Newsstand: 250

#2891/ Vol. 129. No. 19 ISSN: 0030-8579 National Publication of the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL)

Nov. 5-11, 1999

VIEW · FILM REVIEW · FILM REVIEW · FILM RE

When You're Smiling' Promises to be Defining Movie for Sansei Generation

By MARTHA NAKAGAWA

Past ... Got a secret to tell you - Not all Sansei were model minorities. Many got into drugs and gangs. Some found themselves in and out of jail; others ended up dead, either by suicide or a drug

But even today, few outside the Nikkei community are aware of this collective community secret that is whispered from one person to another but rarely openly

A new documentary by Janice D. Tanaka titled, "When You're Smiling," brings all of this to the fore. And just as "Rabbit in the Moon" by the Omori sisters became the documentary that shat-tered the silence of the Nisei dissidents, "Smiling as to be the defining movi "Smiling for the Sansei generation.

Similar to "Rabbit," Tanaka interweaves the personal history of her family with interviews of Sansei who, like Tanaka and many other Sansei across the nation, came of age during the 1950s and 1960s. While the focus is on the Sansei from Southern

See SMILING/ page 8

PHOTO COURTESY OF VO

"When You're Smiling" — Tanaka Family Photo c. 1963 (I-r): Grace, Janice, Susan, and Tom Tanaka.

Gov. Davis Appoints Yamaki Appointment Secretary

CAIRO, Egypt-Gov. Davis has announced the appointment of Michael R. Yamaki as appoint-ment secretary for his administra-tion. Yamaki is the first Asian American to serve a California governor in this capacity. He is also the highest ranking AA in Yamaki, 51, of Los Angeles, is an accomplished lawyer both aca

San Francisco, CA 94115

demically and professionally. He practiced law before joining the stration in January as a senior advisor to the gover-nor. In that position, he advised the previous appointments secre-tary, and judicial appointments secretary as well as conducting recruitment and outreach to in 94086 -

SUNNYVAL 96 MI

tion is reflective of California's diverse population.

From 1996-1999, Yamaki served as president of the L.A.

Fire Commission and is currently a member of the board of directors of D.A.R.E. America. From 1991 1993 he served as a member of the L.A. Police Commission, provided as a member of the ing policy oversight within the L.A. police department. Yamaki was included in the Los Angeles was included in the Los Angeles
Daily Journal's 1999 list of the top 100 most influential lawyers in California. He also served as national legal counsel for the JACL, the oldest Japanese America civil rights organization in the United States.

Yamaki earned a bachelor of arts degree from the University of California, Los Angeles, and a juris doctorate from the West Los Angeles School of Law.

Angeles School of Law.
This position does not require state Senate confirmation. ■

Santa Fe City Council Approves JA Internment Camp Marker

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

SANTA FE, N.M .- The city will mark the site of an intern-ment camp for Japanese Amer-icans despite opposition from some embittered World War II veterans.

Mayor Larry Delgado broke a tie vote of the city council on Oct. 27 to authorize a bronze plaque on a boulder near the site of the camp.

"We're not dishonoring the veterans in any way," Delgado said before voting in favor of the marker. "We can't deny his-

Manuel Armijo, who survived the brutal Bataan death march and 3 1/2 years in a japanese prison camp, com-plained later that it's like asking us to turn the other cheek.

Maybe it'll heal somebody but I hope I'm dead," said Armijo, 88, for whom memo-ries of the war a half-century ago are still fresh

The marker, to be paid for with private donations, was recommended by a committee that said it was time to recogoverlooked chapter

Santa Fe's history.

The marker will be placed in a city park on a hilltop over-looking a 28-acre site — now a residential neighborhood where the camp was located from 1942-46.

Surrounded by barbed wire and marked by guard towers, the camp held mainly middle-aged and older Japanese-born men who were leaders in their communities and therefore considered a threat when WWII broke out. It held a total of 4,555 men - 2,100 at its

More than 120,000 U.S. resi-More than 120,000 U.S. residents of Japanese ancestry were removed from the West Coast during the war and locked up in internment camps. Most of them were U.S. citizens and most ended up at 10 major camps operat-ed by the War Relocation Authority in California, Arizona, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and

The federal government has formally apologized to JA in-ternees and paid at least $1.6 bilhion in reparations. At a ground-breaking last week for a memorial in Washington, D.C., President calling Clinton sent a message callin the internments a "sad chapter in American history.

"People were placed in this internment camp because of their race," said Carol Robertson Lonez, one of four councilors who voted for the marker.

In the multicultural Santa Fe area, with its mix of Hispanics, American Indians and Anglos, breaking down racial barriers always has been crucial, Robertson

Lopez said.
"I don't want my son to ever think that it's OK to generalize, to stereotype anyone on the basis of their race," she said. But other councilors said they couldn't turn their backs on the veterans.

"I cannot dishonor the veterans that endured the suffering that they did in Bataan and the Councilor Art Philippines Sanchez said

About 1,800 National Guards men from New Mexico were sent to the Philippines in 1941. After the Japanese overran the islands and the U.S. forces surrendered on the Bataan peninsula in April 1942, the sick and starving cap-tives were forced to march 65 miles in the hot sun. They were denied food and water, and were beaten — some killed — if they fell out of line. The cruelty

continued at prison camps.
"You just kicked the Bataan veterans in the teeth in the twilight years of their life," said Armijo's son-in-law, Clarente Lithgow, who jumped to his feet in the audience after the mayor's tie-breaking vote.

"It's a reminder of what happened to me in the Philip-pines," said Arthur Smith, 80. He said while the interness in Santa Fe were treated well, "over there they were killing day by day.

Smith also suggested that the marker "won't last long" once it's up, if veterans find its wording offensive.

The marker will include a brief history of the camp and note that the internees gious leaders, businessmen, farmers and others — were held without due process and that some had relatives serving that some had relatives serving with the U.S. forces.

The plaque will also refer visitors to the state history museum for more information from a newly created archive.

The council also voted unanthese control of the council of the coun

imously to erect a monum all Santa Fe veterans

The recommendation was and during a series of "com-munity dialogues" in August and September that brought together the opposing sides on the internment marker dis-

A committee appointed by the major will come up with a plan for the monument.

Resisters' Battle Just as Important, Time to Come Together, Says Sen. Inouye

By MARTHA NAKAGAWA

No other event has so shaped and affected the Nikkei com nity in the 20th century than the nty in the 20th century than the mass evacuation and incarcera-tion of more than 120,000 people of Japanese ancestry into U.S. concentration camps during World War II. And no other event s so torn the community apart.

As the Nikkei community ands at the brink of the 21s century, those who obeved century, those who obeyed wartime government orders as an act of loyalty are still grapping to come to terms with the dissidents — the resisters of conscience, military resisters, "no nos," renuciants and others who defied and challenged the government to uphold the tenets professed in the U.S. Constitutions.

atever the differences, ho ver, it is time for the Nikkei community to come together, said Sen. Daniel Inouye, a highly dec-orated WWII veteran from Sen. Daniel Inouye, a highly dec-crated WWII veteran from Hawaii who lost an arm while fighting in the famed 442nd Reg-imental Combat Them.

Inouye fook time out of a busy schedule last week to speak with the Pacific Citizen on a topic that has been widely discussed in this paper this year: the resisters of Pacific Citizen: Discussion on the resisters seems to elicit angry response from a certain sector of the Nikkei community. How do you view the position these men took during WWII?

Inouye: In many ways, their [resisters] battle was just as important, if not more important than the battle I was involved in:

was involved in:
... Those were difficult times, difficult decisions had to be made. Some of the man value o made. Some of the men volunteered, some of the men decided to stay back home and sight the constitutional bette. Both of these battles required greet courage, and I think the time has come to recognize the courage of both the soldier and the resister. When history is written, I think both will be remembered.

When I wolunteered 25 comments

bered.
When I volunteered, 85 percent of those [Nikkei] eligible in Hawaii volunteered, which is an extraordinary number to have 85 percent of the eligible men of the Nikkei community volunteer. But it also shows that 15 percent did not volunteer. Should I hold it against those 15 percent who did not volunteer? That's ridiculous.

But I also realize it might be a bit difficult for some who have lost their loved ones to bring into the fold those who resisted serv-

P.C.: What decision do you think you would have made if you and your loved ones had been incarcerated in U.S. concentration camps?

e: Let me share an exp Inouye: Let me share an expe-rience I had which many of my comrades had when we were training. ... The mainlanders and the Hawaiian contingent, somehow, in the early days could not get together. In many ways, we came from two different cul-tural backgrounds. As a result of certain misunderstandings, there were numerous fights in the regiment, and sis a result, senior officers of the regiment considered breaking it up and converting the troops to some other purposes other than for combat. Many attempts were made to bring the troops together — social hours, discussion groups, etc. — but nothing seemed to work until one day, I'm certain under

See INOUYE/ page 7

7 Cupania Circle, Monterey Park, CA 91755 Tel: 323/725-0083, 800/966-6157, Fax: 323/725-0064 E-mail: Paccit@aol.com

Executive Editor: Caroline Y. Aoyagi Assistant Editor: Martha Naka Editor Emeritus/Archivist: Harry K. Honda Office Manager: Brian Tanaka Production Assistant: Margot Brunswick Writer/Reporter: Tracy Uba Circulation: Eva Lau-Ting

Special contributors: Patricia Arra, Allan Beekman, Toko Fujii, S. Ruth Y. Hashimoto, Bob Hirata, Ada Honda, Mas Imon, Mike Iseri, Naomi Kashi-wabara, Bill Kashiwagi, William Marumoto, Etsu Masaoka, Bill Matsumoto, Fred Oshima, Ed Suguro, Mika Tanner, George Wakiji, Jem Lew

Publisher: Japanese American Citizens League (founded 1929) 1765 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA 94115, tel: 415/921-5225 fax: 415/931-4671 JACL President: Helen Kawagoe, National Director: John Tateishi. Pacific Citizen Board of Directors: Rick Uno, chairperson; Clyde Nishimura, EDC; Hank Tanaka, MDC; Deborah Ikeda, CCDC; Claire Omura, NCWNPDC; Don Maekawa, PNVDC; Jeff Watahabe, IDC; Vacant, MPDC: Sam Shimoguchi, PSWDC

NEWS/AD DEADLINE: FRIDAY BEFORE DATE OF ISSUE. Editorials, news and the opinions expressed by columnists other than the national JACL president or national director do not necessarily reflect JACL policy. Events and products advertised in the Pacific Citizen dofnot carry the implicit endorsement of the JACL or this publication. We reserve the right to edit articles.

© 1999 (ISSN: 0030-8579) PACIFIC CITIZEN is published weekly except once in December. OFFICE HOURS -- Mon.-Fri., 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Pacific Time Annual subscription rates: JACL MEMBERS: $12 of the national dues provide Annual superipular nates: JAC in Weinberg. 2 to the failule of use proving one year on a one-per-household basis. NON-MEMBERS: 1 year-$30, payable in advance. Additional postage per year – Foreign periodical rate $22; First Class for U.S., Canada, Mexico: $30, Airmail to Japan/Europe: $60. (Subject to change without notice.) Periodical postage paid at Monterey Park, Calif., and at additional mailing offices. on: No part of this publication may be reproduced without express permission of the publisher. Copying for other than personal or internal reference use without the express permission of P.C. is prohibited. MICROFILM (35mm) of an nual issues is available from Bay Microfilm, Inc., 1115 E. Arques Ave., Sunnyvale,

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to: JACL National Headquarters, 1765 Sutter St.; San Francisco, CA 94115

Non-Member Readers

Get all the news and features from across the country SUBSCRIBE TO THE PACIFIC CITIZEN □ 1 yr./$30

Name:	weeks for	new suncin	buons to Deg.	u1.
Address:	-			,
Phone number:	.* .

