JACL asks Asian administrators for Sac’to, San Diego schools

SAN DIEGO—Asian American administrators are being asked to join forces in the building of new schools in the San Diego Unified School District. This is an effort to increase the number of administrators of Asian/Is canadian background in the hurons. It is also an attempt to create a network of administrators who can provide support and guidance to those in the early stages of their administrative careers.

JACL executives prepare for July interim session

SAN FRANCISCO—With
the new school year fast approaching, the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) is gearing up for its annual meeting in July.

The meeting will be held in July in San Francisco and will feature a variety of sessions and workshops
designed to address the needs and concerns of Japanese American citizens nationwide.

JACI HEADS BID FOR WHITE HOUSE OFFICE ON ORIENTAL AMERICANS

Washington, DC—David Ushio has been appointed to the position of Director of the Office of Oriental Americans in the White House.

Ushio was previously serving as a senior advisor to the Director of the Office of Oriental Americans.

He brings with him over 30 years of experience in advocacy, education, and community outreach.

JACL complies racist hiring by in local college

MARRIAGE LICENSE QUERY
ON RACE BEING FOUGHT

The Okinawan American Committee (OAC) has launched a campaign to challenge a local college’s policy on marriage license requests.

The college requires all requests for marriage licenses to be accompanied by a statement

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS FOR VALOR AWARDED FOWLER SANSEI

Fort Dix—Donald X. K. Ushio was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for valor.

Ushio, a veteran of the Korean War, was stationed in Okinawa during the conflict.

His actions during an attack that resulted in the capture of a critical position earned him the highest military honorable.

MINORITY+ A Toward racial diversity, the Sacramento Convention Center has been selected as the site for the JACL convention.

The convention will feature a variety of
sessions and workshops
designed to address the
needs and concerns of
Japanese American citizens
nationwide.

Kasumi, who had thought about joining the JACL but was daunted by the thought of it being an Asian-only group, decided to attend the conference.

She was pleasantly surprised by the warmth and inclusiveness of the participants.

Kasumi left the conference feeling empowered and motivated to take action in her own community.

JACL asks Asian administrators for Sac’to, San Diego schools
Title II Repeal Opposition

Public hearings on legislation to repeal Title II of the Internal Security Act of 1950 to prohibit the establishment of defense camps in the United States have been concluded. House Judiciary Subcommittee No. 3, which completed hearings on this measure earlier this week, prepared a report which was tabled and presented to the House after which a rule clearing the bill for third reading was adopted. While it is acknowledged that the Repeal Bill can be considered on its merits, it will be considered as an integral part of a larger exemption of 1950 legislation.

What is said is that, through legislative maneuvering, the Repeal Bill has been pushed to the front. The accent is on the House's refusal to hear the arguments of those who wish to have the bill considered on its own merits.
Tokyo Rose' fine still due

By Tom Kaser

HELENA, Mo. (AP) — The government of Japan said Thursday it would press charges against Mrs. M. M. M., a former member of the Red Army, who is accused of supplying Japanese forces with information about American troops in the Pacific during World War II.

The announcement came as Japan's foreign ministry announced plans to prosecute Mrs. M. M., who is believed to have worked as a spy for the Japanese government during the war.

In a statement, the ministry said it would seek charges against Mrs. M. M. for supplying the Americans with information about their military activities.

Mrs. M. M., who was arrested in 1945 in Tokyo, is alleged to have passed on classified information to the Japanese military, including details about American troop movements and weapons locations.

The ministry said it would seek the maximum penalty, which could include a lengthy prison sentence.

Meanwhile, in Washington, officials said they would continue to investigate Mrs. M.'s activities during the war.

Justice Department spokeswoman Loretta Simon said the U.S. government had received information from Japanese authorities about Mrs. M.'s alleged spying activities.

"We are taking this issue very seriously," Simon said. "We will continue to work with our Japanese counterparts to determine the full extent of Mrs. M.'s involvement in the war."
An Other Conference!

Over 150 United Methodist clergy and laymen attended the 56th Annual General Assembly of the United Methodist Church in Chicago recently. The conference appears to have been a success, with many important decisions made and new directions set for the future of the denomination.

Another Conference!

Chapter serves sukiyaki as prelude to Philadelphia Japan Arts Festival

By GRAVY KARMA

Philadelphia, JACL president, Dudley Yabale, was on hand at the Philadelphia Cultural Arts Center last Sunday night. As recently as last month, Dudley Yabale was elected chairman of the JACL, leading him to serve under the leadership of the new president, Robert Smith.

JACL-Produced Educational Items for Asian American Studies Ready

Los Angeles—A list of items produced by the Asian American Library Association is being distributed to libraries and schools throughout the country. The list includes books, videos, and other materials that can be used by teachers and students to promote understanding and appreciation of Asian American culture.

PULSE ON THE CHAPTERS

Veteran's Association

Arthur T. H. Smith, JACL president, spoke at a recent meeting of the Philadelphia JACL. He discussed the importance of continuing to support veteran's programs and initiatives.

Civic Affairs

Masaaki Shoji, JACL president, addressed the chapter's recent meeting. He spoke on the importance of civic engagement and the role of JACL in promoting civic awareness among the Asian American community.

1000 Club Charter Flight: Gourmet Dishes Due at Whiting-ding

Chicago—For those attending the 1000 Club Charter Flight, a gourmet dinner will be served on board. The flight will depart from Chicago O'Hare International Airport and arrive at Los Angeles International Airport.

CHACL-JACL Credit Union: Dudley Yabale re-elected chairman; 5.06 pct. dividend declared for '70

The 56th Annual General Assembly of the United Methodist Church was held in Chicago recently. The assembly was attended by over 150 clergy and laymen, including the newly elected JACL president, Robert Smith.

They chatted and munched on their 1000 Club Charter Flight in the comfortable, well-appointed airplane. They were treated to a delicious gourmet dinner served on board.

The Gourmet Dinner...
Letters from Our Readers

Health plan

I was disturbed by the mini-slogan of the National Research Council a short time ago, "Science for the Better World." It suggested to me that the phrase was a traditional one and that the publisher was simply restating a position that had been already well-known. On further reflection, it became clear to me that there was some confusion in my mind about the phrase. The mini-slogan, I learned, was not new but was an old one. It was used by the American Medical Association in 1933 as part of its campaign for unemployment insurance. It was also used by the National Research Council in 1939 as part of its campaign for health insurance.

The slogan was also used by the American Medical Association in 1943 as part of its campaign for social security. It was also used by the National Research Council in 1947 as part of its campaign for social security. It was also used by

the American Medical Association in 1950 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Center in 1953 as part of its

campaign for social security. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1956 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1959 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1962 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1965 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1968 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1971 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1974 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1977 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1980 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1983 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1986 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1989 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1992 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 1995 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 1998 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2001 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2004 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2007 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2010 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2013 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2016 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2019 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2022 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2025 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2028 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2031 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2034 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2037 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2040 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2043 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2046 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2049 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2052 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2055 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2058 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2061 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2064 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2067 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2070 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2073 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2076 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2079 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2082 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2085 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2088 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2091 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2094 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2097 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2100 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2103 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2106 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2109 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2112 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2115 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2118 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-

ter in 2121 as part of its

campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the American Medical As-

sociation in 2124 as part of

its campaign for social secu-

rity. It was also used by

the National Research Cen-
