The other day a number of memos from 1000 Club Chief, Dr. Frank Sakamoto, to Dis-Dr. Frank Sakanboo, to Dis-trict 1000 Club Lieutenants, fell out of my mailbag. Frank is losing no time building a campaign to bolster our 1000 Club ranks.

Over the years our 1000 Club has tended to become familiar and comfortable, like an "old shoe". It may be that we need something to charge it up. Creative ideas from our Dis-trict & Chapter 1000 Club Chairmen can produce activi-ties, projects, programs, etc. ON STAGE—Five Coloradans enriching that can revitalize the Club at the theater through their vocation or Chapter and District levels

Similarly, we need ideas for some symbolic national pro-ject, that will repolish the ject, that will repolish the image of the 1000 Club, Let's support Frank in his cam-paign, not only to swell the Inousander ranks but, to re-kindle enthusiasm in being identified with membership in Director's Report: Mas Satow votes were needed.

When 54 Senators voted for cloture, it was ten votes less than needed to impose cloture, though it was three more than an absolute majority of the Senate, or 51

Twelve moderate and liberal Republicans voted with 42 moderate and liberal Democrats to stop the "talkathon" and force a vote on the simple procedural question of whether civil rights should be made the business of the Senate. Twenty-one Republicans and 21 Democrats, mostly from the South and Border States, voted against cloture.

Voting for cloture were the following Democrats: Anderson (N.M.), Bass (Tenn.), Bayh (Ind.), Brewster (Md.), Burdick (S.D.), Church (Idaho), Clark (Penn.), Dodd (Conn.), Douglas (III.), Gore (Tenn.), Gruening (Alaska), Harris (Okla.), Hart (Mich.), Hartke (Ind.), Inouye (Hawaii), Jackson (Wash.), Kennedy (Mass.), Kennedy (N.Y.), Long (Mo.), Mansfield (Mont.), McCarthy (Minn.), McGovern (S.D.), McIntyre (N.H.), Metcalf (Mont.), Mondale (Minn.), Monroney (Okla.), Montoya (N.M.), Morse (Ore.), Moss (Utah), Muskie (Maine), Nelson (Wisc.), Neuberger (Ore.), Pastore (R.I.), Pell (R.I.), Proxmire (Wisc.), Randolph (W.Va.), Ribicoff (Conn.), Symington (Mo.), Tydings (Md.), Williams (N.J.), Yarborough (Tex.), and Young (Ohio).

The following Republicans also voted for cloture: Aiken (Vt.), Allott (Colo.), Boggs (Del.), Case (N.J.), Dominick (Colo.), Fong (Hawaii), Griffin (Mich.), Javits (N.Y.), Kuchel (Calif.), Saltonstall (Mass.), Scott (Penn.), and Smith (Maine).

Among the 21 Democrats who voted against cloture, the following are from States outside the Deep South: Bible (Nev.), Cannon (Nev.), Fulbright (Ark.), Lausche (Ohio), and McClellan (Ark.).

Among he 21 Republicans who voted against cloture, the following are from States outside the Deep South: Bennett (Utah), Carlson (Kansas), Cooper (Ky.), Cotton (N.H.), Curtis (Neb.), Dirksen (Ill.), Fannin (Ariz.), Hickenlooper (Iowa), Hruska (Neb.), Jordan (Ida-

(Ariz.), Hickenlooper (lowa), Hruska (Neb.), Jordan (Idaho), Miller (lowa), Morton (Ky.), Mundt (S.D.), Murphy (Calif.), Pearson (Kan.), Prouty (Vt.), Simpson (Wyo.), Williams (Del.), and Young (N.D.).
 Although Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana filed another cloture petition the day after the first effort failed, it is considered almost impossible for the advocates of civil rights to muster the ten extra votes or more needed to impose cloture Monday after noon, Sept. 19.
 Of the four Democratic Senators who were absent last week, two and possibly three may vote for cloture These are Senators Magnuson of Washington and Mere Gee of Wyoming, and possibly Bartlett of Alaska. Senator Hayden, who is ill, has consistently voted against ator Hayden, who is ill, has consistently voted against cloture in the more than 50 years he has served in Congress.