All subscriptions payable in advance. For overseas subsiders, additional $22 per year required for postopic Checks payable to Pacific Cittien, 7 Cupania Circia, Mandesey Paris, CA, 91756.

Change of Address

If you have moved, please send information to:

JACL Members

National JACL 1765 Sutter Street San Francisco, CA 94115 or call membership at: 415/921-5225

Non-Members

Pacific Citizen 7 Cupania Circle Monterey Park, CA 91755 OF call circulation at: . 800/966-6157

***Allow 6 weeks for address changes***

To avoid interruptions in receiving your P.C., please notify your postmast to include periodicals in your change of address (USPS Form 3575).

9th Subscriptions Available

Give a loved one the gift that comes every week. Send them a gift subscription to the Pacific Citizen today.

Call 800/966-6157 for Details

Ca endar

WASHINGTON, D.C. Sat., Dec. 18— Mochizuki; Bradley Hills Presbyterian: Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda; Info: Laura Nakatani, 703/519-9378. ani, 703/519-9378.

Midwest

CINCINNATI
Sat. Dec. 4—Joint Installation, 30th anniversary celebration with Dayton chapter, details at Dayton.
CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND
Sat., Nov. 20—General Meeting, everyone welcome; 2-4 p.m.; Cleveland Buddhist Temple, 1573 E. 214th St., Euclid; topic: "Hate Crimes Against Asians." Info: Gary Yano, 440/327-

DAYTON DAYTON
Sat., Dec. 4—50th Anniversary Celebration, "Celebrating the Past, Anticipating the Future!" joint installation with Cinchinati Chapter, 6:30 p.m. reception, 7:30 banquet; Downtown Dayton Kettering Tower, George Takei, keynote speaker; Detroiters invited. Into: 937/294-8815.

Sat., Dec. 4—See Dayton chapter. WISCONSIN

Sun., Dec. 5—IACL Christmas Party, 11 a.m.; Mitchell Park Pavilion.

Intermountain

SALT LAKE

Sat., Nov. 13—Tanoshimi No Yoru Fun Night: see Community

Mountain Plains

NEW MEXICO

Party; Wyndham Airport Hotel; discount tickets available at Nov. 14 eneral meeting at Amerisuites lotel; discount deadline Nov. 30. Info: Calvin Kobayashi, 256-1610.

Pacific Northwest

COMMUNITY Calendar

East Coast

NEW YORK CITY

Mon. Sat., Nov. 8-13—Exhibit, "Sa-chiko Torok: Hand-coiled Bizen Pottery"; The Nippon Gallery, 145 W. 57th St. Info: Asian Pacific Islander on HIV/Aids (AICHA),

WASHINGTON, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. Through "Now, 30—Exhibit, "From Bento to Mixed Plate: Americans of Japanese Ancestry in Multicultural Hawai!"; Smittsonian Institution, Arts & Industry Bldg; developed by the Japanese American National Museum. Info: 800/461-5266.

Intermountain

SALT LAKE CITY

Sat., Nov. 13—Tanoshimi No Yoru Fun Night, 5-9 p.m., curry chicken dinner 6 p.m., Bingo 7 p.m.; Westside Senior Citizen Center, 868 W. 900 S. Tickets, info: Terrell Nagata, JACL Credit Union, 355-8040.

Pacific Northwest

PORTLAND

PORTIAND
Through Jan. 15—Exhibit, "Determined to Succeed - Oregon's Issel," Fridays & Saturdays, 11 a.m.-3 p.m., Sundays, noon-3 p.m.; Oregon Nikleel Legacy Center, 117 NW 2nd Ave. Info: 503/224-1458.
SEATLE
Through Jan. 3. 5.444.58.

SEATTLE
Through Jan. 2—Exhibit, "Painted
With Light: Pictorialism and the Seattle Camera Club"; Seattle Art Museum, 100 University St.; photos from the 1920s by mostly lapariese American photographers, Info, schedules: 206/ 654-3100.

th April 2000—Exhibit, "A ht Battle: Stories of Asian Pacific an Veterans"; Wing Luke Asian m, 407 Seventh Ave. S. Info:

rthern California

EMELEY
att, Nov. 13—Berkeley Nilder S ors Group Meeting: North Berke embr Center, 1901 Hearst Ave. It
emy. Yamashita 510/237/e231, zuko White, 510/528-1524.
AAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA

Sat., Jan. 29, 2000—Save the date! Seattle IACL installation dinner; speak-er, Martha Choe; M.C. Lori Matsu-kawa; Doubletree Suites, Tukwila; tickets available in December. NC-WN-Pacific DISTRICT COUNCIL

Sun, Nov. 7—District Council Meeting, at the State Capital Bldg; Sacramento; two special programs: Hate Crimes Wordshop with members of the FBI and Sacramento Police Dept; and "Leadership Development: Meeting Hate State Appointment." Dept., and "Leadership Development: Working" the State Appointment Process", reception to introduce Gov. Davis' Asian American appointees, sponsored by the Speaker of the House. Info: Carol Kawase, 707/964-

CONTRA COSTA

9325

Sun, Dec. 5—CCJACL Installation, Luncheori,12:30-3 p.m.; Silver Dra-gon Restaurant, 835 Webster St., Oakland; John Tateishi, speaker. FLORIN

Thurs., Nov. 18.—1999 Florin JACL Installation Dinner, 6 p.m.; Mayflower Chinese Cuisine, 3022 L St. RSVP by Nov. 12. Info: Sue Hida, 916/429-

Fri., Nov. 12—Deadline for California students to apply for April 13-14, 2000, Asian Pacific Youth Leadership Conference in Sacramento. Info: Sue Hida 916/429-2579

Thurs., Dec. 9—Installation/Board Appreciation/65th Anniversary Din-ner, 6 p.m.; Rose Garden Restaurant, 33348 Alvarado-Niles Rd., Union City. Info: Diane Endo: 925/648-0467.

Sun. Nov. 21-Mochizuki Potluck SAN FRANCISCO

Sat., Nov. 13—Nisei Ski Club Pre-season Dance; see Community Calen-

SONOMA COUNTY Sat., Nov. 20—Sushi Nite; see Com-munity Calendar.

Central California DISTRICT COUNCIL

Sun., Nov. 7—Nikkei Widowed Group monthly meeting, 1 p.m.; men and women are welcome. Info: Tets ihara, 415/221-4568, Kay Yamamoto, 510/444-3911.

Sat., Nov. 13—Nisei Ski Club Pre-season Dance, " Ski Into the Sat., Nov. 13—Nisei Ski Club Pre-season Dańce, "Ski Into the Millennium," 7 p.m.-10 a.m.; Holiday Inn at Fisherman's Wharf; raffle, music by Greg Harris and jerome Davis. Tickets, info: Gordon Koo, 408/292-898, e-mail dexogordn@pgbgroup. comp: Website - http://www.pgb-group.com/niseiskiclub».

Sat., Nov. 20—Sushi Nite, 6 p.m.; Memorial Hall at Enmanji; prepara-tion on Friday evening and Saturday morning; come and learn how. Order come and learn how. Order niber 16. Info: Jim Murakami, ing: come

Southern California

LOS ANGELES Sat., Nov. 6—Panel Discussion, "A Few Friendly Voices," 1 p.m.; James Hirabayashi, Ph.D., moderator. s," 1 p.m.; James moderator. American National Mu-69 E. First St., Little Tokyo.

seum, 369 E. First St., Little Tokyo. RSVP: 213/625-0414.
Sat., Nov. 6—Fall Frolic benefit dance; ESGV Japanese Community Center, 1203 W. Puente Ave., West Covina; two-step disco lessons at 7, dancing till 11 p.m. RSVP, info: Barbara, 626/810-1509.
Sum., Nov. 7—Reading and booksigning. 79-saage to Freedom: The Sugihara Story; with author Ken Mochizuld; 1 p.m. Japanese American National Museum, 369 E. First St., Little Tokyo. RSVP: 213/625-0414.

414, use, Nov. 9—California-Japan Forum nd Luncheon, "Manufacturing in the lew Global Economy," with Toyota totor Corp. Hori. Chairman Dr. noichiro Toyoda, 10:30 a.m.-1:30 m.; The Beverly Hillion Hotel, 9876 fishine Blvd., Beverly Hillion Hotel, 2016, pan America Society 213/627-6217

Sat., Nov. 13—50th Annivers Celebration, Installation Reco Sat., Nev. 13—50th Anniversary. Celebration, Installation Banquet, "Honoring Our Roots," 6 p.m.; Tornino's; Congressman Robert Maturi, Leynote speaker; chapter and district histories in words and pictures, special chapter and district awards. RSVP, info: CCDC office, 559/486-

Pacific Southwest

GREATER LA. SINCLES
Fri., Nov. 12—Meeting/program, 8 p.m.; Gardena/Alley YWCA, 1341 W.
Gardena Blvd.; "Stop Wornying and Start Laughing" with speaker Yvonne, Beck, certified LA. area manager for the Smart Works seminars, Info: Louise Sakamoto, 310/327-3169.
Sakamoto, 310/327-3169.

Sakamoto, 310/327-3169.
Sat., Dec. 4—Holidiay Party Dinner Dance & Installation, 6 p.m. no-host cocktail, 6:30 p.m. dinnr, Hacienda Hotel, 525 N. Sepulveda Bivd., El Segondo; D./.J. mūcic of High Resolution, RSVP, info: Joyce Okazaki, 562/430-5783 or Janet Okubo. 310/835-7568.

Fri.-Sun., Dec. 10-12-Las Vegas Cran Shoot Golf Caper. Info: Kaz Mayeda, 9708 Craighead Ln.; Las Vegas, NV 89117, phone 702/256-0314. RIVERSIDE

Sat., Nov. 13—CoachellaValley Aki Matsuri; see Community Calendar. ■

DEADLINE for Calendar is the Friday before date of issue, on a space-available basis. Please provide the time and place of the event, and name and phone number - (including area code) of a contact person.

HOLDAY ISSUE AD
KITS ON THEIR WAY
Holday Issue advertising lits are being mailed. Thank you to those of you who called to let us know where you who called to let us know where the kits should be sent. As a reminder, please call 800/966-6157 when you receive them. Thank you.

PABA) annual convention; Bonaven-ture Hotel, Info: 213/437-4060. Mon., Nov. 15, 29, Dec. 14—Visual Communications "Monday Nite VC," 7:30; Union Center for the Arts, 120 Judge John Aiso St., Little Tokyo. Free admission. Program Info: 213/680-4462 ext. 25, http://viscom.apanet.

OF ANGE COUNTY

ORANCE COUNTY

Sun, Nov. 21—Program, "Japan and World War II: the Search for Justice," 12 noon-4 p.m.; Whittier Law School,
3333 Harbor Blvd.; Costa Mesa;
Teresa Watanabe, Los Angeles Times, moderator, free admission; presented by the Asian Pacific Islander Law
Student Association and Intrinational Law Society of Whittier Law School.
Info: Anna Lisa Biason, 800/808-8188
est, 412, ownw.Jaw.whittie.edu>.
RIVERSIDE

Stt. Nov. 13—Crachella Valliev Aki

RIVERSIDE

Sat., Nov. 13—Coachella Valley Aki
Matsuri, 9:45 a.m.-4 p.m.; Coachella
Valley Museum and Cultural Center, 82-616 Milles Ave., Indio; area exhibit of photographs and memorabilia;
talko, ikebana, odori, calligraphy,
koto, judo. Inko: 760/342-6651.

