WASHINGTON—Oct. 16 (AP)—The House committee on the appropriations bill providing funds for Title II of the Internal Security Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, today began hearing arguments for and against the recommendation of the House Appropriations Committee. The committee is expected to report its findings to the House on Monday.

Title II Reference

The committee heard arguments from a number of House members and from a number of experts in the field of national security. The arguments were split about evenly, with some members favoring the recommendation of the Appropriations Committee and others opposing it.

In the meantime, the Senate has also been hearing arguments on the same issue. The Senate committee is scheduled to report its findings to the Senate on Tuesday.

In a related development, the House Committee on the Judiciary has also been hearing arguments on the same issue. The committee is scheduled to report its findings to the House on Thursday.

This is the second part of the article that appeared in the August 1973 issue of the JACI. It is about the brewing labor conflict in Chicago and the challenges faced by the workers in the garment industry.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Form labor issue

From Mr. T.

The labor issue in Chicago is a major problem for the workers in the garment industry. The workers are fighting for better wages, working conditions, and the right to unionize.

Rutile

The strike has been going on for several weeks, and the workers are determined to win.
