

Largest Mail Publication
OVER 75,000 READERS
SECOND CLASS POSTAGE
PAID AT LOS ANGELES, CALIF.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY
EXCEPT LAST WEEK OF YEAR

By Kumeo A. Yoshinori

President's Corner

Getting Away from Chicago

Chicago. Of the joys of vacation, especially if one chooses to travel in the privacy of seeing the country and visiting the friends of one's family, there is no doubt. But when it comes to the joys of vacation, especially if one chooses to travel in the privacy of seeing the country and visiting the friends of one's family, there is no doubt. But when it comes to the joys of vacation, especially if one chooses to travel in the privacy of seeing the country and visiting the friends of one's family, there is no doubt.

There were little signs of a new year and a new beginning. The air was still and the sun was still. The air was still and the sun was still. The air was still and the sun was still. The air was still and the sun was still. The air was still and the sun was still.

Spauld Arnesen, chairman of the Japanese History Project, said that the Japanese History Project was a very important project. It was a very important project. It was a very important project. It was a very important project. It was a very important project.

With these glimpses into the past, we said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago.

With these glimpses into the past, we said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago.

PNWDC PREPPING FOR THIRD TRY AT LAND LAW REPEAL

Discussion For 1966 Campaign Expected at DC Session Sunday

BY ELSIE OGAWA

SEATTLE — After two attempts in 1960 and 1962, the Washington state JACL chapters with the support of the Oregon chapters in the Pacific Northwest District Council will once more appeal to the voters of the state for a repeal of the archaic alien land law.

The law, written into the Washington State Constitution in 1906, is the last remaining prejudicial law of this kind since the eight or nine western states which had such laws have by our repeated suits have taken action of the law through action of the legislature or by referendum.

Legislators in their last session, despite past citizen votes to the contrary for repeal, have not unanimously in favor of the repeal, and as a result, the question is still on the books, and as Senate Joint Resolution No. 17 will appear on the 1966 November ballot.

The law restricting the ownership of land by aliens was introduced in the state of Washington in 1906. It was introduced in the state of Washington in 1906. It was introduced in the state of Washington in 1906. It was introduced in the state of Washington in 1906. It was introduced in the state of Washington in 1906.

With these glimpses into the past, we said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago.

With these glimpses into the past, we said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago.

With these glimpses into the past, we said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago. We said goodbye to the city of Chicago.

VOL. 61 NO. 15

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1965

TEN CENTS

JACL REPRESENTED AT CEREMONIES FOR SIGNING OF IMMIGRATION BILL

(Special to the Pacific Citizen)

NEW YORK — At the foot of the Statue of Liberty, with Ellis Island in the background, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the immigration bill into law last Sunday, Oct. 3, in special ceremonies on Liberty Island.

Among the more than 300 special invited guests was Mike Masada, Washington JACL representative, who received a place of honor in the signing ceremony. He was one of the few Japanese-Americans to be invited to the ceremony.

The President, in an address explaining the legislation, declared that it was "one of the most important acts of this Congress and this Administration. It repairs a deep and painful wound in the fabric of American justice. It corrects a cruel and enduring wrong in the conduct of the American people."

The President's address was well received by the guests. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

President signs immigration act repealing Asian quotas

(Special to the Pacific Citizen)

NEW YORK — In symbolic ceremonies at the foot of the Statue of Liberty on Liberty Island, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law Sunday the immigration bill that repeals the discriminatory Asian quotas.

The historic signing, ending 41 years of national origin restrictions and 81 years of racial discrimination, took place in the shadow of the world-famous symbol that has welcomed more than 40 million immigrants in the past 80 years.

In recognition of the special part that the Japanese American Citizens League has played in repealing the discriminatory Asian-Pacific Triangle and the Japanese American Citizens League has played in repealing the discriminatory Asian-Pacific Triangle.

The bill itself was approved in its final form by both the House and the Senate. It was signed into law by President Johnson on Sunday, October 3, 1965.

Afternoon earlier, on Sept. 29, Congress on behalf of the House named the President. He was named by the House of Representatives. He was named by the House of Representatives. He was named by the House of Representatives.

The President's address was well received by the guests. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

ancestry include those that: 1-Authorize the entry within the preference for "conditional" entry of the country limited to "refugees" of natural citizens. 2-Include for immigration purposes the Ryukyu Islands, mostly in the country limited to the Pacific Islands, and for adjustment of status to natural citizens. 3-Approve registry provisions for the country limited to the Pacific Islands, and for adjustment of status to natural citizens.

In the three-year interim, transitional period before July 1, 1966, when the new immigration system goes into effect, the stated quota numbers under the existing law will be made available to the country limited to the Pacific Islands, and for adjustment of status to natural citizens.

Afternoon earlier, on Sept. 29, Congress on behalf of the House named the President. He was named by the House of Representatives. He was named by the House of Representatives. He was named by the House of Representatives.

The President's address was well received by the guests. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

San Jose total of $100,000. The governor also stated that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States. He said that the bill was a landmark in the history of the United States.

Membership Publications

Japanese American Citizens League
125 West 31st Street
Los Angeles, Calif. 90012
Phone 4-4771

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

Membership Publications