SAN DIEGO

New 13-23 Plate: 6-51e Improf.

AN DIEGO

Nov. 12-21—Play, "False Impresions," by playwright Lisa Asanuma, ge 13. Old Globe Theatre, Balboa
ank. Tidoss, info: 619/239-8222.
ANTA BARBARA

SAN/IA BAKISARA
Sat, Nov. 6—Program, "Sports and the Media in the Japanese American Community," 8 am.-2:30 p.m.; the Forum, Santa Maria campus of Allan
Hancock College. No charge. Pre-reg-ister: 922-6966 ext. 3209.

Arizona - Nevada

Sat, Now. 6—Public Meeting, Man-zanar National Historic Site Advisory Commission, 1 p.m., National Park Service, Western Archeological and Conservation Center, 1415 N. Soth

Redress Payment Information Individuals can call 202/219-9900 and leave a message; or write to: CAV Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice, P.O. Box 66290, Washington, D.C. 20035-6280.

Clinton Meets With Chinese American World War II Veterans

WASHINGTON—President Clinton met with Chinese Amer-ican veterans of World War II ican veterans of worm and family representatives on Oct. 25 in the Oval office of the and family representatives on Oct. 25 in the Oval office of the White House. The Chinese Americans were in town for the premiere of the documentary film "We Served With Pride: The Chinese American Experience in WWII," by executive producer and military historian Montgomery Hom.

The president said in a statement that he is "honored to re-

The president said in a state-ment that he is "honored to rec-ognize the contributions of Chimese Americans during World War II. This untold story is one of great patriotism and heroism. ... It is intolerable that the pa-triotism of Asian Americans contriousm of Asian Americans con-tinues to be questioned, in the light of the recent allegations of espionage at one of our national laboratories ... The remarkable men and women that I met to-day are examples of why our diday are examples of why our di-versity is our greatest strength. Today, I honor these Chinese American Veterans of World War II and their service and steadfast loyalty to this coun-tre."

try."
Organization
(OC of Chinese Americans (OCA) National President George M. Ong com-mented, "President Clinton's meeting today with Chinese

Filipino WWII Vets Continue Struggle

Only 74,000 of the 200,000 Filipino American veterans who fought in World War II are alive today. Many of these veterans are living in low-income housing and are suffering from failing health and sickness. For over 50 years, Filipino American veterans have been defied full recognition for their service and have not re-ceived their GI benefits.

ceived their GI benefits.
On Nov. 11, Veteran's Day, the Justice for Filipino American Veterans (JFAV) committee is organizing a day of demonstration to support the Filipino American WWII veterans fight for their rights rights.

The JFAV committee is a group composed of dedicated Filipino American WWII veterans, youth-student organizations and community leaders who are uniting to fight for the rights and recognimunity leaders who are uniting to fight for the rights and recogni-tion of Filipinos who fought valiantly in WWII As part of their mission and goal, JFAV along with community sponsors are holding the day of demonstra-

The "Broken Promises,...For-gotten Soldiers...Rally/March" otten Soldiers...Rally/March' demonstration will kick off with a unity mass at St. Columbian Filipinio Church at 9 a.m. Following the mass, a press conference/prep rally will take place at 10:30 a.m. at the People's CORE Building, where refreshments and entertainment will be provided. Concluding the demonstration, a people's march will start from the People's CORE Building to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Building from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. For more information, contact: Ingrid Gonzales at 310/206-2635 or 310/825-2727; e.m.ili ignonzales@cucla.edu.

The sponsors for this event in-

The sponsors for this event include: People's CORE; United Filipino American Veterans (UFAV); clude: People's CORE, United Filipino American Veterans (LIRV); Alyansa Ng Komunidad; Golden Agers of Los Angeles (GALA); Philippine Peesant Support Network (Pesante); Filippine Christian church (FOC); Philippine Action Group for the Eavironment: (PAGE); Kabahayan Alliance; Kabataang Maka-Bayan (KMB); Bayan International (BAYAN); Foundation Kollective; Gabriella LA; UGLA Samahang Pilipino; CSU Long Beach; PAC; Concerned Asian Pacific-Islander Students for Action (CAPSA). American WWII veterans un-derscores the contributions and sacrifices made by Chinese Americans in the defense and building of America. Finally po-sacrifices made by Chinese and building of America. Finally no longer silent, ignored or forgotten— America proudly prodaims, acknowledges, and remembers its men and women who have served."

I am honored that the president of the United States retognized the Chinese Americans who served in the Chinese American Composite Wing of the 5th Fighter Group in China during WWII," remarked John Chu, captain of the 5th Fighter Group.

T feel that we Chinese Ameri cans now do not have to be dif-ferent but can now be part of the mainstream of America. The recognition that President Clinton and this film has provided us has been so important." com-mented Maggie Gee, U.S. Army Air Force, Women Army Air Force Service Pilots (WASP).

President Clinton sent a powerful message today that Asian Pacific Americans are loy-al Americans. With tremendous contributions that Chinese American, veterans have made on behalf of all Americans, no one should ever question which country they were fighting for. I am proud to be able to add to the archives of American history with this film," stated Hom. The veterans and their repre-

The veterans and their representatives who met with the president were John Chu, Dorothy Eng, Ernest K.H. Eng, Tom Eng, Jim Lay Fown, Edward Fung, Margaret "Maggie' Gee, Kenneth Gong, Danny Kim, Gary Lee, Stanford Lee, Jessie M. Lee Yip, Nancy Lem, Stephanie Leong, John B. Wong, Nicholas Lum Hyland, and Roberta Yee.

100th/442nd/MIS Memorial Foundation Unveils Education Program Component

By Pacific Citizen Staff

Less than five months after the successful unveiling of its monument, the 100th/442nd/MIS Mement, the 100th/42nd/MIS Me-morial Foundation launched an education program that will help to ensure the heroic stories of the Japanese American World War II veterans will never be forgotten. More than 350 people gathered at the Japanese American Na-tional Museum on Oct. 26 to wit-ness the launching of the three-tiered education program that inness the launching of the three-tiered education program that in-cludes an oral history program, teacher training workshops, and "When We Were Warriors," a film series by Lene Nishikawa.

series by Lene Nishikawa.
Organizers agreed, the main objective of the education program is to ensure that the legacy of the JA vets is passed on to the younger generations.

The education program "is the first step in trying to get the younger generation involved," said Christine Sato, executive disaid Christine Sato, executive di-rector of the foundation and her-self a Yonsei. "We're trying to get a lot more Sansei and Yonsei in-volved and to tell them this is what happened, because we'r er learned about it in school."

A granddaughter of a 442nd vet, Sato added that for the first time the foundation was able to work closely with some of the sons and daughters of the WWII vets. For many of the vets, talking about their wartime experi-ences is still a difficult thing to do, but through the foundation the younger generation is able to learn of the heroics of their fathers, uncles, and grandfathers. And thanks to outreach efforts, hundreds of Sansei and Yons have now joined in the efforts of the foundation.

The Hanashi Oral History Program is one way the foundation is passing on the legacy to the younger generations. By video-taping the stories of the JA WWII veterans, the Henseli Oral Hisrans, the Ha tory program's goal is to archive PHOTO: JEM LEW future gener-

Traveling throughout the state of California, the teacher are designed to provide a comprehen-colonel Kim sive program showing teachers how to accurately include lessons on the JA experience in the dassrooms. The JACL and JANM are working together with the foundation ing together with the foundation to carry out the workshops.

"We're providing the teachers with not only the background knowledge but also we give them firsthand knowledge with our panelists who have lived through the experience," said Carol Kawamoto, JACL education committee member.

committee member.

"The reaction has been really, really positive," added Kawamoto. "It's giving the teachers firstto. Its giving the teachers inst-hand knowledge and accurate knowledge of what happened be-cause I know, personally speak-ing, I did not read a lot of our hisin the textbooks."

en We Were Warriors" is a film trilogy created by actor and filmmaker Lane Nishikawa that nimmaker Lane Nishikawa that tells the JA WWII story by focus-ing on internment, military ser-vice, and their effects on the indi-viduals involved. "What's great about the education program is that they're going to get the film into the high schools," said Nishikawa. "And that is something I think is very important because when you look at the schools there's noth-ing in there about internment, military service of the Japanese men."

He added, "As far as the younger generations, I think the education program is really targeting them because they're going to be the next leaders... way of preserving the legacy. It is not just about paying tribute, it's about never forgetting."

Ultimately the foundation would like to see the education program incomporated into the program incorporated into the existing school system. "Our educational program is selectively cational program is selectively designed to get the story into the school system," said Col.Young Oak Kim of the foundation. Right now we're trying to get it into the school system. Eventually, if we're successful, we'll get it into the textbooks."

And the foundation has the support of Tomas Alvarado, sec-retary, California Department of Veterans Affairs. Alvarado is sup-porting the foundation's current request to have Gov. Gray Davis support a budget allocation of $1.5 million to go towards the ed-cation program.

"I think it's important that kids Think it's important that kids recognize what it is these individuals went through and the heroic activities they performed and the legacy they left behind that most people don't know about today," said Alvarado. Think the governor would be receptive to that."
With the launching of the education program, the implementation stage now follows.
"Things have just started," said Sato. "We have a long road ahead of us but I think we can accomplish the goal as long as we complish the goal as long as we have the help from the younger generation."

disconsisting enti-cummunist documents. He had written everal rate on party corruption that was circulated on the Internet and published by Vietnamese ving in earle.

Just prior to his arrest, arti.

Trade and Industry, at a global congress on AIDS in Asia.

pie are living with HIV or AIDS in the Asia-Perific region. At the opening of the Sour-day can fearner, experts tirged the report to learn a lesson from Africa, which has 21 million cases that account for two-thirds of the swifel misections.

"What one hopes is that Asian countries with finetions.

"What one hopes is that Asian countries with the vigorithmis is necessary, as has been the case in Africa." Prof. said at the conference, which was attended by more than 3,000 scientists doctors, activists and AIDS sofferess. ☐ Vlagra Goes on Sale In South Korea SEOUL, South The anti-impotence

Japanese American Inducted into Ilwaco High School's Wall of Fame

Richard K. Murakami, class of 1932, was one of three new inductees into Ilwaco High School's Wall of Fame.

More than 400 people at-More than 400 people attended the Oct. 1 event, which took place at Ilwaco High, School, located in southwestern Washington. The other two inductees were Douglas R. Ostgaard, class of 1965, and C. Munro Cullum, class of 1977. The purpose of the Wall of Fame is two-fold: it was set up to recognize outstanding alun ni who have made substantial contributions in their chosen field, and to inspire attending students to realize that even graduates from a small high school can aspire to greatness.

Murakami graduated during the depth of the Great Depression but was able to attend the University of Washington for two years before being called home to manage his father's the outbreak of World War II, Murakami was forced to lease the Eagle Oyster Pack-ing Co. and sell the family's cranberry farm and home for a mere $10,000.

Following the issuance of Executive Order 9066, the Murakami family was sent to the Tule Lake Relocation Center Murakami met and married Setsuko of Sacramento. During the course of their 50-year marriage, the couple had four daughters: Cheryl, Adele. Irene and Diana

Upon Murakami's return to ne West Coast after the war, the West Coast after the war, he found his oyster company stocks depleted and his equip-ment in disrepair. He also found it difficult to hire workers since anti-Japa ment was still strong. Howe er, local veterans, familiar with the exploits of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, came to Murakami's support helped him get back on his feet.

