LETTER FROM J A P A N-This morning, I nought about Mike and the evening at his home, at only because of the pleasure, but because of a tier that came to my desk. Let me quote portions of it: "Please forgive me for writing this liberty gate. I am 19 years old and get a position as an effice worker. And I desire eagerly to study at Ameri-au university or college. "I have dreamed of going to USA for the study

"In nove oreamed of going to U.S.A. for the study for long. But I had to be employed in the office from envoldable circumstances. But I can not give up up hope, so now, in addition fo my work in the firm, in also studying mysell. Now I must find a sponsor in the U.S.A. I have only this way, that is why I write an. Please answer my prayer..."

The desire of these young Japanese to come to United States to study is understandable. It is ply they cannot be helped in larger numbers by Marican Field Service and other organizations set up to meet the problem. We can only refer inquiries from people like Masako to these organizations.

MIKE WAS LUCKY-Many years ago, I told e Emizawa's story in this column, but perhaps will bear repeating and updating. He was born in inchuria of Japanese parents. Mike's father was afted into the Japanese Army in World War II and plared by the Russians. Mike, his mother, brothers i nisters were repatriated to a shattered Japan war's end. Mike found himself 14 years old, and