After making impressive gains in the Civil Rights Acts of 1964 and 1965, it appears that the Johnson Administration's record in this area of human relations has suffered a serious setback, even though advocates are already talking of an early start in the 90th Congress that convenes next January.

As Senator James O. Eastland of Mississippi, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee that was bypassed in the parliamentary maneuvers over the Houseapproved measure, chortled: "The old-time coalition of Southern Democrats and Midwest Republicans was re-established, united, and effective".

Although the National Leadership Conference on Shireki Kashiki, also of Japan Civil Rights asked that more time be given to rally and a local Nisel Ray Tajima. more Senators to the cloture standard, Majority Leader Miss Katsura's sister, Mrs. Mansfield realistically judged that the possibilities of of LA. competed in the same gaining ten more votes, at a time when Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois remained strongly onposed to this civil rights package was used to the late Wille Hoppe, Ray opposed to this civil rights package, was very remote. Denver, Colo. FOR LARRY—The simple facts of the event are these: The second annual awards banquet of the Larry Tajiri Memorial Foundation was held Monday, Sept. 19, at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in Denver. In explanation, the program said:

"The entertainment industry lost one of its most respected critics and champions with the death of Larry Tajiri, drama editor of The Denver Post. Larry's 'Spectator' column not only informed and entertained his readers, it was often used to encourage the talented people known or unknown, working in all levels of dramatic arts. The Larry Tajiri Memorial Foundation dramatic arts. The Early raint Memorial Foundation was instituted to continue some measure of this en-couragement by giving annual awards to persons or groups making outstanding theatrical achievements in the Rocky Mountain area.

"The Foundation is grateful to Shinkichi Tajiri, Larry's brother and a renowned international sculptor for designing the Larry Tajiri Memorial Award which will be presented tonight to: Jean (Joey) Favre. Third Fve Theatre, Denver; Orvis Grout, Civic Theatre. Colorado Springs; Juanita Likes, Lamar Players, Inc.; Lamar, Colo.; Henry Lowenstein, Bonfils Theatre, Den-ver; William S. Robinson, Mesa College, Grand Junc-tion Colu. tion, Colo

Among those at the head table were Gov. and Mrs. John A. Love and Denver's Mayor Tom Currigan and Mrs. Currigan. Station KWGN devoted a full hour to telecasting the event. Some 400 friends and ad-mirers of Tajiri, including leading civic and enter-tainment world figures, attended.

IN MEMORIAM-Behind these bare facts is the about water-skiing at Cypress story of an unusual affection and admiration for a remarkable man. Larry's death a year ago last Feb-ruary not only stunned and saddened his colleagues and legion of friends, but stirred a determination to perpetuate his memory. Out of a series of meetings came the idea of a memorial foundation, bearing his name, to encourage the community theater movement which was so close to his heart. Many elements of the Colorado community, which Larry served as drama editor of The Denver Post, took part in setting up Auxilia the foundation.

The awards, five in each of the two years they have been made, are in the form of bronze sculotures, and perhaps it was inevitable that they should be called Larrys.

"These awards," said Gene Amole, master of ceremonies at both of the banquets, "are not a popular-ity contest, not something one campaigns for, but receremonies at both of the band in the campaigns for, but ic-ity contest, not something one campaigns for, but ic-cognition among professional of notable achievement in the theater. I hope that in time the Larry will be-come the most coveted award in the theater of this come the most coveted award in the theater of this come so JACL will introduce new nominees for its 1967 board of governors at the annual of governors at the annual of governors at the annual Larrys already are an object of admiration and no little prestige.

HIS WISHES—Larry's death, following a stroke, was totally unexpected. Even if he had premonitions, he would have been apalled by the thought of a memorial foundation bearing his name. Larry was much too modest and unoretentious a man even to entertain such a thought. If anyone had proposed such an idea in his presence, he would have been embar-rassed, and then perhaps outraged.