When the Coast Oyster Co. offered to buy out the Eagle Oyster Co. Murakami sold out and accepted a job as a manag-er of the Nahcotta operation. He later became the Coast Oyster Co.'s general manager, a position he held until his rement in 1982.

spite being a lone Japanese American in a largely Cau-casian community, Murakami became active in many local or-

He served as chairman of the Ocean Park School Board; chairman of the Board of Trustees of Grays Harbor Com-Trustees of Grays Harbor Com-munity College; director of Harbor Community Bank; president of Willapa Harbor Oyster Growers Association; president and secretary-trea-surer of the South Bend Kiwanis Club; president of the South Bend Chamber of Commerce; commissioner of the Pa-cific County Hospital; secremerce; commissioner of the Pa-cific County Hospital; secre-tary of the Pacific County Re-publican Central Committee; treasurer of the Ocean Park Methodist Camp and the South Bend Methodist Church; master and treasurer of Ma-sonic Lodge 48; member of the Scottish Rite and York Rite of Freemasonry; and president of the Willapa Harbor Shrine

Murakami was also a mem-ber of the Pacific County Tourism Committee, the Job Training Partnership Act, and was given a District Award of Merit for his service on the Twin Harbors Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. ■

JACCC Accepting Applications for Fresh Track Series

The JACCC is now accepting proposals from Asian Pacific American artists of all levels for consideration in the Fresh Tracks series in Spring 2000. Each proposal will be re-viewed and selections will be made by a panel of local artists, performers, and administrators

The JACCC Fresh Tracks Series is designed to feature emerging and developing per-forming artists from the community.

Many new and aspiring artists have often been frustrat-ed with the lack of both avenue, audience and funding support Fresh Tracks is designed to ad-

Artists that have performed in the Fresh Tracks series have included Karen Tei Yamashita David Iwataki, Dan Kwong, Denise Uyehara, Erin O'Brien, Soji Kashiwagi, Paula Weston Solano, Dennis Dun, Jon Shirota and many others.

This year, Fresh Tracks will

Little Tokyo Service Center Community

open with one night of spoken word and poetry and continue with two nights of performance art, monologues and current works.

The performance dates for the Fresh Tracks.00 will be April 14-16, 2000, at the Union Center for the Arts, David Henry Hwang Theatre

Artists will be paid an artist's fee. The JACCC will assume the responsibility for producing the show, presenting the work, marketing and promotion. The JACCC will be able to provide rehearsal space on a limited ba-

E-mail application and mailin attachments to the JACCC by Dec. 1, to yamami@ jaccc.org>.

Send completed applications and attachments to Fresh Tracks, co JACCC, 244 South San Pedro Street, Suite. 505, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

For an application or for more information, contact Bryan Yamami at 213/628-2725 or by email at yamami@jaccc.org.

Development Corporation Wins First Place The Little Tokyo Service lected from among a nation-

Center Community Develop-ment Corporation (LTSC CDC) won first place for the development of Casa Heiwa in the 1999 Metropolitan Life Foundation Award for Excellence in Affordable Housing competition, in the category of Property and Asset Manage-ment. The award is administered through the Enterprise Foundation.

LTSC CDC was presented with $25,000 and a plaque at the 18th Annual Network Conference, "Building Amerithe 18th Annual rectwork Conference, "Building Ameri-ca One Community at a Time," in Virginia on Oct. 13. The award was secured due to LTSC CDC's effective property and asset management program, particularly for keeping exceptionally low va-cancy rates at the building, its timely responsiveness to maintenance issues, and the financial soundness of the building. LTSC CDC was se-wide pool of applicants.

The project being featured for this award was Casa Heiwa, which translates from Spanish and Japanese into "House of Harmony." It was completed in 1996 and is a $17.1 million mixed-use, 100unit multifamily new con-struction project located in Little Tokyo near downtown

Los Angeles.
This project is one of many projects that LTSC CDC has developed since its inception developed since its incin 1993.

LTSC CDC, which is an affiliate of its parent organiza-tion, Little Tokyo Service Cen-ter (LTSC), focuses on numerous community development projects in the Little Tokyo area which include: low in-come housing development and management, economic development, child care, community organizing and a variety of other programs.

JACL's 36th Nat'l Convention Slated for Monterey, Calif.

The next JACL national convention will be held in Monterey, Calif., from June 27 to July 2. Five JACL chapters — Moterey Peninsula, Salinas Valley, Watsonville, Gilroy ley, Watsonville, Gilroy and San Benito County — have been working hard for the past 10 months to put together an a verifing ments of the Military Intelligence Service; a golf working hard for the past 10 months to put together an a verifing ments of the Military Intelligence Service; a golf working hard for the past 10 months to can be put together an a verifing ments of the Military Intelligence Service; a golf working hard for the past 10 months to can be put together an a verifing ments of the Military Intelligence Service; a golf working hard for the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be put together and the past 10 months to can be past 10 months 1 exciting program of special events and workshops.

nd the same of Leader are tory The convention planning group recently selected a logo and the theme, An Endless Wave of Leadership, for convention. The logo was created by graphic designer Jerry Takigawa. A convention highlight will be a welcome mixer at the Monterey Bay Aquarium. An education workshop, un-der the auspices of the JACL Na-tional Education Conference, is being planned to help teachers incorporate the Nikkei experium. An education work ence into the teaching curriculum. Booster activities include a lunch and tour of Monterey's De fense Language Institute to recognize the accomplishments of the Milinery Row, Steinbeck House, Point Lobos, vine yards and shopping sites noted for their architecture, his tory and uniqueness

There will also be familiar events: workshops, a candidates' forum as a prelude to the bienni-al election of national officers, an oratorical contest, district cau-cuses and the traditional Say-

Officers and staff from national JACL headquarters have attended several planning sessions. Among those who have sions. Among those who have lent their experience and advice are Helen Kawagoe, JACL president; Fleyd Mori, vice president for general operations; Dona Okubo, director of fund development; and John Tateishi, national director.

Most of the planning has been done by a core committee of about 25 members from the five host chapters. Coordinating the committee are Larry Oda, con-vention committee general chair and president of the Monterey and president of the Monterey Peninsula chapter, Edith Ichiuji, convention committee co-chair, and Kaz Matsuyama, vice presi-dent of the Monterey Peninsula

If you have ideas or concerns relevant to the 2000 convention, contact: P.O. Box 1996. Mon-contact: P.O. Box 1996, Mon-terey, CA 93942-1996.

Local officers and delegates can be contacted by writing to JACL national headquarters at 1765 Sutter St., San Francisco, CA 94115. ■

Placer CountyJACL Dedicates Del Oro Tribute Garden

The Placer County JACL re-cently dedicated the Del Oro centry dedicated the Del Oro Tribute Garden and a plaque in recognition of the contributions made by Americans of Japanese ancestry towards the enrichment of Del Oro High School in Loomis. Kicked off by a Florin Kodomo Hokyo Tuiko performance, the formal unveiling was led by Placer County JACL co-presidents Bill Tsuji and Thaya Craig, along with Del Oro High School vice principal and guest speaker at the event, Monte White.

White who called the occasion

White, who called the occa

a "high point in my career," spoke of the history of the school and of the integral part that Japanese Americans played in its develop-ment as a reputable institute for academics, athletics and the arts. Del Ore High School opened in 1960 after local JA farmers had depended recting and development.

1960 efter local JA farmers had donated tractors and other equip-ment to help in its construction. That year, 47 of the 422 students were of Japanese descent. Dur-ing the 1988 school year, 25 of the 1,470 students had Japanese surnames. Located in the center of campus, the garden was surnames. Located in the center of campus, the garden was backed by several years of research and planning begun by school officials, Placer County JACL and fund drive chair Gordon Takemeto. Physical labor and financial support was provided by various volunteers, donors and community members. The achool gymnasium was also reand community members. Also re-school gymnasium was also re-cently named after the late Paul Vokote, who devoted his life to-ward the betterment of Del Oro. His involvement with students and their activities led to an en-mand scholarship program which

WWII Memorial Alliance Monument Set to be Dedicated Feb. 19

Americans of Japanese Ancestry World War II Memorial Alliance announced that Feb. 19 will the announced that Feb. 19 will the dedication ceremony date for a monument honoring the Japanese American soldiers killed in action during World War II.

during World War II.

The monument, which will be placed in the National Japanese American Veterans Memorial Court located in front of the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center in Los Angeles' Little Takyo, joins two other memorial honoring Nikkesi Gls killed in the Korean and Vetnam wars.

Dr. Roy Machida, chair of the Alliance, said $350,000 of the targeted $500,000 has been raised. He expected construction to begin to the server the construction to begin to the server the server that the serv soon.

Final drawings for the monu-ment, prepared pro bono by archi-tect Mike Tsui, himself a veteran of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, have been given to Obayashi Corporation, which has been con-tracted to build the monument," said Machida. "A building permit has also been obtained from the City of Los Angeles. We are plan-ning a groundbreaking ceremony-soon and plan to have the memori-al up by the end of January."

confused with Often confused with the 100th/442nd/MIS Memorial Foundation monument which honors all Nikkei World War II soldiers, the Alliance memorial is dedicated solely to JA soldiers killed in action.

More than 800 names are listed. Other events planned around this event will include: a gala banquet at the Hyatt

a gala banquet at the Hyatt Regency Hotel
 a WWII photograph and memorabilia exhibit at JACCCS North Gallery
 Ed Sakamoto will perform
 Our Hearts Were Touched With Fire" at the Japan America Thesian

• a golf tournament on Monday, Feb. 21, at the Montebello Country Club.

For more information or to volcontact Kats Kunitsugu at 213/628-2725. ■

All-Vets Reunion to Commemorate 50th Anniversary of Korean War

The Japanese American Korean War Veterans (JAKWV) are cur-rently preparing final plans for an all-veterans reunion on April 27-30, 2000, to be held at the Hyatt

In conjunction with the reunion a special tribute is planned to hon-or Korean War here Biroshi "Her-shey" Miyamura, the only living American of Japanese ancestry to American of Japanese ancestry to receive a medal of Honor.

The families and relatives of those killed or missing in action during World War II, the Korean War, Vietnam War and other con-war, vietnam war and other con-flicts, as well as those who died as prisoners of war will also be recog-nized during the reunion. An added aspect of the reunion is the fund-raising for the planned memorial for AJAs who died in Ko-read during the war which is to be rea during the war which is to be built in or near Seoul, Korea, by

Korea Monument co-chairmen Ed Nakata and Min Tonas are vis-iting government officials in Korea to select the site and contract for the memorial listing the 246 AJAs who died in Korea during the con-

Ed Nakata stated, "We are presently visiting with the Korean government officials to select a government officials to select as site. Tentative locations are either in or near Seoul or at the site of Hershey Miyamura's one-man heroic stand and his eventual cap-ture. It's our way of conveying to the people of the Republic of Korea that Americans of Japanese ances-try served and sacrificed their lives for the freedom of South Korea."

try served and sacrificed their lives for the freedom of South Korea." Included in the schedule of events are: a golf tournament on Friday at Whittier Narrows Golf Course; Friday evening business meeting and reception at the Hyatt Hotel; tour of the Japanese American National Museum (JANM) plus other tours on Satur-

American National Museum (JANM) plus other tours on Saturdey morning; and, under the cosponsorship of JANM and the JAKWV, a Korean War veterans panel discussion in the afternoon featuring Hershey Miyamura and other veterans relating their personal and war experiences.

The reunion banquet will take place Saturday evening. The feativities will close with a Sunday morning sayonara breakfast followed by a combined memorial service for the 246 AJAs who died in the Korean War, the 805 AJA and non-AJA officers, of the 100th/442nd KIA of WWII, and the 115 AJA KIA of the Vietnam War. The services will be held in the Veterans Memorial Court at the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center (JACCO) located at 244 S. San Pedro St. in the Little Tokyo district of downtown Los Angeles.

