

California Voter Registration Deadline Sept. 10

By Ted Durein, Managing Editor

Each of us should do everything possible to defeat Prop. 14 at the November 3 General Election. This is particularly important to members of the JACL, all of whom should check to see if they are registered to vote. If you voted in the last election there is no need to register, but, if you are in doubt, the deadline for registering September 10. You can register at any city or county office. Don't wait. Do it now.

Effect of Prop. 14—an initiative measure which would put a new section into the state constitution—would be to nullify the Rumford Housing Act, parts of other existing equal rights statutes whether state or local, and prohibit the legislature or local governments from enacting future legislation barring housing discrimination.

The Rumford Act was passed near the end of the 1963 legislature. It has been working smoothly for months. The measure outlaws discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry in about 70 per cent of California housing.

Violators who reject state conciliatory efforts either must accept the tenant or purchaser, give him housing similar to that refused, or pay up to $500 damages.

It is my feeling this act should be given fair trial. Like the Fair Employment Practices Act, which many persons opposed, it is working with a minimum of problems. There have been few complaints, most of which have been amicably adjusted.

But Prop. 14 goes much further than just nullifying the Rumford Act. As I mention above, it wipes out ALL present protective legislation, both state and local, now and for the future.

There is some question as to whether the proposed amendment is valid under the U.S. Constitution, but I do not believe we should take a chance.

But first of all make sure you can vote. Register before September 10. Do it today.

Sen. Feng concerned over U.S.-Japanese economic relations by equalization tax

(Special to the Pacific Citizen)

WASHINGTON — Senator Dennis Fong, who has been voted in as the US-Japan economic relations by equalization tax.

The measure, which would levy a tax on purchases of foreign securities by Americans, has already been introduced by Senator Hiram L. Fong of Hawaii as a result of Congress' recent review of the International Monetary Fund.

"I am concerned that the bill would weaken our position in the world market," said Sen. Fong.

He said the bill would affect trade and economic development.

Sen. Fong said he had a statement during Senate debate on the bill.

Despite vigorous opposition by Senator Feng and others, the bill was passed by the Senate and the House. It is the first time that a Japanese has been voted in as the US. history that such a tax has been imposed.

Balance of Payment

The Johnson Administration, and later the Kennedy Administration, favored the bill in order to reduce the persistent balance of payments deficit.

Sen. Fong's opposition to the bill is based on the fact that it would force the Japanese to buy American securities.

Saying that although he recognizes the seriousness of the deficit problem, Senator Feng pointed out that the bill would not improve the Nation's balance of payments significantly because the bill is based on a mistaken assumption that private investments in securities abroad is a major cause of the deficit.

The legislation would not curb the significant sources of capital flowing abroad, such as military expenditures, foreign aid, foreign countries, tourist spending abroad, direct investments, and net U.S. Government long-term capital transfers.

Canada Exempted

It would exempt Canada, the prime cause of the outflow of investment, from the bill, while Japan is an acre.

Four of five co-sponsors of the Al-Do Jr. JACL attended the NC-JWDC meeting at Durban, South Africa, on Aug. 10.

General speaker was Edward Miyoshi of Los Angeles, Science JACL delegate, who co-chaired the program, and Youth JACL.

Other speakers included Robert Dodge, a Caucasian who has never been accused of being anything but American. He is traditional to candidates for local office to make concerns in the educational order. Others serving as princesses are Irene, Hideko, Kiyoko, Fumiko, Jean, Kozue, Linda, Bea, and Yoko. The pageant was organized by Orange County Maximilians, San Fernando Valley Shigemi Miura, San Fernando Valley Junice Fujimoto, East Los Angeles, Pats Fukuhara, Southwestern L.A.

N.Y. City Ballet's 'Bugsies' declared 'hit'

LOS ANGELES — The New York City Ballet premiered "Bugsy" at the City Center Theater last week, to great critical acclaim. It was directed by Tatsuro Miyaguchi recreating typical sounds of Japanese court music, and exotic costumes, the ensemble was put together by the choreographer, Wayne Aspinwall.

The gestures, step and configuration adhered to the taste, esthetic and vocabulary of traditional Western ballet, but the show was based on dance cultivated by Giacomo, a company maintained by the Imperial court for a thousand years.

"The New York City Ballet has a new hit on its hands," Aspinwall noted.

Hiro Inamura's 'Sees'

SAN FRANCISCO — Berkeley artist painter Hiro Inamura was highly praised by News Call Bulletin's music critic Arthur Blochfield as "one of the most gifted young violinist in the San Francisco Symphony summer pageant conducted by Arthur Fiedler." Blochfield also enjoyed Hiro Inamura's First Photo Concerto. A student of Bertrand Albrechtz, she was displayed "keyboards" talent of high skill, refinement and poise".

Professional committee chairwoman, the entire staff including guest actor Nick Adams participated as 1000 Club members of Long Beach Harbor District JACL.

