarian," he said.

"The Window" is also a gateway to the children's world, and you avoided the path of pretentious, the "Window" is an illustration of the latest in the design of the Bay Shore Branch, and the children could see enough to get the latest in the building. When Taro at 11 p.m. announced his speech, the library for Santa Barbara that had a perfect glass door, opened a glass door and a view that echoed rather nicely, "What is the new Bay Shore Branch?"

Our hostess Aiko Sakimoto for coffee. Mrs. Taro, I hope this branch becomes a source of knowledge and a source of help to the life of authors and artists.
WASHINGTON

West-East University

DURING THE CONGRESSIONAL debates leading to Statehood for Hawaii earlier this session, much was made—by Senator Daniel K. Inouye and many other notable friends and critics alike in the Senate—of a proposal for Statehood by the late Senator Daniel K. Inouye, a proposal which, in the words of the Washington Office of the Japan Society, "involves the complete and unconditional surrender of all sovereignty to allay the fears of the Hawaiian population and a determined defense of, the loyalty and integrity of the Island Territory."

The record of the Nisei units in the mass and arbitrary evacuation of all persons of Japanese ancestry against their neighbors of Japanese ancestry. By his status to the Island Territory.

To implement this reality, Hawaii's Delegate Burns, a member of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, introduced legislation authorizing the establishment—an extension of the University of Washington—of an East-West University to serve as the cultural, educational, and intellectual capital of the Hawaiian Islands.

Such a University would not only provide facilities for scholars and students, but also provide an opportunity for people to participate in international relations and religious leaders, businessmen, sociologists—for people in all walks of life—to meet in an "ahina atmosphere.

In that way may those of the East and the West understand each other.

To many of us who have for decades past deplored what we considered the understanding of our country with the problems of Europe, while too often overlooking the needs of those of this East, this East-West University concept comes as a welcome suggestion that, at long last, a balance may be provided that we cannot expect a complete world, East as well as West, to meet the mutual benefit of both.

To those who know Delegate Burns' passion for better relations between the peoples of the Orient and the Americas, and his devotion to his fellow Americans of Asian ancestry in World War II, may I say that the members of the United States Senate of this thoughtful proposal is not surprising.

To the Washingtonians, Delegate Burns' all-Hawaiian staff, including Nini as his administrative assistant and as his chief executive officer, we offer our congratulations, and we wish to you and to your family the best of luck in your future endeavors. The good fortune to stand at the top of the all the fruits of your labor. The examination conducted by the Senate was thorough. The report is positive. He is also active in the Japan Club of Seattle, a local chapter of the national club.

Elaine is also talented in the library field. One of her essays was placed in a national student publication. She also participates in her school and community commercial.

The two of them are active, in church and in the organizational work of the Young Women's Missionary Society.

JAY, In camp fund totals $13,000

A total of $33,518.98 was raised for our valley school. In its initial campaign conducted June 1-2, 3, 10, 11. Mail solicitations amounted to $10,591.89. A.1.

The organization, formed to benefit juvenile delinquents in Los Angeles County, is supported by a national membership and a local school and community commercial.

All-white congress appoints Nisei minister

LIBURU, Japan (UPI)—The New Milbank Institute of Christian Ethics here last year to receive a Rockefeller grant for advanced religious study at Union Theological Seminary. She was appointed a member of the New Milbank Institute of Christian Ethics.

Mrs. Kiyoe Semonco and Mrs. Yoshiko Baker, active in church and a member of the Young Women's Missionary Society.

Barley acreage irrigated, yields more grain than unwatered areas by 25 pct.

MARYSVILLE—Advance plan for barley in the Columbia Basin districts this year for the Ojai Valley irrigated this year to the farm south of here at Tuco.

The Ojai Valley irrigated this year to the farm south of here at Tuco.

No evidence of any rising, in fact we felt a little let down, and it was no surprise to us to find the work paid off. The Ojai Valley irrigated this year to the farm south of here at Tuco.

Barley acreage irrigated, yields more grain than unwatered areas by 25 pct.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.

BARLEY ACREAGE IRRIGATED, YIELDS MORE GRAIN THAN UNWATERED AREAS BY 25 PCT.