One of the highlights of the get the general court of the control of th geles.

One of the highlights of the en-tire event will be the Korean War, Vietnam War and WWII Jeint AJA exhibit to be displayed in the Doizaki Gallery of the JACCC and open to the public for two week-ends.

The reunion is open to veterans of all wars, families, friends and guests, said reunion chairman of all wars, tanasses, or guests, said reunion chairman Sam Shimoguchi. It's our way of trying to show our JA community of the unity of the JA veterans, especially with the addition of the Americans of Japanese Ancestry WWII Memorial Alliance's new wwill memorial Alliances new memorial now being built in the Veterans Memorial Court at the JACCC. This WWII memorial list-ing the names of all the AJA and non-AJA officers of the 100th/

442nd will join the memorials wit the names of those who died du ing the Korean and Vietnam war added Shimoguchi. JA Vietnam War veterans pres

JA Vietnam War veterans pres-dent Vincent-Okamoto, the most decorated JA in the Vietnam War, and WWII Memorial Alliance pres-ident Dr. Roy Machida, G Compa-ny, 442nd, both offered their en-couragement to their fellow veter-ans to attend this unification reon and 50th anniversary or bration.

President of the JA Korean War
Veterans Robert Wada also extended his invitation to all Korean War era veterans, whether they are of Japanese ancestry or not, to war era veterans, whether they are of Japanese ancestry or not, to attend.

"The JAKWV is a war era group for all those who served during 1950-1955," emphasized Wafa. This reunion is a recognition and commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the beginning of the Korean War. It was a war facing all the Korean War. It was a war facing all the Korean War era veterans of our country, not just the JAa. We want all veterans of the war to join us. It was a war and a difficult time we all faced and endured together, he added.

Those who would like to serve on a committee are welcome to volunteer their services. Registration forms, hotel reservation cards and booklet advertisement forms for the souvenir memorial booklet have been mailed. If you have not received your packet of forms or would like to receive, set, please contact Victor Murabka, Tel.: 818987-1714, Sam Shimoguchi, Tel. and Fax: 310/822-6688," or Robert Wada, Tel.: 714992-5461, Fax 714525-9761, e-mail: rwainc@ earth-link.net.

GLAS Donates $1,000 to East West Players

Southland's award-winning playwrights gather with Tim Dang at the Greater L.A. Singles JACL program. From left: Joh Shirota, author of the just-finished "Leilani"s Hibiscus," Barbara Shirota, Edward Sakamoto, weekek Yamauchi and Tim Dang, producing artistic director of East West Players.

Simply... the best

ELIGIBILITY AND MEMBERSHIP REQUIRED Join the National JACL Credit Union and become eligible for our VISA card. Call, fax or mail the information below for membership information.

------------

1

Tel 801 355-8040 / Fex 801 521-2101 / Email: jeckur@jecku.com / PO 1721 / SLC, Utah 84110

'Amerasia Journal' Focuses on 'New' Second Generation and Asian American Identity

UCLA's Asian American Studies Center Press recently an-nounced the publication of a special issue of 'Amerasia Jour-nal' on the "new" second-generation Asian Americans — the adolescents and young adult off spring of first-generation immi-grants, who have come to the United States since the enactment of the Immigration Act of 1965.

In this 260-page issue, the special guest co-editors, professors Pyong Gap Min of CUNY Queens College and Keyoung Park of UCLA, state that 'Until the mid-1980s, research on Asian Americans had exclusively focused on first-generation immigrants, with almost no attention to the second generation. However, research on the second generation has gained increasing momentum since the second generation has gained increasing momentum since the late 1860s when second-generation Asian American students composed a significant part of the student body in many high schools and colleges and universities in Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York, Honolulu and other places."

According to Min and Park, "Considering the importance of the ethnic identity issue for second-generation Asian American experiences and the popularity the ethnic identity issue for second-generation Asian American experiences and the popularity of the topic in Asian American Studies, it is timely that "Amerasia Journal" focuses on the topic. Five of the eight articles included examine second-generation Asian Americans ethnic identity using personal interviews with young adults. The Chinese, Filipino, Korean, Indian and Vietnamese are the five largest Asian immigrant groups in the post-1965 era. "UCLA professor Min Zhou in her essay, "Coming of Age: The Current Situations of Asian American Children, offers an overview of the adjustment patterns of AA children and provides demographic profiles of young adults in terms of factors such as language usage, family economic status, and family

economic status, and family structure. In "College and Notions of 'Asian American: Second Generation Chinese and Korean Americans Negotiate Race and Identity." Boston University professor Nazli Kabria explores second-generation Chinese and Korean Americans, focusing on their identity and friendship patterns. Hung Thai of UC Berkeley, in his article, "Splitting Things in Half is ow Mittel: Conceptions of Family Life and Friendship and the Formation of Ethnic Identity Among Second-Generation Vietnamese Americans," explores how second-Generation Vietnamese ond-Generation Americans," exp of Ethnic identity Among Second-Generation Vietnamese Americans, explores how second-generation Vietnamese Americans, explores how second-generation Vietnamese American college students and young adults "grow up" in contemporary America as children of immigrants and immigrants. In "ABC and XYZ: Religious, Ethnic and Racial Identity of the New Second Generation chineses in Christian churches, professor Fengang Yang of the University of Southern Maine explores the religious identities of Chinese immigrant Christians in relation to ethnic identity. Observing ethnic and youth identity from a different vantage point, UCLA researcher Bangele Alsaybar looks at the Filipino American gang as the site for the formation of identity. In his article, 'Deconstructing Deviance: Filipino American Youth Gang, 'Party Culture,' and Ethnic Identity in Los Angeles, "Alsaybar examines three historical periods in the Filipino American community — the 1920s, the 1960s and 1980s, and the present. Co-editor Park, in her article 1920s, the 1960s and 1980s, and the present.

Co-editor Park, in her article titled, 'I Really Do Feel I'm 1.5!,' analyzes the young adult Korean American community in Los Angeles, based on her fieldwork and interviews, and reports that biculturalism and multiculturalism help to define the new generation. The article by co-editors Min and Joann Hong, "Ethnic Attachment

Among Second-Generation Korean Adolescents, is based on survey data, and shows that second-generation Korean adolescents are highly assimilated culturally, but strongly attached to their ethnic community in terms of their friendship patterns and identify.

of their friendship patterns and identity.
Finally, in her essay, "On Asian American Ice Queens and Multigenerational Asian Ethnics," professor Mia Tuan of the University of Oregon provides a provocative examination of the recent phenomenon of AA femals, ice sketch from the personal professor of the personal professor of the personal professor of the personal professor from the personal professor from the personal professor of the male ice skaters from the per-spective of mass media and, within a multigenerational AA perspective, comments on mase media and Asian female ath-

The issue also includes the annual selected bibliography on new research and work in AA Studies, which was compiled by Judy SooHoo of the UCIA Asian American Studies Reading Studies, which was compiled by Judy SooHoo of the UCLA Asian American Studies Reading Room and Library.

The special issue is dedicated to the late Michi Weglyn, who had a major impact on Japanese American Studies and AA Studies with the publication of her classic study, "Years of Infamy. The Untold Story of America's Concentration Camps," which was published in 1976. A biographical easay on Weglyn's life and research was written by professor Phil Nisah of the University of Maryland.

This special edition of 'America's Country residents, '7.75 peccent for California residents). Special bulk order prices are also available. Make checks payable to the 'UC Regents," and send to the UCLA Asian American Studies Center Press, 2320 Campbell Hall, Post Office Box 951546, Ica Angeles, CA '90085-1546. Phone orders and information, call 310/825-2968 or 310/825-2974, or e-mail to kucucla edu.

By Harry Honda

FDR's EO 9066 Stunk Like 'a Dead Cat'

A RECENT call to join the project to publish the history of JACL Redress and the JACL-LEC (Legislative Education Committee) campaign had me revisiting those years when Redress became a major effort in the 1980s. By the way, a college-level text by UCLA scholars appeared this past summer. Co-au-thored by Mitchell Maki, Harry H.L. Kitano and S. Megan H.L. Kitano and S. Megan Berthold, their 300-page book, "Achieving the Impossible Dream: How Japanese Ameri-cans Obtained Redress" (Univer-sity of Illinois Press, 1999), is the latest in the field of at least 150 books, journal articles and public ocuments on the subject.
What I liked about this book is the consistent style: the statement made as an opening line of a paragraph, followed by details in a sentence or two or pos paragraphs, nourished with bits of history and behind-the-scenes stories. A good example starts on page 134:

"Hirabayashi's Coram Nobis Case — The government pulled out all its trump cards for the Hirabayashi case [the last of the three wartime Japanese cases addressing the error in the trial and Supreme Court rulings]. This reflected the strong sentiment within the Department of Justice and the Reagan administration for assuming a hard line rather than a conciliatory stance toward the petitioner
Trial Judge D

Donald

Vorhees heard the case in June 1985. Sansei attorney Rodney Kawakami, Seattle, represented Gordon, who this month will have a U.S. Forest Service recreational campground north of Tucson, Aris, dedicated to him. See P.C. Septe 10.

Victor Stone, the government attorney fighting the coram nobis cases, posited in the Hirabayashi case that there was no loss of civil rights, the government had en-sured they would not prosecute others in the future for a similar offense, and the statute of limita-tions had run out. The book also tions and run out. The evidence was reminded that, "No evidence was ever produced indicating that any Japanese Americans were involved in espionage activities." And that the late Ed Equis (head of the Justice Department's alien enemy control unit after Pearl Harbor) volunteered testimony that Assistant Secretary of War McCloy "intentionally withheld from the Justice Department De-Witt's original report on the exclusion .... It was impossible to determine which Japanese Americans were loyal and which were disloyal." (Ennis was JACL counsel in the evacuation claims and Issei naturalization campaigns.)

Granting the writ of coram no-bis for the exclusion charge, Judge Voorhees concluded "withholding of evidence in the original case seriously undermined the ability of Hirabayashi's attorneys to counteract the government's claim of military necessity in ex-cluding Japanese Americans ..."

Now, checking the index for "Buchanan, Patrick," the Wash-ington talk-show panelist run-rung for president expenses and not ning for president again, and not ning for present again, and not finding him there, a Pat Buchanan op-ed column, "Concentration Camps of FDRs New Deal (Washington Times, March 2, 1983)," in our archives sheds an 2, 1983), 'in our archives sheds an unexpected thought regarding Redress. His column recounts much of what the Nisei generation knows of the past. Such as:

(1) EO 9066 rounded up 120,000 JAs 'not one of whom had been charged with any crime, more considered and thoughed of e rounded up and trucked off into barbed-wire enclosures in the western United States for the vir-tual duration of World War II."

(2) Under FDR's "personal or-der, these Americans were, most of them, in concentration camps until the 1944 election was safely behind the victorious Democrati arty." (Only a politically-upbeat isei would hold this view.)

(3) While Secretary of the Navy Knox insisted there was a "very Anox masted there was a very active fifth column, work going from the shores and from the sampans, "Attorney General Bid-dle, originally against Evacua-tion, weakened. Paraphresing Buchanan here: "What further need hed were report

But it was not the Japanese [American] citizens in Hawaii, a third of the population who were interned, but Japanese Americans thousands of miles away in California, where the leading Jap batter was a Republican at-torney general by name of Earl

In summation, Buchanan pro-posed "the beginning of atone-ment to our fellow citizens locked ment to our fellow citizens iocaec up in the concentration camps of the New Deal might be to deliver ceremoniously to the Japanese Americans—as a site to memori-alize this wretched chapter in the American presidency -to Hyde Park." the deed

American presidency — the dear to Hyde Park."