Yet it is a measure of the man that his friends have chosen to honor his memory. And since it had to be, the kind of foundation that was set up, and the to be, the kind of foundation that was set up, and the discrete good taste with which the awards banquets have been conducted would, I think, have met with his grudging approval. Grudging only because he would be yielding to an idea that he could never nuite accept. Larry made his greater mark in the wide world outside the confines of Nisei society, and that is one more reason for Nisei pride in remember-ing he was one of them.

A WEEK'S RESPITE Aside from bumping into some JACLers unex-pectedly in San Francisco, it was a vacation that lei-surely covered the coastal areas of our Golden State.

surely covered the coastal areas of our Golden State. Vacation to us means getting away from it all—dead lines, JACL, typewriter, JACL, etc.—and being with the family morning, noon and night. With two youngsters, 3½ and 7, naturally our iti-nerary centered on having their bundle of energy spent in zoos, children's parks and seashore. We checked several state parks enroute and their splendor and iso-lation (inside the week) will beckon our return in the future. I'm sure. future, I'm sure.

As unescorted visitors in San Jose for several days, we feel the family with youngsters will find our 1968 JACL Convention City a natural. The booster attending without children will probably prefer a wider environment in which to frolic. Knowing the talents of our '68 convention chairman, Dr. Tom Taketa, we're confident the 20th Bien-nial will include many highlights for official and tion booster delegates in and around San Jose. For my dad, who spent his first days in America working the ranches and orchards around San Jose, the trip was most nostalgic and one of wonderment of the vast development that has taken place since the 1900s

For my mother, who also accompanied us, the rustic scenery of Pt. Lobos State Reserve near Carmel reminded her of her childhood days. However, much of that in Japan has been torn up for town expansion, she noted since her first visit there last year.

BACK IN HARNESS

In recent weeks, the PC and Regional Office staff has been preparing our 1966 Holiday Issue advertis-ing solicitation kits, which will be ready for Oct. 1 distribution.

Some districts, we are glad to note, rate Holiday Issue advertising solicited as among the factors that determine a chapter of the year. And in the eyes of the Pacific Citizen Board, such efforts have not skipped unnoticed.

skipped unnoticed. Again, we ask chapters to submit their annual reports—highlighting their most successful and un-usual activities. Those gunning for Chapter of the sented in the forthcoming Holiday Issue. It would certainly make judging easier if Chapter of Year awards were made on the basis of a 2,000-word report as published in our Holiday Issue. For example, the Pacific Southwest District Council rec-ornitions committee had to delay its determination till Chicago Advance (Monday) Concerned (Monday) ognitions committee had to delay its determination till last August because of the profusion of data that had to be weighed.

Deadlines for all copy-editorial and advertising -remain the same as in the past: Nov. 30. Our Holiday Issue will be dated Dec. 23-30, the paper being printed on or about Dec. 21.

Letters from Our Readers –

Editor: 1967 will mark the 25th year since the Evacuation of Japa-nese people from the West nese people from the West Coast. It is my suggestion that the Nisei community at large do something to preserve the memory of that historic event. the Nisei community at large never fully understand their do something to preserve the Nisei parents. The time has memory of that historic event. Many Nisei may question the propriety of this sugges-account of this crucial experi-tion. I am aware that some of them have very bitter fected the Nisei generation.

of them have very bitter memories of the Evacuation and do not want to think about it. Some may argue that to bring Evacuation back to the mind of our non-Japanese neighbors would only draw attention to our racial difference and jeopardize our hard-won acceptance in this country.

These feelings are understand-able, but still I believe there is much to be gained from bringing Evacuation once bringing Evacuation once more to the attention of the American people.

First, we owe it to our San-ei children. I have found the year to honor the dead and wounded of the 100th Infantry Battalion and the 442nd Regi-Sansei very eager to learn about the Evacuation once they made aware of it. They have had little or no opportumental Combat Team.

Thirdly, we owe it to our non-Japanese friends who stood by us faithfully when we - CALENDAR were under hostile susplcian, even when by doing so their own patriotism was called into question. We Nisei are not fully aware of the dedication
