Human rights incorporated as test in U.S. aid

PACIFIC CITIZEN

Publication of the Japanese American Citizens League

Published Weekly Except First and Last Week of April, Second Class Postage Paid at Los Angeles, Calif.

Vol. 85 No. 18

Friday, October 29, 1976

Subscriber's Code and Year of Subscription

15 CENTS

DR. MEL TAKAKI
Sansei runs for Congress

PUBLISHER
Col. - An activist and corporate executive, was a circuit court judge in Hawaii during World War II and later became a successful businessman. A member of the JACL, he is running on a platform of civil rights and international relations.

FIVE OF STRENGTH
Wendy etching hangs in IRS office

It's done by Miss Takaki, who has been working with the Internal Revenue Service for over 20 years. The etching was presented to her as a token of appreciation for her service.

Time of Strength (143) is a 11-episode TV series produced by the JACL. It focuses on the lives of five women who have overcome personal challenges.

State Sen. Song backs Prop. 14

WASHINGTON - Sen. John Singelton has introduced a bill to support Proposition 14, which would amend the California Constitution to allow for the recall of certain state officials.

Ex-Gov. 'Pat' Brown staffer recalls

WASHINGTON - Former aide to Ex-Gov. Pat Brown, now a San Francisco lawyer, recalled the time when the governor was forced to resign over the Women's Rights movement.

Ford meets with ethnic leaders, Chinese American, Asian American

WASHINGTON - President Ford met with leaders of the Chinese American and Asian American communities to discuss issues affecting these groups.

 Resident alien status proposed for 138,000 Indochinese refugees

WASHINGTON - A proposed bill would grant resident alien status to 138,000 Indochinese refugees who have been in the United States for over 10 years. The bill is supported by President Ford and the JACL.

As a Core Foundation trainee

SAN FRANCISCO - The Core Foundation is training educators to work with ethnic minority students. The program is designed to provide a better understanding of cultural differences and to help teachers develop effective teaching strategies.
Day 30

The 30th day of the month of November is observed in Japan, and is known as "Toradora" or "Thanksgiving Day." It is a traditional day for giving thanks and expressing gratitude.

The page contains an article discussing the significance of the day and includes a quote: "I believe that today is a special day for expressing gratitude. Every day, we receive countless blessings from nature and society. Let us take this opportunity to pay our respects.

The article also mentions the importance of family and friends, and encourages readers to spend time with loved ones on this day.

In summary, the page is a reminder to appreciate the good things in life and to show gratitude for the blessings we receive.