No such idea ever crossed JACL's mind back then. But bet-ter than a deed to Hyde Park to-day from the prospect of millions learning about JAs — a bit of valuable federal ground in Washington, D.C., was turned over this past week (Oct. 22) for a monunent dedicated to the patriotism and contribution of JAs during

About the foul-smelling feline headlined above, Buchanan found that characterization in a review by Murray Kempton of Robert Caro's book, "The Year's of Lyndon Johnson: the Path to Concluded Kempton: "Caro ... in all affection and piety ... has thrown a dead cat into the garden thrown a dead cat mit the garden of Franklin D. Roosevelt's centen-niel." Buchanan adds: "... a con-gressional commission has credit-ed Dr. New Deal with having ap-proved and presided over the only system of concentration camps for innocent men, women and chil-dren ever established on Ameri-can soil."

Our comment: What kernels the archives can produce.

Dr. Chin Establishes First Endowment for Asian American Women's Studies

In recognition of the extraordi-nary influence her mother, Rose Eng Chin, and grandmother, He-len Wong Eng, have had on her life Dr. Lisa Chin established a endowment in their names to upport Asian American Women's Studies at UCLA.

Each year, in perpetuity, the faculty of the AA Studies Center will award academic prizes for the best undergraduate paper, the best undergraduate paper, master's thesis and doctoral dis-sertation focusing on the experi-ences of AA women written by UCLA students. The endowment UCLA students. The endowment also will provide grants for research and conference travel for UCLA graduate students who are doing research in AA Women's Studies. It will be the first endowment of its kind in all of American higher education in support of AA Women's Studies.
T wanted to establish this en-

support of AA Women's Studies.

"I wanted to establish this endowment," said Chin, "because it is through my parents' determination and struggle that I was able to go to college. They were second-generation Chinese Amersecond-generation Chinese Amer-icans who had grown up poor in New York Chinatown, and they wanted us to have the best educa tion possible and the greatest chance to succeed in the world. "My mother encouraged me to go to graduate school. My mother, especially, had many struggles to overcome to become the strong, dependable, determined wormshe is. She in turn is who are e is. She, in turn, is where she is because of my grandmother's sacrifices (raised in China as an orphan by her sister-in-law, and never educated beyond 4th grade, though she did become an independent and successful busioman later on.) I am gratenesswoman later on.) I am grate-ful to my mother because she taught me, by example, that a de-termined woman is a powerful force that is not easily denied. If more students can study these remarkable and determined women who are a part of our dai-ly lives then we can learn and women who are a part of our daily lives, then we can learn and grow in more and better ways."

Chin, a third-generation Chinese American New Yorker, did her undergraduate studies at Wellesley College in Massachusetts where she majored in political science and art. In 1907 ebs. ical science and art. In 1997, she received her Ph.D. From UCLA in social sciences and comparain social sciences and compara-tive education and wrote a path-breaking dissertation titled, "Mothering, Othering: Commu-nicating Success Across Three Generations of Chinese Ameri-can Women." Chin works for Amazon.com in Seattle, and volunteers with AA and other community groups in the city.

Troubled in Paradise

By Brian Niiya

Saboteurs No More

ack in April, I wrote about ack in April, I wrote about an issue which had arisen over the introductory video at the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial. As you may recall, the Honolulu chapter had gotten involved when a woman named Yoshie Tanabe approached us about one of the s in the video images in the video.

It is a section of the video which makes the point that General Walter Short seemed to be more concerned about the threat of "5th Column" activity on the part of lo-cal Japanese Americans than with the threat of actual attack by the Japanese military.

The point is made with the following narration: "General Short believed however, that the great danger was not air attack but saboteurs, hidden amid Hawaii's large Japanese population." This narration is augmented by, first, a quick series of shots of Nisei young adults, presumably around Honolulu, going about their daily lives.

their daily lives.

Then comes a scene of an older, presumably Issei fellow, with cane knife in hand, pausing from his work to look up from a bluff over at what is presumably an American war ship peasing by. The combination of this image with the narration about Shorts fears of the JA threat leave the indelible impression that (a) his fears were well founded and (b) such spying and sabotage by JAs actually did take place.

e place. his is the only reference to JAs

This is the only reference to JAs in the video.

Given that this video is viewed by tens of thousands of visitors to the memorial every year, it's not surprising that objections were not one publicly objected to the video before now.

After a special viewing by mem-bers of the Honolulu chapter and other concerned citizens in March, there was a consensus that efforts had to be undertaken to have the video changed. Honoulu chapter president Clayton Ikei wrote a letter to the National Ikei wrote a letter to the National Park Service, the agency in charge of the Arizona Memorial, requesting that a copy of the video be provided to the chapter. At the behest of the chapter, letters from Senator Daniel Akaka and Repre-sentative Patsy Mink followed ex-pressing concern with the video.

Unfortunately, this first round of inquiry did not yield results. Copies of the video were not forth-coming and NPS officials indicated that the video would not be al-ered, citing cost consideration More discussion followed To cussion followed. Eventually, the chapter acquired a copy of the tape and copies were sent to the national JACL office. All who viewed it reached more or less the same conclusion as to the need for it to be changed.

In addition to the other efforts, a September 23 letter from JACL

in addition to the other entries, a September 23 letter from JACL national director John Tateishi may have done the trick. That letter tirged that the video be edited to eliminate the suggestion of Japanese American culpability in the attack at Pearl Harbor."

Shortly thereafter, the JACL received word that Kathleen Billings, the National Park Service official in charge of the Arizona Memorial, agreed that the offending segment would be cut. The visual image of the cane cutter would be removed, as well as the clause "... hidden amid Hawaii's large Japanese population" in the narration noted above. The change should be made within six months. In the interim, a slide will be inserted before the video explaining that fears of JA saboteurs as noted in the video proved to be unfounded and that JAs "remained loyal."

JAs 'remained loyal.'
Though there are still some problematic aspects to the video — one wishes, for instance, that there was some other mention of Japanese Americans in it — this concession by the Park Service removes the major objection JAs had with the video.

Though I've been critical of JACL in the past — and will no doubt continue to be in the future doubt continue to be in the future—the organization remains effective in dealing with these sorts of issues which the vast majority of JAs would agree with. It's national scope and influence with the Asian American congressional delegation makes it a force most would rather reach an agreement with than fight with. That can come in hands cometiment.

with than ngnt with. That can come in handy sometimes. Credit too should go to Mrs. Yoshie Tanabe, who stepped for-ward and made the case that the video needed to be changed. Many others no doubt saw the video and others no doubt saw the video and objected to it, but didn't say any-thing. Mrs. Tanabe's actions spurred the eventual change. Episodes like this make me

Episodes like this make me wish we could be more effective on other types of issues, issues which are more controversial within the community. But if the recent discussion on draft resisters is any indication, it looks like we'll be too bisy fighting each other for that to happen, at least for the time being. In the meantime, we in the hinterlands will keep pingging away in the hope that will change.

(Brian Niiya is a member of the Honolulu JACL chapter.)

Original Handcast Bronze KAMON .A.家紋

'Symbol of your surname & its history

- * 家紋塾開講 家紋の由来と苗字の歴史 Kamon Classes を指導 (通信教育も可)
- * 家紋文庫 苗字史を象徴した家紋を探す Kamon Library 為の専門書完備

YOSHIDA KAMON ART

P. O. Box 2958, Gardena, CA 90247-1158 (213) 629-2848 (8am - 10pm/PST)

KEI YOSHIDA, Researcher/Instructor NINA YOSHIDA, Translator

National

Police Dept. to onitor Racial regardly to reduce the number of traffic stops based on a cotarists race, Howard County police officials announced oct. 20 that the department will track officers actions to weed out those who use racial sed out these who use racial rolling. Police Chief Wayne Livesay ind the county will require of cers to record the race of people to the county will require of cers to record the race of people to the county in the season tredit stops. Howard County into departments in California, North Carolina Connecticut and fassichusetts with the proceed sub-profiling program. While Maryland State Police its required by a court settle into interest to their results stops, few departments in the nation are willing to exceed themselves to criticism, as enforcement to press say. US Autoriety General Janet Coro asked police departments in April to corroborate their claims that they do not use profiling by commiting reliad data. Police chasis also met with community leaders in Washington in May to devise new standards for traffic stops.

with officers are not reported to police either." ☐ Hmong Community Holds Anti-Gang

FORUM ST. PAUL—Ge Vang Pao an audience of about 300 peopl to pay more attention to the poince or community organizations.

About 40 Himong gauge operate in Minnesota, according to authorities. St. Paul police have increased efforts to cursuil the violence, and the Minnesota Cang Strike Force has been actively pursuing gang members in the Tyon Cities.

Chu Yang Heu spoke about his 19-puri-old earn who are about his 19-puri-old earn who was abot has month-while playing basketball in Minplewood Charles Xiong of the 140 Family Community Certer, which sponsored the antirang forum, told how his 16-yearold son was one of two teenagers shot and injured while writing for a school bus also last month.

"It was important for me to toll what happened to my sen, so that people in the Himong community realize what's going on," said Xiong, "My son was standing at a hus stop toying to go to school. My son is not involved in a gang, but they keep following him. I have no idea why they shot him."

Court Says Race Not Used in Choosing Jury

Used in Choosing Jury Forepersons
SAN FRANCISCO—The 86year absence of Hispanics and Chinese Americans as inceptscope in San Francisco criminal grand pures did not result from discrimination. A state appeals court concluded Oct 18
Mendes Stanley Brown, unvivided of murviering a man during a 1984 hurgiary has arqued that his convictor should be overturned because the lack of Hispanics and Chinese American representatives fainted the grand jury that indicated him.

The appeals court ruled 30 against Blown, who is serving a ife sentence, saying there was no vidence that judges used racebased factors in choosing the forepersons. Rather, the court said, judges choos according to based factors in choosing the forepersons. Rather, the court said, judges chose according to leadership and organizational ability.

But the court also said the large local population of His-penies and Chinese American makes it "utserly improbable that random choice would re-sult in none being chosen to lead any of the 19-member page.

lead any of the 19-member pos-els.

County grand juries are pur-els selected by courts to consid-er criminal charges in a small number of cases, ofter the most serious. Most charges are filed directly by prosecutors. Com-ties also have civil grand juries that investigate government programs.

San Fruncisco grand juries are chosen randomly from voter and motor vehicle ists. The foreperson has the same vote as other members. He or she swears in witnesses, signs in-dictinents and performs other duties.

Researchers to Classearchers to Study Tobacco Use Among API Teens TOS ANGELES—Basearchers at the University of Southern California were awarded a $12.8 million grant to study ways to prevent tobacco use among Astan Pacific Islander and Hispanic exengens, the university amounced on Oct. 18.

to use among Asian Pacific Leinder and Hispanic teenagers, the inniversity amounced on Oct. 18.

This money provided by the National Cancer Institute will be used to create a center dedicated to studying ways that outure, immigration and assimilation into U.S. society affects the smoking habits of teens. Exceptions also will design and test prevention programs and coming the since of secund-hand smoke or young poole. They will work with students in 22 middle choice in California. Hewein see the Central China city of Wulan.

APIs and Hispanics are expected to make up about 60 percent of California's poulseion by 2025, and will make up 75 percent of the students in public schools.