On Aug. 10, another community filled Tokyo Kaisen for the community welcome of the Boy Scouts and their leaders from Japan, an their return from the San Jose Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

NISHI WEEK

West Los Angeles Auxiliary's Nishi Week luncheon-dinner at the Beverly Hilton on Aug. 9 was followed by the Festivities' return to Long Beach for the community welcome of the Boy Scouts and their leaders upon their return from Japan. They were forced to leave in black ghetos, where fear, poverty, eviction, and violence is a common way of life. Violence is a natural response to fear never from misery, and where the axiom of "last to be hired, first to be fired" prevails, it is a sacrifice of the rights of a second-class man. These rights are little better than the rights of a slave.

The vibrations from within the race of discriminated have now come to the surface in a rare, determined effort to win their civil rights, their civil rights. Their voices have reached from coast to coast. Violence has erupted at times because the roots of racism are deep and the demands do the roots of the Negro's aspiration for equality and justice. We of the Japanese American Citizens League, are in this period of transition. Many of us are still in the process of learning, declaring "our rights for all."

This year the United States committee, in Tokyo registered 1000 members of the Japanese in the United States. Let me add, 1000 marriages in July 8.

"Only three out of every 30 are civilian married," said the other national committee, according to Tatsuro Miyaguchi requesting typical sounds of Japanese court music, and exotic costumes, the ensemble was put together by the choreographer, Wayne Aspinwall.

The other national committee marriage between American citizens and Japanese or other nationalities—over 1000 wives who come over to find a Japanese husband.

Nationalistically, in their late 30s account for a large number of grooms, he noted.

The other national committee marriage between American citizens and Japanese or other nationalities—over 1000 wives who come over to find a Japanese husband.

Nationally, the JACL must support the Civil Rights Bill in Congress, and then take action to see that even more action. However, a nationalistic posture is not effective unless our individual posture is in accordance with it.

The most important factor in the division of the races lies in the Negro's black skin. In our hurry to assimilate with the white America, we must not let go of our ideals and dislikes; that although we have a colored skin, many of us despite the black skinned Negro, The Negro cannot change the color of his skin.

The American community in Japan exceeds 14,000 evaded and exceeded 100,000 men and their dependents. Of these are 40,000 are uniform.

SECOND PRIZE: JACL ESSAY CONTEST

Civil Rights Path Long and Arduous

BY KENNON R. NAKAMURA
SEABROOK JACL

Within the confines our own hearts, we must change our attitude towards the Negro. Many of us still stereotype the Negro as being over-sexed, lazy, and unintelligent. This is the kind of thinking that has plagued the Negro or any man is based on his merit alone and not on the color of his skin.

Although this great country is moving towards the goal of our founders in the courts of law, in the church, in the vast industrial field, the path to equality is still far from realising their hopes. Of the 180 million people in the United States, the claws of bigotry still hold upon them. They are Americans. They have been forced to live in black ghettos, where filth, fear, poverty, eviction, and violence is a common way of life. Violence is a natural response to fear never from misery, and where the axiom of "last to be hired, first to be fired" prevails, it is a sacrifice of the rights of a second-class man. These rights are little better than the rights of a slave.

The vibrations from within the race of discriminated have now come to the surface in a rare, determined effort to win their civil rights, their civil rights. Their voices have reached from coast to coast. Violence has erupted at times because the roots of racism are deep and the demands do the roots of the Negro's aspiration for equality and justice. We of the Japanese American Citizens League, are in this period of transition. Many of us are still in the process of learning, declaring "our rights for all."

This year the United States committee, in Tokyo registered 1000 members of the Japanese in the United States. Let me add, 1000 marriages in July 8.

"Only three out of every 30 are civilian married," said the other national committee, according to Tatsuro Miyaguchi requesting typical sounds of Japanese court music, and exotic costumes, the ensemble was put together by the choreographer, Wayne Aspinwall.

The other national committee marriage between American citizens and Japanese or other nationalities—over 1000 wives who come over to find a Japanese husband.

Nationally, the JACL must support the Civil Rights Bill in Congress, and then take action to see that even more action. However, a nationalistic posture is not effective unless our individual posture is in accordance with it.

JACL Major Medical Health Plan aids Hollywood JACL in membership

LCS NEWSLETTER — Proposed by the World JACL, increasing American JACL in the PWDTC, members have been working hard to establish the support of many new members. China is general agent of Capital Life "Insurance Co." which is underwriting the health plan.

The most recent issue puts out a call for action of a sum size during 1963.

Both Hollywood and Artesia have surpassed their 1963 marks and Artesia has an all-time high of 1,000.

Much of the success in Hollywood was credited to efforts of Board members Fred Ogawa and Paul Kain and chapter members chairman Charles Yamada.

Issei home service program being planned

CHICAGO — The Japanese American Service Committee continues to work toward its goal of returning to the Issei of Chicago's Japanese community, states JASC President Daniel Kubunaru in referring to the agency's policies. Services include: help in finding employment; help in seeking employment, immigration, alien registration, and social registration, and social services.
