Prefer Top Five

JACL Headquarters this week announced the names of 26 candidates for the Pel "Seal" Frank Masunaka Memorial Scholarship. Now in its 15th year and regarded as the highest honor in competition of its kind for Asian American high school graduates, the contest is open to any 12th-grade student. A total of 26 chapters out of the 27 existing chapters in the nation answered the challenge, with each chapter selecting three students. The Top Five, however, were selected from the 78 candidates by a national judging panel. The winners are

FEDERAL GOVT. MOVES TO END HOUSING BIAS IN NATION'S CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Federal Government took a major step toward ending housing discrimination against the Asian American community today with the announcement of a new program aimed at eliminating racial bias in the housing market. The program, known as the "Fair Housing Act," was introduced by Senator Daniel Inouye (D-Hawaii) and Representative Norman Y. Mineta (D-California) and is expected to be passed into law by Congress next month.

Frank Ogawa due commissioner post

OAKLAND - Frank Ogawa, a longtime educator and community leader, was appointed to the Board of Supervisors in Oakland, California, on July 1, 1961. Ogawa, who has served as principal of several schools in the Oakland Unified School District, was appointed by Mayor Howard Jordan to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Supervisor John S. Shigeoka.

Nisal elected commander

OAKLAND - Nisal, a veteran of the Korean War, was recently elected commander of the Oakland chapter of the JACL. Nisal, who serves as a counselor at the Oakland Junior High School, was chosen by the chapter's membership to lead the organization in its efforts to promote civil rights and social justice.

Unruh civil rights act extended

SEATTLE - Congressman Unruh introduced a bill in Congress to extend the Civil Rights Act of 1960. The bill, which seeks to protect the rights of all Americans, was co-sponsored by Representatives James Oberstar (D-Minnesota) and George Miller (D-California). The bill is expected to be debated and voted on in the House of Representatives next month.

Seek federal funds to pilot Nihongo in elementary schools

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Department of Education announced today that it would provide federal funds to pilot a program to teach Nihongo, or Japanese language, in elementary schools across the country. The program, which is expected to cost $2 million, will be implemented in selected schools in the fall of 1961.