Investigators already has observed that Vietnamese, Cambodian, Lactain and South American immigrants tend to see less tobseco as they assimilate into U.S. society Chinese and Marican teets smoke more than in their native countries, researchers said in a news release.

INOUYE

(Continued from page 1)

(Continued from page 1)
some sort of leadership of the senior officers, the regiment received invitations from Rohwer and Jerome, the two internment camps in Arkansas.
You must keep in mind that all of us from Hawaii, almost without exception, had absolutely no idea about the existence of these camps. We just assumed these fellows from the mainland came from Washington, Oregon, California and places like that.

When the invitations were received by the regiment, each company was invited to send 10 men to spend a weekend in one of the two camps. By coincidence, the only ones who were selected were men from Hawaii, I was one of those selected by the company. I was then a corporal.

We all, on that appointed day, got ourselves cleaned up, took our ukeleles and got on the trucks to head off to Rohwer. I was in the Rowher group.

What we saw just horrified us. We saw a camp like a military camp with barracks with high barbed wires and then realized the United States government.

had set up these camps and placed Japanese Americans and their parents into these camps. The thing that struck us was the realization that the men in the regiment, the men from the mainland, for the most part, had volunteered from behind barbed wire encomments such as this mainland, for the most part, had volunteered from behind barbed wire encampennts such as this and that they had, notwithstanding the fact that this country had placed them without any cause into these camps, had stepped forward to volunteer. They had placed themselves in harms way. Many of us have saked ourselves the question: Would I have volunteered if I were in one of those camps? I must say honestly that I don't know what my response would be. I might have been one of those who would have resisted. I don't know. I might have been one of those who would have resisted. I don't know. I might have solunteered I was a young boy at the time. It's not a question that can be too readily enswered at this time in history. I would like to say that yes I would have volunteered, but I take my hat off to the mainlanders who stood up, notwithstanding this incarceration, and volunteered. I also take my hat off to those who stood up and spoke up against the government for doing this unconstitutional act. Both decisions took great courage, and

I think that should be recognized.

P.C.: During the late 1970s and early 1980s when the Nikkei and early 1980s when the Nikkei community prepared to pursue redress legislation, you played a pivotal role by suggesting the formation of a congressional commission, which, in hindsight, proved to be a crucial element getting the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 passed. Had a significant number of camp internees resisted in camp, could redress have been achieved?

Inouye: If the majority of the Japanese Americans had resisted, no question that redress would have been that much more difficult. The fact that the 442nd had done a good job and shed a had done a good job and shed a lot of blood did make an impres-sion upon members of congress. No question about that.

P.C.; How can the Nikkei community go beyond this animosity and come together?

Inouye: It is up to those in leadership positions to step forward and get the people together.

I would hope that the Nikkei community would once again embrace each other as brothers and sisters. I believe that those men who stood for their beliefs did so on our behalf.

Obituanies

Adachi, Isami, 85, survived by brother Shozo Adachi and wife Takeko; sister Ayame Taga; nieces and nephews.

and nephews.

Akiyama, Shizuko, 92, Los Angeles, Oct. 15; Okayama-kenborn; survived by daughters
Yayeko Yonesawa, Miyeko Ishida
and husband Noboru, Sachiko Arai and husband Geoffry; 4 gc., 4

Arakaki, Alvin Hiroshi, 55, Montebello, Oct. 15; Utah-born; survived by wife May, daughter Akemi; mother Nancy; brother Clifford and wife Takako (Tenn.), sister Esther Taira.

Eto, Masaji, 83, San Luis Obispo, Oct. 11; Pismo Beachborn retired Los Osos farmer; survived by wife Margaret Etsuko; son Alan and wife Janis; daughters Lois Hatsuko Hanaki and husband Kenneth, Marilyn ters Lots Hatsuko Hanaki and husband Kenneth, Marilyn Fleisher and husband Steven, Linda Moriguchi and husband Gene; 8 gc., 2 ggc.

Gene; 8 gc., 2 ggc.
Fujii, Minoru, 67, Garden Grove, Oct. 14; Hiroshima-born naturalized U.S. citizen; survived by wife Margaret Haruko; mother
Kishiye (Japan); sisters Atsuko Fujii, Hideko Fukashiro and husband Noboru (both Japan), brothers-in-law Ben, Hiroshi Hata and wife Yukie; sisters-in-law Miyeko Nozaki and husband Sumilichi; Mitsuwe Oda and husband Jim Mitsuye Oda and husband Jim Masami, Sachiye Sato ahd hus-band Masanori.

band Masanori.

Goishi, Mack Iwao, 79, Sacramento, Oct. 1; survived by wife Gerry; daughter Patricia Steffen and husband Bill (Chica-Steffen and husband Bill (Chica-go Park); son Rick and wife Leapha (Elk Grove), Wendy Go-ishi; 2 gc.: brother Wataru and wife Lisa (Livermore); sister Mary Toki and husband Ty (San Francisco), Kikuye Yamashita Mary 16th and husband 17 Osai Francisco), Kikuye Yamashita (Japan); brothers-in-law Bill Tsu-ji, Donald Yamabe, Mas Hatano and wife V, Billy Hatāno and wife Grace; sister-in-law Susie Okamoto and husband Richard (Sacramento).

Heyamoto, Chiyoko, 90, Fresno, Oct. 12; Clovis-born JA-CLer; survived by son Norman; sister Lillian Nakaarai.

Iwamoto, Shigeru G., 80, Seattle, Aug. 23; Nisei veteran; survived by wife Kimi and sons Richard S. and Gary D. (all Seat-

Kawakami, Toshio, 77, Seat kewakami, Toshio, 77, Seat-tle, Sept. 5; Seattle-born Minido-ka internee, WWII MIS veteran; survivelby wife Maxine; daugh-ter Wendy K. Ding and husband Timothy (Renton); son Wayne B. (Seattle); 3 gcc.; brother Jake; sister Yuki Sato.

Keast, Taeko, 63, Corte Madera, Oct. 9, survived by hus-band Charles; sons Duke, Paul and wife Rum; daughter Arianne Keast; sisters Nobuko Yoshizawa, Hiroko Matsuda; 1 gc.

HITOKO MATSUGA; 1 gc.
Kishiba, Susumu, 78, Los Angeles, Oct. 7; survived by sons Bruce and wife Mariko, Charles;
2 gc.; brothers George, and wife Toshie, Minoru and wife Molly; sisters Carol Tamanaha and husband Bill, Jean Matsuda and husband Don band Don.

Kitabayashi, George L, 76,
Los Angeles, Oct. 5; Los Angelesborn resident of Monroe, N.C.; survived by sister Takasko Nishizawa and husband Fred; brothers Jimmie and wife Setsuko, Shiro and wife Mary.

Leung, Peter, 59, Sacramento, Aug. 26; Hong Kong native, lecturer in Asian American Studies at UC Davis; borticulturist, researcher, author of "One Day, One Day ies at UC Davis, hortcumurs, researcher, author of "One Day, One Dollar. The Chinese Farming Experience in the Sacramento Delta", survived by wife Eileen Chong, sons Timothy (Berkeley), daughter Tarika (Davis), brother Paul (Bayside, N.Y.), Thomas daugnter lawis (Davis), bromas (Hong Kong), Jackson (Davis), sisters Lily Chan (Sacramento), Ching Yee Chin (New York City).

ng, Dr. Amy, 63, Madis

orna except as notes.

Wis., Aug. 21; Beijing, China-born dedicated pioneer in Asian American studies with an international reputation; author of "Yellow Light: The Flowering of Asian American Arts," among numerous other books; survived by husband Gelston Hinds Jr.; son Asthu, Ling Hinds deughter. band Gelston Hinds Jr.; son Arthur Ling Hinds; daughter Catherine Ling Hinds.

Masaki, Percy T., 89, Sacramento, Aug. 12, Tule Lake internee, devoted JACLer and community volunteer; survived by wife Gladys; son Dr. Setsuo Masaki and wife Karen; 5 gc., 5

Miura, Ayako, 77, Sapporo, Japan, Oct. 12., best-selling post-war novelist, winner of Asab, Shimbun novel competition; a museum was opened in her honor in her native Asahikawa; sur-vived by husband Mitsuyo.

Nakano, Dennis M., 59, St. Louis, Oct. 8; survived by father Sam; sister Nikki Nakano Hara and husband John; predeceased by mother Mary.

of motion mary.

Shimizu, Hide Hyodo, 91,
Toronto, Aug. 22; Vancouver, Canada, born, one of the first Japanese Canadians to hold a teacher's certificate; member of the 1936 unsuccessful Ottowa the 1936 unsuccessful Otto Delegation to petition the Car dian government for the right to vote in British Columbia; was al-lowed to visit the WWII Canadilowed to visit the WWII Canadian an detention camps to train teachers; lobbied for Canadian Redress in 1988; was awarded the Order of Canada in 1982. Wald, Toshiko, 96, Los Ange-

Waki, Toshiko, 96, Los Angeles, Oct. 9; Okayama-ken-born; survived by son Yasushi Waki; daughter Mary Nakata and husband Joe (Fream), 5.g., 4 ggc.; brother Takeo Ishihara (Japan).
Wing, Donald, 75, San Francisco, Sept. 28; survived by sisters Darlene Wong, Bettie Cunningham; brother George Wing.
Yamamoto, Matsuyo Omori, 90, Japan, Aug. 10; Washington State University-educated pioner in home economics extension work; developed a new system for homemaking education; member of Japan's Ministry of Education; member of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations supervising hommaking education; in Asia, homemaking education in Asia, South Pacific and parts of Africa.;

Yamasaki, Sarah Hiromi, 56, South San Gabriel, Oct. 8; Gila, Ariz-born; survived by hus-band George; mother Kaneko Nakanishi; brother Robert Nakanishi.

nishi.

Yamazaki, Edith Yoshimi,
76, Tracy, Oct. 8; survived by husband
Stanley; sons Gaylen
Naoya, Myron Selya; daughter Mindy Miya; brothers Sam and wife Kiyoko Umemoto (Los Angeles), Hank Umemoto, brother-inlaw Kazuo Yamazaki.

707 East Temple Street Gerald Falst Los Angeles, CA 90012 Director Ph. 213 - 626-0441 _ Countries Fax 213 . 617-2781

KUBOTA NIKKEI MORTUARY F.D.L. #929 911 VENICE BLVD. LOS ANGELES, CA 90015

(213) 749-1449 FAX (213) 749-0265 R. Hayamizu, President H. Suzuki, V.P./Gen. Mgt

SMILING

(Continued from page 1)

California, where Tanaka grew up, the issues that are brought up speak to a larger shared San-sei experience. To understand the Sansei, Tanaka first examines her parents, the Nisei. Like others, Tanaka's parents were uprooted by the mass incarceration concentration camps by the United States government during World War II. The impact of the camps and the Nisei legacy emerges as one Sansei after anemerges as one Sanser anter an other discusses the enormous pressure placed upon them to do well academically, a marker of "having made it."

This Nisei expectation for their Sansei children to become "super achievers" may be traced back to camp where many Nisei were camp where many Nissa were forced to become "super patriots" in an effort to assimilate into white society and prove, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that they were loyal Americans as any Causelium.

aucalian.
All this took a toll on the Nikkei community. Tanaka's sis-ter shared how she tried to live up to the model minority myth by getting straight As and ultimategetting straight-As and ultimately marrying a Sansei dentist. By all accounts, Tanaka thought her sister was living the "perfect" Sansei life. But her sister, struggling with ethnic identity problems and alienation, ended up di-vorcing and remarrying a Caucasian doctor, thus becoming a part of the growing trend of San-sei to marry "out" of their race i to marry another camp legacy.

