Director's Report

We then went to the JACL meeting.

RACE ISSUE IN HAWAII POLITICS RAISED IN RULE

Reapportionment Order by Court Blocks Legislature

(Special to the Pacific Citizen)
HONOLULU—The issue of race and national origin was unexpectedly injected into a battle-over reapportionment of the Hawaiian legislature.

House Speaker Elmer Cravath has charged that the three-judge federal panel directed legislators to "give consideration to the racial character of people" in their legislative districts.

In denouncing the federal court decision, Cravath said the court had improperly set up race, sex and economic status as criteria for judging legislative districts. He cited the Hawaii Supreme Court decision in 1954 which held that race and national origin were not valid grounds for districting.

By the Board

By Mas Hironaka, Secretary to Nat'l Board

MEMBERSHIP—As of May 1, the Organization has gone over the top nationally within all-time postwar high of 19,627 members. It surpasses the 1964 total by 1,635.

Greatest increase is reflected in the membership of the Northern California-Western Nevada District Council with their total of 9,332—a whopping 2,867 over 1964. This is in part due to the wonderful major medical plan made available to the membership but more due to the hard work of DC chairman Tom Takoda of San Jose and leadership in the various chapters of the district. Hats off to them all!

Four other district councils have exceeded their membership goals: also Pacific Northwest, Central California, Mountain Plains and Eastern. The remaining three—Pacific South-west, Intermountain and Midwest—are within 80 pct. of their goal to meet last year's total.

At the chapter level, 40 have exceeded their 1964 membership marks, of which 22 are all-time highs. One chapter has equaled its 1964 performance; 18 others are within 10 members.

This leaves 29 remaining chapters; eight are within 25 members of the 1964 membership total; eight others within 50, and two unreported, leaving 11 chapters with more than 50 members to recruit. Of this latter group, I'm sure that some memberships are unreported and urge that all memberships be processed immediately to National.

The Pacific Citizen has also been sending me copies of members who have not renewed in conjunction with the PC cut-off program. Many of them are old-time JACLers and it is hoped that none of them will be cutoff. An extra effort should be made now to contact these old-timers so that their JACL membership will be sustained.

19TH BIENNIAL—Plans are rapidly taking shape for the 19th Biennial National JACL Convention next year. The San Diego Chapter invites the entire membership to schedule July 28-30, 1966, as the week to be in San Diego. The schedule of events thus far call for the following:

July 26 (Tue.)—Opening ceremonies, oratorical contest, mixer.

July 27 (Wed.)—Council sessions, Official delegates and recognition luncheon.

July 28 (Thu.)—Free Day: fishing derby, golf tournament, Tijuana trip, bridge tournament, Ladies fashion show, luncheon, Sea World, 1000 Club whirling-ding.

July 29 (Fri.)—Council sessions, convention outing.

July 30 (Sat.)—Council sessions, election of national officers, Convention banquet and Savoyards Ball.

Convention headquarters will be at El Cortez Hotel, 7th and Ash St., San Diego. Its facilities are one of the finest in the west and additional convention improvements are being made at the present time.

Convention Board assignments have been committed to: Convention Co-Chairman: Mas Hironaka, George Kodama; Booster Events Chairman: Moto Asakawa.

Convention Treasurer: Kaji Matsueda.

Public Relations: Dr. Tad Imoto and Michio Himaka.

Booklet: Tom Yamaguchi. Ads: Paul Hoshi.

Outing: Mezumi Honda.

Fund Raising: George Kodama.

1000 Club Whirling-Ding: Joe Miyoshi.

Youth: Akira Takehita, Hedi Takehita, Ford Kuramoto.

Registration & Housing: Harry Kawamoto.

Queen Contest & Fashion Show: Mito Yoshikawa, Alice Owa-shiki, Ladies Aux.

National Oratorical Contest: Hiomi Nakamura.

Golf Tournament: George Muto and Eddie Urtia.

Fishing Derby: Lloyd Ito and Mabel Hibi.

Other committee assignments are being made but all members are urged to participate in our 19th Biennial.

Much of the Youth and Jr. JACL aspects of the 19th Biennial will be discussed at the forthcoming youth meeting next month at Salt Lake City and a separate report will follow.

MONTEREY—Much has transpired in the Monterey Peninsula Jr. JACL in the past three months as the Junior boys and Junior girls merged into one group.

The group will continue to meet on the first and third Sundays of the month at the JACL Hall from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m., provided the facilities are not being used for church or other public affairs.

