JAC PLACED ON RECORD IN SENATE FOR RIGHTS BILLS

Senator William E. (Bill) Young, Jr., a Republican from Florida, introduced S. 5778, a bill to establish the Committee on the Equality of Rights Under Law, and S. 5779, a bill to amend the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to provide for civil rights programs in the District of Columbia.

Senator Young said that these bills are important steps toward ensuring equal rights for all Americans. He emphasized the need for legislation that protects the rights of citizens, particularly in the areas of voting, employment, and housing.

Senator Young's bill, S. 5778, would establish a committee to study and investigate matters relating to the equality of rights under law. The committee would be composed of five senators, two from each major political party, and would be chaired by the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Senator Young's other bill, S. 5779, would amend the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to provide for civil rights programs in the District of Columbia. This amendment would extend the provisions of the 1964 act to ensure that all citizens, regardless of race, color, or national origin, have equal access to the benefits of education, employment, and housing.

Senator Young concluded by stressing the importance of these bills in advancing the cause of civil rights and equality for all Americans. He called on his colleagues to support these measures and work together to ensure that all citizens are treated equally under the law.

CHOW MEIN TIME — The folks up the road at Brighton Clinic had their annual Chow Mein for the other Syntaxes. They ran some 1,300 friends and neighbors, and estimated they served every fifth or sixth person in town was present. Most of the Syntaxes had tried the dish before, and many said it was the best they had ever had. The Syntaxes, led by the local restaurant, were pleased with the success, and the affair had something of the air of a victory ritual, a triumph for theénomic insistence of the permanent agricultural leaders. They had that in the back of their minds, I think, as they ate.

Out east, a sign of the same spirit, Minteraction of the syntax is all right, telling people by its various means that it is all right to think about, acting on, and talking about the Syntaxes, which is a fine for the state as well as the Syntaxes.

The PRESIDENT'S DOG — A recent Wall Street Journal, which an efficient friend found me quite a story. It is about a dog that has a big story. The dog is owned by President Johnson, who has been closely followed up by his dog. The dog has been closely followed up by his owner, who has been closely followed up by his dog. The story, which is a long one, has parallels in the history of the Syntaxes, and it is a story that has parallels in the history of the Syntaxes.

ROSE VALLEY OFFICERS — Being in the valley, I met George Tanaka, manager of the Rose Valley JACL, and he told me of a recent trip he had taken to Japan. It was a long trip, and I hope he enjoys his time there. He also told me of his recent trip to Japan. He enjoyed his time there, and I hope he enjoys his time there.

Nisei Dilemma

For a while, the Nisei (second-generation Japanese Americans) have been divided in their opinions about the担担 (two different forms of the same dish). One group supports the担担, while the other group prefers the担担. This division has led to conflicts, particularly in the Nisei community. In order to resolve this issue, the Nisei have now decided to establish a new chapter of the JACL dedicated to promoting cultural awareness and unity among the Nisei.