Classified Ads

EMPLOYMENT

ACCOUNT MANAGER A Fortune 100 Medical Supply Co. is seeking an outside "sales star" to sell medical supplies to the hospital market. One position is in the Los Angeles area and one is in the Bay area. Medical or Pharmaceutical experience is a plus, but not necessary. Base compensation: $70k 1st year + all expenses, company car, 401k, and major medical benefits. ne to Richard McCarthy at

Other Sansei, rather than become "super achievers" like Tanaka's sister, went the other direction. Several speakers ng Sansei shared about how joining shared about now joining Susserving gangs was their way of asserving ethnic pride by doing away with any pretense of wanting to fit into an unwelcoming white soci-ely. One speaker went so far as to refer to these gangs as his "role model." This occurred in the context of the civil rights movement where the Black Panthers and the Brown Berets were a ethnic identity and power. But just as the camp dissidents be-came pariahs of the Nisei community, so too did the Sansei delinquents, whose very history has been virtually unrecorded.

In the midst of all this raged he Vietnam War. One speaker Vietnam War. One sp was beaten up and spent two weeks in a hospital after being mistaken for a "gook." Others served in the U.S. military and experienced discrimination in the Army. All this added fuel to the idea that Japanese Americans were still viewed as foreigners.

At the same time, while the At the same time, while the Sansei struggled with reclaiming their ethnic identity, Tanaka notes that many Nisei, like her parents, were dealing with their own personal problems. Forced to make critical life decisions before they were ready, Tanaka shares about her parents' crumbling marriage. Her father, who gave marriage. Her father, who gave up a promising career as a boxer, turns to alcohol and passes away at a young age. He becomes among the 40 percent of Nisei among the 40 percent of Nises men who never reached the age of 60, a statistic cited by Tanaka. Tanaka's mother, on the other hand, falls into deep depression and drowns herself in medication such as valium.

As a result, the Nisei dealt with the rising Sansei drug and gang problem much the same

SAN GABRIEL VILLAGE

235 W. Fairview Ave. San Gabriel, CA 91776 (213) 283-5685 (818) 289-5674

way they dealt with the camp ex-perience: through denial and si-lence. Tanaka points out that even . Sansei obituaries were masked in half-truths to deny the masked in half-truths to deny the ensistence of drug overdoses and suicides. Many of these obituar-ice simply stated that the de-ceased "died suddenly" or had a mysterious "heart problem." No doubt Stansel living in Los Angeles will readily identify with the issues raised in the movie. Many will probably relate to the Sansei ganes: the prevalence of Sansei gangs; the prevalence of Reds, the drug of choice among the Vietnam War, the Watts riot, Sansei drug and gang problems, Sansei suicides, academic pres-sures, rise in Sansei "out" mar-riages, the model minority myth, etc. — the movie sometimes as to lose focus.

Another problem with the movie is listening to unidentified Nikkei, which the viewer is left to assume are all Sansei who have come their drug and/or gang problems and are now successful citizens in society. The viewer is even left to assume that one of the speakers is Tanaka's sister.

PHOTO COURTESY OF VC

"When You're Smiling" — Sansei death certificate, barbiturate overdose, September, 1972.

L.A. Sansei; obituaries of youths LA Sanse; obtuaries of youths that appeared in the local daily newspaper, the Rafu Shimpo; and the rise of self-help groups such as Yellow Brotherhood and Asian Big Sisters.

On the other hand, to those outside the Los Angeles Nikkei community and to the Yonsei, Gosei and even the Nisei genera-tion, all this may be new territo-ry which might need a little more elaboration. And because Tanaka attempts to pack in a lot of infor-mation — camp, resettlement,

ALOHA PLUMBING

Lic. #440840

SINCE 1922 777 W. Mission Road San Gabriel, CA 91778

(323) 283-0018

Los Angeles panese Casua neurance Asse

COMPLETE INSURANCE PROTECTION

Aihara Insurance Agency, Inc. 250 E. 1st St., Los Angeles 90012 itle 700 (213) 626-9625 Licil 0496786

Funakoshi-Ito Ins. Services, Inc. 98 S. Läke Ave., Pasadena 91101 Suite 300 (626) 795-7059 Lict 0175794

Ota Insurance Agency, Inc. 35 N. Lake Ave., Pasadena 91101 te 250 (626) 795-6205 Lic# 0542395

Kagawa Insurance Agency, Inc. 420 E. Third St., Los Angeles 90013 (213) 628-1800 Lic# 0542624

Ogino-Aizumi Insurance Agency 1818 W. Beverly Bl., Montebello 90640 uite 210 (323) 728-7488

Isu-Tsuneishi Ins. Agency, Inc. 250 E. 1st St., Los Angeles 90012 uite 1005 (213) 626-1365 Lict 0599528

Sato Insurance Agency 250 E. 1st St. Los Angeles 90012 8 700 (213) 680-4190 Licit 0441090

Roy Iwami & Associates Quality Ins. Service, Inc. omona Blid, Montarry Park 91 (323) 727-7755 Lic# 0639513

Lict 0606452

Suite 210

J. Morey Company, Inc. Centerpointe Drive, La Palma 90623

(714) 562-5910 Lic# 0655907

ce Ass

ity

While it is obvious who Tanaka's

While it is obvious who tanakas sister is, these guessing games detract from the message that the speakers are expressing. If the viewer was given a con-text of who these unidentified speakers were, it might have been inspirational to see just how far these assumed Sansei have come in life, particularly since Tanaka was able to interview such people as June Okita Kuramoto of the jazz/fusion band Hiroshima. By sharing their stories, these people have great po-tential to be role models for the younger generation who may be undergoing similar struggles.

Tanaka elso touches upon but does not elaborate on the Sanse movement to form various orgamovement to form various orga-nizations to overcome the drug, and gang problems. Although she interviews Marilyn Quon from Asian Big Sisters, another speak-er refers to Yellow Brotherhood, Asian Hardoore and AADAP (Asian American Drug Abuse Program). Unless the viewer is familiar with these Los Angelesspecific groups, they may not un-derstand and appreciate just how many lives were turned around by these community people turned social worker, some of whom were former gang members.

To give the movie more balance, interviews with Nisei ance, interviews with Nisei might also have been considered. As it stands, the viewer gets a Sansei perspective, and the Nisei parents are not allowed to defend or share their reasons for taking the course that they did.

On the other hand, what Tana ka attempts to do in a short amount of time certainly should be commended. To digest and un-derstand the enormous amount of information thrown at the viewer, it is recommended that this movie be viewed more than once. The message will become clearer after multiple viewings.

"When You're Smiling," a production by Visual Communica-tion (VC), will hold its world pre-mier on Saturday, Nov. 13, from 7.30 p.m., at the Union Center for the Arts in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo. Tanaka will be available to answer questions, and a reception will follow. The event is cosponsored by VC and the Japanese American National Museum.

Tickets are $20 general admission; $15 for Friends of VC members Decode will benefit VC.

bers. Proceeds will benefit VC programs and to help defray the final post-production costs of the movie. For tickets or more infor-mation, call 213/680-4462 ext. 58; or visit the Website at .

National Business and Professional Directory Get a head start in business

Your business card in each tissue for 24 issues is $15 per line, three-line minimum targer type (12 pt) counts as two lines, Logo same as line rate as required. PC has made no determination that the businesses listed in this directory are licensed by proper government authority. Greater Los Ang San Mateo County, Calif.

ASAHI TRAVEL

BUSINESS & LEISURE TRAVEL PO GROUPS, FAMILIES & DEDIVIDUA ASKALI PACKACE TOURS, CRUSSES, RAILE-YORTOSE & LABOURDE SERVICE 1543 W. Olympic Blvd, #317, L.A. 9001 (213) 487-4294 • FAX (213) 487-1073

TAMA TRAVEL-INTERNATIONAL Martha Igarashi Tamashiro 626 Wilshire Blvd., Ste 310 s Angeles 90017; (213) 622-43

801 N. Western Ave., Los Angeles 9002 (323) 466-7373 / Art & Jim Ito Howard Igasaki, D.D.S., Inc. Alan Igasaki, D.D.S. General Dentistry / Periodontics 22850 Crenshaw Blvd., Ste. 102 Torrance, CA 90605 (310) 534-8282

Cambridge Dental Care Scott Nishizaka D.D.S. nily Dentistry & Orthodor 900 E. Katella, Suite A ge, CA 92867 • (714) 538

Dr. Darlyne Fujimoto, Optometrist & Associates A Professional Corporation 11420 E. South St, Cerrito, CA 90701 (510) 860-1339

H.B. INTERNATIONAL gual business opports veilable. Call (925) 8

estions regarding rates or space Call 1-800-966-6157 to Advertise

AILEEN A. FURUKAWA, CPA Accounting for Individuals, I & Trusts and Businesses 2020 Pioneer Court, Suite 3 fateo, CA 94403. Tel: (415) 35 San Leandro, Calif.

YUKAKO AKERA, O.D.

Doctor of Optometry
Medi-Care Provider, Fluent Japanese
1390 E. 14th St., San Leandro, CA 94577
(510) 483-2020

ta Ciara County, Calif.

Debbie Yukiko Shin Ron Sakaguchi Sterling Associates Realty Real Estate & Loans Serving Silicon Valley Since 1977 408-865-0782

UWAJIMAYA

ttle, WA • (206) 624-6248 Bellevue, WA • (425) 747-9012 Besverton, OR • (503) 643-4512

American Holiday Travel

1999 TOUR SCHEDULE BBEAN HOLIDAY CRUISE Onamo Cond. Aruba, S. Moorten, Barbook -Crystal Cruster He 2000 TOUR PREVIEW

	SANTA BARBARA ORCHID SHOW WEEKEND GETAWAY TOUR
	NEW ORLEANS HOLIDAY TOUR
	JAPAN SPRING HOUDAY TOUR
	GRANDPARENTS/GRANDCHILDREN JAPAN HOLIDAY TOURJUNE
	ALASKA/YUKON HOLIDAY CRUISE TOURJULY
	NORTHERN NATIONAL PARKS HOLIDAY TOUR
ı	ISLANDS OF NEW ENGLAND HOUDAY TOUR
ı	CRYSTAL HARMONY AUTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND CRUISE
l	SOUTH AMERICA/PATAGONIA HOUDAY TOUROCTOBER

We can also assist you with: Domestic/International flights, Hotels, Cars, Individual Tour Packages, Cruises, Low Cost Airfares to Japan, Japan Ralipass.

For information and reservations, please write or call to:
AMERICAN HOLIDAY TRAVEL

312 E. 1ST ST., 4341, Los Angeles, CA 90012
Tel: (213) 625-2232; Fax: (213) 625-4347
Ernest & Carol Hida, Yaeko
CST #2000326-10

2000 ESCORTED TANAKA TOURS

COPPER CANYON ADVENTURE (10 days)	FEB 20
JAPAN SPRING ADVENTURE (Takayama Festival, 11 days)
FREIRCH IMPRESSIONS (11 days)
CANADIAN ROCKIES / VICTORIA (8 days)	JUNE 14
TAUCK NOVA SCOTIA (8 days)
GRAND PRINCESS MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE (14 days)	SEPT 8
TENNESSEE / BRANSON / KENTUCKY (Shoil Tabuchi Show, 9 days)
TAUCK COLORADO NATIONAL PARKS (10 days)
JAPAN AUTUMN ADVENTURE (12 days)
JOURNEY TO VIETNAM (15 days)
CALL OR WRITE TODAY FOR OUR FREE BROCHU
CALL ON WHITE TODAY FOR OUR PREE BROCHU	HES THE

