President's Corner

BY KIMEDO YOSHINARI

Los Angeles
It was indeed an honor to be in the JACL, shoulder to have been invited this past week. I was able to participate in the programs. I think my vision of the future of the Japanese American community is being shaped by the Silver Anniversary of the Internment. I have long shared the hope of the day that I would be able to visit this area to personally express my appreciation to the JACLers. I am glad to be here today and we pray that the good Lord will continue to have him be very obedient in days ahead.

It was born on Nov. 20, 1941 when the National 100 Club was held. It was held on an idea of Hino Osaka, then the National President. George Inagaki served as the first chairman of this new organization. We are greatly indebted to the National JACL for its financial support. Subsequently through the efforts of the National JACL, the National budget was to be raised annually.

"One of the real joys of being a JACLer is in meeting people of whom one knows a great deal. I have been raising the chapters on the West Coast were inactivated because of the Japanese American community. A few chapters managed to carry on their activities within the confines of the relocation centers. I'm sure that when their membership were spread throughout the nation, at the time of the WRA resettlement program, it would have been a disaster to do so."

It was undoubtedly due to the fact that a nucleus group to the JACL spirit was alive by the JACL, to survive and make its voice heard. Those of us who are proud of the work JACLers will never forget that it was the JACL which provided the haven for our organization and prevented the death and doom befalling the JACL.

It was a pleasant experience to have witnessed that around Idaho Falls the Japanese American community is doing a superb job of public relations. It was certainly one to be mimicked by other chapters everywhere. The down to earth approach, the friendly relationship of the community is a mountain. District Youth Council, Ron Inoue is a young person who has given much leadership. Under his inspiring guidance, the youth of the Pacific. The community news media was extraordinary and it is one that we should all learn and be proud of.

One of the most significant contributions of this district that in the IDC I noted many

I want you to know what a very wonderful source of information and leads to information the Pacific Citizen has been to me since I became a subscriber. While I work on the book about the Exclusion for W. W. Norton & Co. I am about halfway through, it continues to be an invaluable aid. As a new member of the 100 Club, I consider the subscription to Pacific Citizen along with the annual dues as a must. The latest great help is your own column about the L.A. Times story. After reading it, I promptly sent The Times a dollar and requested copies of those two Metropolitan Section.

I might not have heard of this feature except for your paper. It is important to me because at the end of the book I plan to have at least one chapter on "Exclusionism". I have been saving clippings from the Pacific Citizen for some time toward this. I want to show how the Nisei and the Japanese American in general, have won their long and uphill fight in the best American tradition, and against odds.

ALLAN R. BORWORTH
Capt., U.S. Navy (Ret.)
Rancho, Va.

It's good to get this progress report from Capt. Borworth who is writing on the Exclusion—so much to those who experienced it and unbelievable to those who hear of it for the first time. (Ed.)

'36 class reunion
LOS ANGELES — A 30-year class reunion of Roosevelt High School graduates (winter and summer classes of 1936) is being planned for April 22, 1966 at the International Airport, according to Mrs. Toy (Katana) Kanagaki, 1857 Brooklyn, Los Angeles 90025.

Proceeds from the fund-raising will help establish a memorial scholarship fund in the name of Ben Stein, recently deceased W 36 student body president.

experience along with the new found friends. My memory has been greatly enriched and I'll live to cherish these moments of reunion and be grateful to the people in the IDC for making it all possible.

With the ebbs and flows of "Seiyuna" the 13th Biennial IDC Convention came to a close. Another memorable chapter was added to the history of this district council. I shall remember the exciting