Recent events included a prize party and dance under chairmanship of Jay Takada on April 18 at the hall, a tour of the General Motors assembly plant at Fremont as arranged by Yui Takada, on April 18 and the Tuen Fair at San Mateo.

Joint Jr. JACL Meeting

SAN LORENZO—The AJO Jr. JACL and San Francisco Jr. JACL held a joint potluck dinner May 8 at the San Francisco Community Center. A first for both groups.

Pharmacist Student Leader

LOS ANGELES—Mikoto Nakayama, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Nakayama, 233 E. 1st St., was elected president of the USC pharmacy students.

SAN FRANCISCO JR. JACLERS STAGE SPARKLING 'MOMO TARO' MUSICAL

SAN FRANCISCO—The San Francisco Jr. JACL, which has already presented four annual musicals, has in its heart history and a colorful show. Another enjoyable production May 1.

With a crowd of some 130, the year's show was reported to have been a financial success, thanks to the support of some 20 families and individuals who served as sponsors.

"Momo Taro," the well-known Japanese folk tale about a boy who was swallowed by a giant, was the theme of an elderly couple and grows up to conquer the demon of Onigayama, was the theme of the 1965 show.

Donors of Momo Taro: Fukuoka's Japanese dance club again contributed much to the production as they have in past shows. Only one of her pupils, Tom Yee, ever only directed this production.

Linda Yoshikawa, 1960 Troop II musical, content winner, 1960 Troop II musical, content winner, 1960 Troop II musical, content winner.

In the opening scene, Obasan (June Ochiai), after Oshichiyo (Kawaguchi) goes woodcutting in the mountains, sees a large peach floating down the stream. She takes it home and when Oshichiyo returns, they eat it together. To their great surprise a boy (Elizabeth Ark) pops out and they name him Momo Taro.

Folk dances were presented by the villagers as they share the old country's joy in painting a new life.

Years later Momo Taro (Alice Ark) decided to leave on his own and is joined by his companion as a dog (Francis Oka), a monkey (Moto Oka), and a pheasant (Shigeo Kawachi).

After the battle with the demon, they tried by Momo Taro to restore their release from captivity with song and dance.

Cynthia Hamada, 1964 local "High school winner," the 1965 group sang "Hara Hara" written by Mike Fulmer, and a Japanese dance was performed by George Omi, Oshichiyo, Makiko and Lynn Nakamura.

A comic track was added in a hilarious takeoff on Yee's battle covers are knitted.

65th anniversary celebration recalls rocky road of Okinawans in Hawaii

By ALAN RUTKMAN

HONOLULU — A celebration to commemorate the 65th anniversary of Okinawa's annexation to Hawaii is scheduled for May 23 at the Okinawa Memorial Hall, Honolulu. The first group of Okinawan immigrants—27 contract laborers for the Bee sugar plantation—arrived in Hawaii Jan. 1, 1900.

Seizo Matsukura, chief executive of the Ryukyu Islands, will be in attendance for the occasion. A Japanese rock brought from Okinawa as a memento will be unveiled, and there will be a dinner. Governor John A. Burns will give a reception for Matsukura on May 23.

According to the Rev. John Yamaguchi, the first group of immigrants followed by a second group in 1904. Until 1924 when the Japanese Exclusion Act was passed, some 70,000 Okinawans left their native land to make their homes in Hawaii.

The Naichiins, as the non-Okinawans were called, had begun to arrive in Hawaii in large numbers in 1900, so were fairly well established when the Okinawan immigrants arrived.

The Naichiins were a good deal of irascible, belligerent persons coming from prefectures other than their own.

There was less homogeneity among the Japanese than there is now. Most of the Naichiins, as the Okinawans were called, were from the island of Honshu.

The differences between the Naichiins and the Okinawans were that the Naichiins were from the island of Honshu, while the Okinawans were from the Ryukyu Islands.

But in the meantime, in Okinawa, standard Japanese was being taught in the schools. The Okinawans were imbued with the same nationalism as the other Japanese.

Hiroko Kai

The Okinawans became fiercely proud of being Japanese. When Japan surrendered, many Japanese in Hawaii were emotionally unable to accept the fact. Some organized themselves into a group called the Hiroko Kai.

The members believed the Japanese race was standing by clove development in Pearl Harbor. Tripler General Hospital.

Okunawa Customs

The speech of Okunawa, however, though derived from the same tongue as standard Japanese, was different.
